

PRINCE EDWARD TODAY 8, 7 AND 8.45 Matinee 16c and 11c. Evening 26c, 21c and 16c.

A BIG WEEK END SPECIAL FEATURE AT REGULAR PRICES

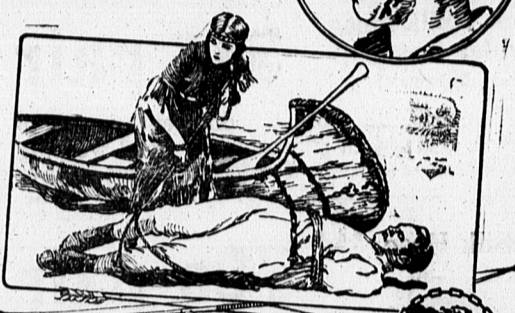

Bela was raised by an Indian tribe, in ignorance, until she blossomed into womanhood, of her white parentage.

A brave from a neighboring tribe sought her in marriage.

AND THIS IS WHAT HE GOT.

"Black Shand" Frazer won from two fellow-prospectors the right to force unwelcome attentions on her—and this is what he got.

Sam Gladding did not want her at all, but she wanted him—and THIS IS WHAT HE GOT.

—AND YOU'LL GET—

You'll get a kick out of this, we know. It's a Western of a new type. Bela proves that the female of the species is a more relentless go-getter than the male—and the proving will give you a mighty satisfactory entertainment. Come!

THIRD TRIAL FOR REV. A. DELORME

MONTREAL, Aug. 21.—According to La Presse, French language newspaper of this city, Rev. Delorme, twice tried for the alleged murder of his half brother, Raoul Delorme, will come up for his third trial at the September sessions of the Court of King's Bench here. The paper says that C. L. Calder, K. C., crown prosecutor, affirms this and that the presiding judge at the trial will be Dr. Justice Demers, of the Superior Court. It adds that Delorme will be tried again in spite of the fact that he has recently been examined by alienists.
