St. James Bazaar and tea taken place tomorrow.

The following are the officers of District Division, No. 4, S.O.T., for the ensuing year--

- D.W.P.--M. P. McKinnon. D.W.A.--Annie McLean. D.S.--Dan McLean. D. Treas.--Calvin McDonald. D. Cond.--Gertrude Carson. D. Chap.--Philip Foy. D. Sent.--J. J. McLeod. S.Y.F.W.--Richard Carson.

Rev. Mathew Smith has addressed the following to The Guardian-- Before leaving the Island for my home in New Brunswick I wish to thank all my friends for their kindness to me.

At the last meeting of the overseers of Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., a Canadian Scholar, William Scott Ferguson, M. A., Ph. D., was appointed Assistant Professor of Classical History at that institution.

The Farmers' Institute of Tracadie held a very interesting and instructive meeting last week. Peter Brodie, York, held the appreciative attention of the audience as he told the best methods for the breeding and feeding of the type of bacon hog most desirable and suitable for home and foreign trade.

The feature of a collation in Brussels street church, St. John, Wednesday night, enjoyed by members of the United Baptist churches interested in the Laymen's Missionary Movement, was the passing of a resolution pledging the Baptist churches in St. John to raise $5,000 a year for missions.

The tea tables at St. James' Bazaar tomorrow will be so arranged as to prevent crowding and high tea will be served from 5 to 7.30 p. m.

Among the fancy work for sale at St. James' Bazaar tomorrow will be exquisite tray cloths and side broad cloths in drawn work, Hedelo and Wallachian embroidery.

The new steamer Lady Sybil, built on the other side of the Atlantic for the Magdalen Island Steamship company, arrived in port at Halifax on Saturday last from Grennoch. She sailed from that port on March 31st.

There was a fairly well attended market yesterday but nothing like what it would have been had the roads been in good condition.

The E. B. Eddy Co., have devised a new crimp for the zinc in washboards, which is said to make the washing much easier and to eliminate the danger to the finer linens.

Readers of The Guardian who have in their possession photographs of Lady Bannerman the wife of a former Governor of this Province should read the letter referring to "Carlyle's first love," published on another page.

Workmen are now busily engaged putting a new foundation under the old wooden railway freight shed in this city.

The following is from the Vancouver World. Mrs. Kent, who has been in town for the last year as the guest of her son, H. W. Kent, left on Sunday for her home in Toronto.

Superior All Wool Venetian of Regular 80c Value 69c

Big shipment of fine all wool Venetian cloth made by a noted German weaver has just come in. This fabric is all wool, is very finely finished and measures 45 inches in width. We have it in stock in the following colorings, black, seal brown, light brown, dark navy, mid navy, light navy, garnet, myrtle green, bronze green, and dove grey. The weight is just right for spring suitings, and the fabric is one that will make up and drape perfectly. Under ordinary circumstances we would have to sell the line for 80 cents and at that price it would be considerably exceptional value. Whichever it lasts 69c

To our out of town customers we shall be glad to send you samples, but we are so confident that the goods will please you that we recommend your ordering what you want, and if not suitable you may return at our expense. For a purchase of five dollars in this line we will prepay express or freight anywhere in the Maritime Provinces. In sending for samples please use the following form.

Messrs MOORE & McLEOD, Charlottetown P. E. I. Dear Sirs:-- Please send me by return samples of your special SIXTY NINE CENT VENETIAN Name Address

This mail order department of ours is serving more people every day--From one extremity of P. E. I. to the other people are finding that no outside mail order house can do better than we. One of our latest mail orders was from a lady within ten miles of St. John.

5000 Prizes to the Children

Seems as though every boy and girl in town is interested in the Nazareth Waist sketching Contest. If you don't know about it stop at the Ladies' underwear counter for full particulars. There is a first prize valued at $50.00 for the young artist submitting the best sketch of the Nazareth Waist, and other prizes for everyone else.

Artistic, beautiful wall decorations

We cordially invite you to come and inspect the artistic and beautiful lines of wall paper that we have imported for you. Always large and comprehensive this season our range is absolutely beyond competition. And then again, dainty, artistic decorations cost so little here on account of our direct purchasing from the makers.

No money expended for home surroundings will produce half the results that an investment in appropriate wall decorations will bring you.
