WHEN NEWS IS NEWS — Esteemed correspondents are reminded that a daily newspaper is not a book of history, and are requested to send in news for publication within at least a week of their happening. The Guardian has unfortunately had to turn down recently several reports especially obituary notices, which have reached us long after the event occurred. "News while it is news" is the slogan.—tf.

A Clyde River, gathered to extend their good wishes, and make the presentation of a lovely Aladdin Lamp. Mr. John A. MacKinnon, in his usual capable and pleasing manner, called the gathering to order, and after a few jovial remarks called on Mrs. Daniel MacNeill, to read an address, while Mr. Heber MacLean made the presentation of the lamp. Mr. MacPhail on behalf of Mrs. MacPhail and himself thanked the members for the beautiful gift. Short speeches were made by Mr. Daniel MacDonald, Sr. and Mr. John A. After singing For They Are Jolly Good Fellows, games and contests were indulged in, some of them causing much merriment and laughter.

Nine Lives Lost In Sea Tragedy

BANGOR, County Down, Dec. 13 (CP Cable)—The Belfast steamship Annagher sank off the Irish Coast Saturday with but one known survivor. Nine lives were believed lost.

The only person recovered alive, William Hunter, was brought to a Bangor hospital. He said he was unable to say what happened to the 586-ton ship which was en route from Belfast to Llanelly, Wales.

Six bodies were washed ashore; three other members of the crew were reported missing.

NOVEL FLOWER CONTAINERS.

The latest flower containers include a copy of an Italian bamboo with the outside cut away halfway up the stem, from which flowers are sprayed in the manner of leaves. Another idea is the drinking horn which is filled with deep red flowers representing wine. For country houses there are old metal flower brackets for the walls, and for country drawing-rooms old Dresden china vases filled with the same mixture of flowers that are painted on the china.

Peals Of Sound

(In Appreciation Reginald Steward Piano Recital Dec. 6th, 1937.)

Carressing fingers raise with gentle lest touch
Pluck ivory keys and rouse from out their bed
Of pulsing strings a harmony like much
The voices of the woodland, sea and air; led
Forth as by the Maestro who had brought
To listening ears such crystal pearls of sound;
With interpretation sure and magic thought
The wizardry of keys lets joys abound
And sadness for human hearts; so deft a touch
May lift mere earthlings from their sunken sphere,
Perhaps to try the very stars to clutch!
Clear, pure pearls of sound, if one could always hear.
