"EVERYTHING AS ADVERTISED."

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

Dr. Stinson and George Houston, New Glasgow, were in the city yesterday.

LEO GILLES, who was operated on for appendicitis Tuesday, at the City Hospital, is reported to be progressing favorably.

REV. JAS. McDUGALL will preach (D. V.) on Sabbath the 9th at DeSable at 10.30. Argyle Shore at 3, and Canoe Cove at 7. Special collections.

CAPTAIN McDUGALL who has been waiting at Pownall for some time past left last week on return to Boston, where he will join his ship, the Calbarge.

GEO. M. NICHOLSON, Blanchard, North Dakota, arrived in the city Wednesday en route to visit his parents Donald S. and Mrs. Nicholson, Orwell Cove.

ERNEST MCINNIS, Charlottetown, has purchased from John E. Jardine, boat designer at Pownall, a boat called the "New Arrival," for which he paid a handsome sum.

The Dutch tea held by the ladies of St. Peter's congregation, Wednesday night, was a decided success. Flowers, candy, fancy articles, etc., brought in the sum of nearly $300. The next proceeds will be about $175.

The report that the schooner Baltic, Captain Jerome Gallant, Rustico, which is owned by James Scrimgeour, Cardigan, had been wrecked, is untrue, as Mr. Scrimgeour received on Wednesday a message announcing her safe arrival at Port Hood.

Owing to illness on the writing and composing room staffs and the impossibility of several employees to come to work during this week's storm, this issue of the Guardian is without several of its special features. Arrangements are in progress to have a much larger and more interesting edition with several additional features on Saturday morning next. No person should miss it.

The death took place recently at Quincy, Mass. of Mrs. William McInnis. She had been a sufferer for some time. Mrs. McInnis was an exemplary wife, a model mother and her bereaved husband and six motherless children will bless her memory while life endures. To them the loss is irreplaceable. No other face can supplant her face, no other voice will have the same tone as hers. Mrs. McInnis was a daughter of the late James Cummings of Dartington. Her aged mother, one sister Mrs. Geo. D. McLeod of Hunter River and four brothers, one of which is Malcolm Cummings, Dartington, are left to mourn; but they mourn not as those without hope.

VICTORIA LODGE, No. 118, Caledonia meets every Thursday night, and is in a flourishing condition, having had several initiations recently. Many more are expected to follow. Victoria Lodge is a new one, which opened November 15. The officers for the ensuing quarter are as follows:

- V. T.—Ella McLennan.
- Chap.—Mary B. Martin.
- Sec'y.—Bessie Walker.
- A. S.—W. McPherson.
- F. S.—J. Walker.
- Treas.—Evelyn Martin.
- P. C. T.—Flora McLean.
- Mar.—Maggie McLennan.
- D. M.—A. M. McDonald.
- Guard.—J. McLennan.
- Sent.—A. McDonald.
- L. D.—F. McLean.

EVERY MOTHER SHOULD KNOW

That Ozone (the coupon kind) taken with Celery King is the quickest and most reliable way to cure children of Colds, Coughs, Whoops, Fevers, Chills, Summer complaints, and a hundred other ills; it destroys the germs that cause these troubles, and children never object to take Solution of Ozone—it is just like lemonade if a little sugar is added. To make a cure certain Ozone (the coupon kind) and Celery King, the well known laxative tonic, should be used together. We give Celery King free—one 25c package with each purchase of Solution of Ozone. Mothers need have no fear in using these two preparations, because Ozone (the coupon kind) contains no drugs nor alcohol—simply gas in solution—and Celery King is made up of pure wholesome herbs, the best that money can buy. Always ask your druggist for Ozone (the coupon kind).

If you are hard of hearing this will interest you. We have imported a few up-to-date hearing trumpets and ask you to call and inspect them.—Geo. E. Hughes, Apothecaries Hall. 12-6-06

The auction sale at Hubert, McDonald's, Raleigh Corner, Wilnot, advertised to take place on the 4th has been postponed until Tuesday the 11th at 1 p. m., when his farm, stock and implements will be disposed of. This will be an important auction. Remember the date. 12-6-06.

ITALY'S QUEEN ENTERTAINS

"Let Me Be Your Hostess Gentlemen, The Hut is Large Enough"

GENEVA, Dec. 5.—While several Alpinists of different nationalities were sheltering from a snow storm in one of the Italian Alpine Club's huts, a lady entered whom they quickly recognized as Queen Margherita of Italy. Her Majesty was dressed as an ordinary tourist, with thick shoes and alpenstock, and was accompanied by two guides.

Saluting her respectfully, the Alpinists were about to leave the hut, when the Queen stopped them.

"Nobody must go out," she said "for my sake. Let me be your hostess, gentlemen; the hut is large enough to hold us all."

So they didn't leave the little wooden hut for her, but the Queen herself filled up the stove, and after eating a meal with them, helped her "guests" to make their beds on the floor.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

—The reserved seat plan for the Crawford-Hyde Concert will open Monday morning at Jamieson's drug store. Prices 25, 35 and 50 cents.

Any free notice for more than one insertion is classed as advertising.

—An Advertising Agency has been established in connection with this paper. Thus persons and firms desiring advertising in any newspaper outside of this city, are having same placed by The Guardian. They thus secure the same rates as if they placed their order direct, and have each advertisement checked to see that it gets the proper number of insertions and appears as desired.

—Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown. Telephone 132a. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application if they do not get what they want.

Perfumes Direct From France

Last August we placed a large order for a choice assortment of Perfumes manufactured by Violet (pronounced Veio-lay) the famous French Perfumes.

The odors were selected for us by a gentleman who has had a large experience in perfumes and might almost be considered an expert in this line. Several of the odors selected are not carried in stock in Canada and could only be obtained by a special import order such as we gave.

We expect this Perfume in a Few Days and can assure our customers that when our stock arrives we can show a stock of French Perfumes which we think cannot be equalled in this City or Province.

AN ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Messrs. Ross & Matthews. Provincial Managers, "North American Life Assurance" Charlottetown, P. E. I.

GENTLEMEN:—I beg to thank you for cheque for the amount insurance carried by my late husband Barret Henderson, in your Company, appreciate very much the assistance you have given in settling up the business and the worry and expense which you have saved me attending to everything myself. I know the confidence which my husband had in you and your Company and I feel that insurance is a great blessing to the homes of those who have been deprived of their dear husband.

Yours truly, SARAH JANE HENDERSON, North River, P. I.
