The news will be learned with great sorrow of the sudden death of the youngest son of Mr. John Inman of Hampden. He was an unusually bright child and entwined himself around the hearts of all who knew him. And baby Frank will be greatly missed in the home circle by mother and father, and the little brothers and sisters whose one thought was to make the darling of the family happy. To the grief-stricken family we tender our deepest sympathy and the comforting thought that their loved one is not lost but only gone before to the heavenly land to await their coming for the Healer of all sorrow has said "Suffer little children to come unto Me for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

On the evening of the 12th inst., the home of Joseph Story, Millview, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when his daughter Blanche was united in marriage to W. C. Smith, also of Millview. The bride was very becomingly dressed in a suit of blue cloth with white silk and applique trimming, and was attended by her cousin Miss Gertrude Acorn, who was attired in a suit of the same. The groom was ably supported by Wm. Fraser, Vernon River Bridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. Ople, Pownal. After interchange of greetings the guests who numbered about 50, sat down to a sumptuous supper prepared in the hostess' best style, to which all did ample justice. The number of pretty and useful presents received attested to the popularity of the bride. The evening passed all too quickly with music, singing and social chat. Mr. Smith is a son of A. C. Smith, Millview. He has been out west for a number of years but has now settled down in his native home. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are both members of the Vernon River North Church choir, and we wish them every success in life.

SEARCHTOWN.—A large quantity of produce has been shipped from Albany Station. Grain is turning out well and a superior quality. The people of this locality still have to submit to the inconvenience of no station accommodations other than what is procured of our genial postmaster who tries often at great inconvenience to make all comfortable. It was hoped the visit of Messrs. Pottinger and Sharp would have resulted in some move before this. It is hoped that those setting forth the claims have not failed to impress them with the needs.—The Annual meeting of the Farmers Institute for Lots 27 and 28 is to meet at Tryon Hall on Monday the 1st, of Dec, when Professor McMillan is expected to deliver addresses in the afternoon and evening. The enterprising President is sparing no pains to have a big meeting and a grand success. Subjects are expected to be discussed of vital importance to every member of the Association as indeed to every farmer in the country and we look for and expect a full hall.—The people had the pleasure of listening to the Rev. Mr. Dytant of Margate on Sabbath last, he and Rev. A. J. Whiteman having exchanged pulpits. His discourse was founded on the words found in St. John's Gospel 19 chap and part of the 5th verse (Behold the man). He is a pleasant and fluent speaker and his discourse was well received.—Dr. H. P. Wright made a visit to his home a short time ago. He came to assist in removing his invalid mother from her old home in Chelton to her new and neat comfortable one in Centreville, a charge that requires great care and caution when it is remembered she has been continuously confined to her bed for a period of nearly 23 years. Her many friends will be glad to know that the move was effected without serious results.
