P. B. Clark, Summerside, is in Charlottetown and will return home today accompanied by his daughter Miss Jennie, who returned last evening from Westville, N. S. where she was the guest of her sister Mrs. Hiram Langille. While in Charlottetown they were the guests of W. S. and Mrs. Newsom.

Persons desiring advertising of any kind inserted in The Guardian are requested to leave their order for same at this office as early as possible during the day, as the writing staff at night requires all their time for their own work, and finds it difficult to handle even emergency advertising, which latter, but lessens the amount of news in that issue.

Rev. R. W. Norwood, who has been assistant rector in a large church in Montreal, has recently been invited and has accepted the rectorship of the chief episcopal church in London, Ontario. The salary is $2,500 a year. Mr. Norwood is known as one of the most eloquent young men in the ministry, and he has many friends who have been watching his upward career with interest. Mrs. Norwood is a sister of Mrs. J. M. Curry, Amherst—Exc. (Rev. Mr. Norwood has friends in Charlottetown.)

At the urgent request of a large number of farmers from many sections of Queen's County, Mr. Richards has decided to allow his noted horse "Baron Kelvin" to stand in Charlottetown, between certain dates during the season, as will be seen upon reference to the advertisement which we publish in this issue. It is beyond question that "Baron Kelvin" is without a peer among Clydesdales in Canada today. As a show horse he has demonstrated his supremacy at the leading shows held in Canada and the United States. The following are the prizes won by him since his arrival from Scotland in August last:—First prize and grand championship, Toronto Exposition, fall 1911. First prize champion and grand champion, also first for best heavy draft stallion all breeds competing. As a breeding horse he has proved very successful. A yearling son imported from Scotland last summer won the championship in his class at several shows and a daughter of the same age was first last fall at important shows in Scotland. His pedigree represents the best and most fashionable in Clydesdale breeding. His sire "Baron's Pride" is unquestionably the best breeding Clydesdale in the world at the present time, and his dam—a noted mare—is by the famous breeding and show horse "Montrose Mac". Full particulars as to the breeding of "Baron Kelvin" is given in a card which may be had upon application to Lewis Huetis, Charlottetown.

Now is the time to pay particular attention to the condition of your horses. Look out for swollen legs, bad indigestion, poor appetite and many other minor disorders that afflict the best this time of year. Division No 1 Ancient Order of Hibernians of Charlottetown have forwarded a resolution of condolence, signed by P. S. Bradley, F. I. Mallet, F. Power as a committee, to their brother Edward Burns on the death of his beloved wife and child.

There will be no preaching service in the Baptist Church at Marshfield on Sunday afternoon May 5th prox. Rev. J. L. Fash will preach in this Church on Sunday afternoon May 12th at three o'clock and will preach there regularly every two weeks after that.

The steamer Wobun is loading 500 tons of coal for Halifax. It is understood the Wobun is about to change hands, the purchasers being an English company located in Leeds. It was reported recently that the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal company had purchased the steamer Waconusta, but so far there has been no confirmation of the report from an official source.—Glace Bay Exc. (The Wobun and the Waconusta are frequent visitors to the port of Charlottetown.)

On Sunday the I. O. O. F., Charlottetown, before leaving their hall witnessed an interesting and noteworthy event. It was the presentation of a veteran sword by St. Lawrence Lodge to J. F. Wheat, Past Grand Master and past Grand Representative, who on April 25th, completed 25 years of continuous membership in the Order. The formal presentation was made by J. J. McKinnon, Grand Secretary for the Maritime Provinces.

An exchange says:—"Frank Lukeman is going to try his luck again, and is now training on the McGill University track for the Olympic trials. Lukeman went to the last Olympic games, and he says he is good enough to go again, and bring back to Canada some A No. 1 honors." Frank Lukeman is well known in Charlottetown, having competed here some years ago in running and jumping events, coming to Charlottetown with Will Hapenny, also of Charlottetown, from Montreal.

The many people who gathered at the People's Theatre, Charlottetown, last evening to enjoy the entertainment were treated to a delightful program. Mlle. Olivette, who was recalled a number of times, gave the musical selections with her usual pleasing deliverance. A beautiful thing was shown on the canvas when the moving picture reel entitled, Bacchus & Cupid was screened. The other reels were, Why the Cheque was Good, showing the results of a good turn, Hypnotizing the Hypnotist and A Slight Mistake, both good funny reels with lots of laughter. The show all through was good.
