WEDDING BBELLS.— A pretty wedding took place in the Presbyterian Church, Valleyfield, last Wednesday, 22nd inst., when Rev. J. M. MacLeod, M. A., of St. Peters, a native of the congregation, and Miss Alice Matheson of Dundas were united in marriage. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. J. W. MacKenzie assisted by Rev. A. J. MacNeill. The bride who was charmingly attired was attended by the Misses Masie and Bessie MacLeod, nieces of the groom, as flower girls. After the ceremony was performed friends pressed forward to offer their congratulations. The bride is a sister of Mrs. M. MacLaine of "Bayview", St. Peters. The groom is one of the many sons of Valleyfield who has distinguished himself in his chosen profession and the good wishes of the community accompany him and his bride on their journey through life. The happy couple departed on a trip to Halifax and will be at home at the Manse, St. Peter's after Oct. 12th.

A STAUNCH CONSERVATIVE. — The New Glasgow News says:—The Hon. Mr. Kennedy, of Queens County, P. E. Island, is in the city on a visit to his brother, J. D. Kennedy, of the New Glasgow Market. Mr. Kennedy is taking a holiday after the recent political campaign in the Island Province. While here he saw by the Halifax Chronicle that there was two independents elected in the recent elections, "he included as one," Mr. Kennedy wishes to say that the paper is misleading and untrue as every Government member elected is prepared to support the government to the end and he Mr. Kennedy has already been a Conservative and can't see any reason why he should change his views, this being his fourth successful campaign in nine years. He wishes to assure the people of New Glasgow that the Mathieson Government will be doing business at their old stand as usual when the moss will be growing over the graves of those fault-finders and deceptors.

SOIREE.—On Wednesday evening Sept. 8th a crowd of the youth and beauty of Murray Harbour and surrounding districts gathered at the home of Mr. A. R. McKay, Guernsey Cove. The evening was an ideal one for such a gathering, being calm and warm, and later the stars looked down on the gay company assembled the girls in their dainty white dresses and gentlemen in immaculate evening attire, as from time to time they wandered from the house out on the lawn, to enjoy the cool evening air. Among those present were Misses Celina Beck and Ellie Le Lacheur, (chaperones), Misses Ruth and Ethel Brehaut, Florence and Nettie Beck, Eva and Celilia Sencabaugh, Florence and Fredda White, Margaret Davey, Sadie Jorden, Elsie Richards and Edith Hugh, Messrs. Caleb and Perle Jorden, Carl and Charlie Richards, Will Robin, Mac McLeod, Billy MacKenzie, Leonard Beck and Milburn Keehnan. The evening was pleasantly spent (interspersed with such refreshments as fruit, candy, ice cream cake etc. to which every one did full justice) in music on the violin by Mr. Caleb Jordan, accompanied on the organ by Misses C. Sencabaugh and S. Jordan. Gramaphone selections,, and the following games: "Tag," "Double Dodge," "Blind Man's Buff," "Musical Chairs," "General Fruit Basket," "The Three Elements," "Charlie on the Green," "Wink for a Girl," Clap them Out," "Forfeits" and "The Mulligan Family." The company sojourned till the "wee sma' hours dawned, then after singing such favorite selections as "Tipperary," etc., with Miss Sencabaugh presiding at the organ, and thanking their genial host, Mr. MacKay, (affectionately known by his many friends as "Alex") and his sister Miss Edna, the charming young hostess, for the pleasant evening they had spent, all dispersed to their respective homes. If one might be allowed to judge from the peals and shouts of merry laughter, which, as the different games were in progress floated out on the still evening air,one would be inclined to say the young people certainly did enjoy themselves.

BARNUM OUTDONE. —A rather neglected booth in the ground possesses the solitary and unique phenomenon of an Island Barnum, described in weird spelling on the placard outside as the "Worlde's Greatest Wonder, the Six Leged Sheep." For the beggarly sum of ten cents the visitor is invited by the strident tongued proprietor to "Come in and see the worlde's greatest wonder. Your city will be the richer for seeing it. A freak, no fake! It is here, alive gentlemen, breathing God's atmosphere the same as you or I: And some went in to breathe the atmosphere with the extravagantly "leged" sheep.

REPORT CURRENT.—A report has been current for some days that the Charlottetown Steam Navigation Company has sold its steamers, the Empress and the Northumberland, to the C.P.R. Enquiry at the Charlottetown office of the Company elicits only the fact that, so far as the Company is concerned, no authority has been given for the report. As is generally known the Charlottetown Steam Navigation Company is under contract for a term of years with the Dominion Government for carrying of the mails between Pictou and Charlottetown, and Point du Chene and Summerside. This contract, however, the Guardian understands, is subject to termination on the first of December in any year, and it is understood the Company has given such notice to take effect on the first of next December. It may be safely assumed therefore that no change shall take place in the meantime.

WEDDING BELLS.— Rev. C. J. Crowdis, minister of the Grove church officiated at the marriage, at one o'clock Tuesday afternoon, of Miss Elizabeth Milligan and David C. Cameron draughtsman in the Dockyard, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride's brother, Gilbert Milligan, 51 Veith street says Halifax Herald. The bride and groom were unattended. Miss Milligan, who was given away by her brother, looked very lovely in a white satin gown, and wearing a conventional veil, lilies of the valley being caught in its soft folds. The bouquet was of those flowers and of white roses. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Cameron left for a trip through Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island, upon which they are followed by every good wish, and upon their return from which they will live on Richmond Street. The collection of wedding gifts was a large, beautiful and valuable one, including a cabinet of silver from A. Milne Fraser, in whose employ the bride had been for the past four years; a chair from the officers staff, a secretary from the officers and teachers, of Grove School, and a set of carvers from the engineers of the H. M. Dockyard.

GERMANS CLAIM HESPERIAN WAS NOT SUNK BY SUBMARINE

BERLIN, Sept. 20, via London.—The German admiralty is now absolutely certain that the Allan line steamer Hesperian was not destroyed by a German submarine. All the under-water boats which were out at the time of the disaster have now returned to their bases, the Associated Press is authoritatively informed, and it is stated that none of them torpedoed the steamer. On the contrary, it is convinced that the disaster was due to a floating non-German mine.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—With respect to the German denial of responsibility for the sinking of the Allan line steamer Hesperian, the British official press bureau has issued the following statement:

"According to information in the press a semi-official statement has been issued at Berlin that it was practically impossible that a German submarine could have sunk the Hesperian, since, according to the war plans, no German submarine was, on September 4, in the locality where the Hesperian was sunk; also, because, according to a description from English sources, the explosion was of such a kind that it must be inferred that it was caused by a mine rather than a torpedo.

"Undoubted proof exists that a German submarine was actually in the locality where the Hesperian was attacked, and ships were sunk both to he north and south of this spot on September 4 and 5. This is conclusively proved by a fair sized fragment of a torpedo now in the possession of the admiralty, which was picked up on board the ship before she sank."

70,000 PRISONERS TAKEN BY RUSSIANS

(Special to the Guardian.)

LONDON, Sept. 21.—Seventy thousand prisoners taken by the Russians from South Polesie in the last few days of August and the beginning of September already have been registered. It is expected this number will be increased when final reports are received, says a Petrograd despatch. This statement was issued at the Russian capital as an official reply to the Vigna report denying Russian claims to large captures.
