WEST KENT ICE SPORTS SUCCESSFULLY CARRIED OUT

Capacity Audience At The Arena Last Night To Watch Youngsters In Action.--Summerside High School Wins Hockey Game From W. K. S. 3 To 2.

Viewed from every angle, the West Kent School Ice Sports and hockey game held at the Arena last evening were a decided success and reflects great credit not only on the part of the competitors but the energetic committee and officials in charge.

An attendance of over fifteen hundred boys and girls, young mer and women—and some older than that crowded the Arena for the occasion and needless to say had the time of their lives.

An excellent sheet of ice, a well balanced program of events, coupled with the right enthusiasm and spirit to win made everything go over in such a way that the W. K. S. Ice Sports for 1928 were voted the most successful in the history of the school.

Each and every event on the card was interesting and closely contested, especially the one mile open which was won by Keith Acorn the school speed skating champion. Acorn is only 14 years of age, but possesses speed and stamina to burn. With some real coaching he would develop into one of the fastest juniors in the Maritimes. He is a son of Mr. E. F. Acorn, popular announcer and well known local sport enthusiast.

To make any special mention of the other events would be indeed difficult as each and every start was exciting and well raced throughout.

The committee wish to thank Mr. S. F. Doyle for the donation of a silver medal for the mile open event also Mr. E. F. Acorn for suitable awards to the entries, winning second and third positions.

Summerside 3; W. K. S. 2

The hockey game which was fast and exciting throughout was won by the Summerside High School from West Kent by a score of 3 to 2.

It was a toss-up from start to finish as to which sextette would finish on the big end of the scoring, both teams being evenly matched and played pretty nearly the same style of hockey, the visitors perhaps excelling in combination with Schurman, their goalie getting the most sensational stops. However, as above mentioned, it was impossible to pick a winner until the final bell. Both teams turned in hard, and at times brilliant hockey.

The Scores by Periods

Summerside was the first to score when Cahill on a pass from Dickie slipped the rubber past Walker in eight minutes from the opening whistle. There was no further scoring in this period.

In the second period Art Fraser raised the West Kent hopes by scoring individually in five minutes. However, three minutes later John McDonald, Summerside forward put his team again in the lead after a rink end run.

This period ended 2 to 1 in favor of Summerside.

The third period opened fast and furious with the visitors pressing hard and realizing shortly after the opening whistle. West Kent tried hard and looked good for a time finally annexing a counter off the stick of B. Cox. On the score Summerside stuck close to a defensive game and no matter how hard the locals tried they could not penetrate their opponent's citadel. The visitors played a heads-up defensive game in the dying moments of the game.

Slump In Rubber Cost The Market 1,500,000 Pounds

LONDON, Feb. 10.—A slump in rubber today cost the market more than £1,500,000, Sir William Mitchell declared in the House of Commons The slump was caused by the announcement of an inquiry by the Government into the effects and operation of the restrictions on rubber export. There was a decline of a penny or more a pound in th Mincing Lane Market. Sir William asked Premier Baldwin if the present regulations were likely to continue for years. He added that the uncertainty caused by the news to continue papers of the government's projected inquiry had cost the market on 66,000 tons, £23 per ton. The Prime Minister said that such a question should be addressed to the Board of Trade. Rubber recovered three farthings per pound late m the afternoon.

Milton Sills Stars In Colorful Tale

"THE SILENT LOVER," ADAPTED BY CAREY WILSON FROM EUROPEAN STAGE SUCCESS DECLARED BEST DESERT PICTURE OF ITS KIND EVER SEEN HERE.

"The Silent Lover," starring Milton Sills with a supporting cast of more than usual brilliancy, had its local premiere at the Prince Edward theatre yesterday, and was acclaimed by a series of capacity audiences.

Adapted by Carey Wilson from a European stage success, it presents an absorbing tale of a man's regulation in the French Foreign Legion following a career of reckless dissipation in the night-lift of Paris.

First as a conscienceless young regal rake and later as a stern faced lieutenant of French Legionaires, matching his wits and woo-ings with desert sheiks, Sills appears in the most colorful and compelling role since his "Sea Hawk."

Scarcely less impressive than the work of the star are the contributions of several of his supporting cast—Montagu Love as the Sheik, Ben Achmed; Viola Dana as Scadza, his daughter; lovely Natalie Kingston as the American girl, Arthur Edmund Carew as the despicable Captain Herault, William V. Mong as the faithful servant, Kobol and Alma Bennett as a Parisienne demi-mondaine.

Comedy honors are divided between the irresistible Charlie Murray and the irrepressible Arthur Stone, while Claude King and Alma Bennett handle smaller parts with deft finesse.

A charge of 350 Riff tribesmen on a lonely Legion outpost in the desert; Sills' desperate wrestling match with the sheik, surrounded by the latter's followers; glorious riding, romance and photography, the high lights in this altogether satisfying and exciting presentation.

"Hot Potato" VanBibber Comedy and good music complete this special week-end bill.
