A. Dumas' "Three Musketeers" At Prince Edward

Impressively produced and superbly enacted, "The Three Musketeers" came to the Theatre Yesterday with the full excitement of Alexandre Dumas' action romance, to take its place among the season's outstanding pictures.

Against an authentic background of 17th century France with the intrigue-ridden court of Louis XIII, the dark streets of Paris, the duelling grounds behind the Luxembourg, the ambushed road to Calais, the story, familiar to millions, rushes to its powerful climax in a series of thrilling escapades.

The adaptation of the tale by Dudley Nichols and Rowland V. Lee and Lee's direction have followed the unexcelled story-telling pattern of Dumas. The swashbuckling, the serious and comic duels, the court intrigues, the furive and tempestuous love making, the robust comedy, and the immortal loyalty of the musketeers—all these ingredients, which have kept the romance popular for ninety years, are preserved in perfect balance.

Walter Abel, coming as a new personality to the screen with a distinguished stage record on Broadway, portrays D'Artagnan with fiery conviction. His brilliant interpretation of the role fulfills completely its requirements of chivalry, resourcefulness, and fighting spirit. Out of his gascony comes the hero to challenge high authority and offer his sword to the king. In quick-witted comradeship with the three best blades in France, Athos, Porthos, and Aramis, he plunges valiantly into defence of his queen's honor, threatened by the powerful Cardinal Richelieu.

The skill of Cliff Reid's production guidance is manifest in every detail of the picture. Max Steiner's appropriate musical score, Louis Van Enger's technical direction, Walter Plunkett's costuming, and exceptionally good photography maintain its high quality.

Scout News and Notices

With 81,000 Scouts, Canada is the fifth largest Boy Scouting country in the world.

A 13 year old Guernsey Sea Scout was awarded a Gilt Cross for saving an 80 year old man from drowning in the sea at the Island of Herm.

Scouting in England has suffered a loss in the death of Major General Sir Edward May, K.C.B., O.M.G., County Commissioner for Devonshire. He was at one time Acting Chief Commissioner for India.

According to the latest census the leading Boy Scout countries of the world in order of numbers are: United States, Great Britain, Poland, Slam, Canada, France, Hungary, Japan, Czechoslovakia and Sweden.

Some 1500 London Boy Scouts are rehearsing a musical pageant "Boy Scout" to be given at Royal Albert Hall in April. Annually since 1932 an original Scout show at the Scala Theatre has been an event of the London theatrical season. They are produced by "A Holborn Rover."

Cabled expressions of sympathy in the death of King George, as Patron of the Boy Scouts Association of the Empire, were received at London Scout Headquarters from Brazil; Denmark; Japan; France; Mexico; Poland; Armenia; Spain, Luxembourg, and many other countries.

In carrying out a Scout project of education in sanitation a group of Indian Scouts selected a street leading from the main square of a village via the mosque to the home of the village head man, and about cleaning it, dumping the dirt and refuse into pits dug by them. Other Scouts went about washing with boric lotion sore eyes of children and dressing neglected wounds. Talks were given on the advantages of fresh air and exercise, the abuses of putting ornaments on small children, and the merits of vaccination against smallpox.

Iceland has 590 Boy Scouts, Finland 8,281, Latvia 6,000, Lithuania 8,855, Norway 14,017, Sweden 18,718.

While practicing life saving in Bellefleur Bay, St. Sampson's, Guernsey Island, Scout Frederick Richard of the 10th Guernsey (Methodist) Troop heard cries for help from a pier. He ran to the scene, and was able to make a genuine rescue of an 8 year old boy who had fallen into the sea.

From Adelaide, Australia, has come an invitation to Canadian Scouts to attend a South Australia Scout Corroboree, to be held Dec. 26-Jan. 4 next in connection with South Australia's Centenary. Whilst it will not be feasible to send a Canadian contingent, the hope is expressed at Dominion Headquarters that a number of individual Scouts may be able to go to represent Canada.

Preparedness for snake bites is one of the precepts of South African Boy Scouts. So when Scout Brian Pringle of Durban, running along the river bank at Klipdrift, was bitten twice in the leg by a poisonous snake, his Scout chum knew what to do. A lace from his shoe made a quick tourniquet, he sucked the poison from the wounds, and with assistance from the nearest homestead, Pringle was hurried to a hospital.

Prior to the discontinuance of emigration, following the advent of the business depression, upwards of 4,000 English Boy Scouts had migrated to the colonies, chiefly Canada and Australia. Many of these went out through the Migration Department at Imperial Headquarters of the Boy Scouts Association, after undergoing some preliminary training in agricultural pursuits. A number of those coming to Canada distinguished themselves by winning scholarships at different provincial agricultural schools. In response to many inquiries tentative plans are being made for a resumption of this Scout migration, especially to Australia.

Quiet Trend On New York Stock Market

By Frank MacMillan, Associated Press Financial Writer
NEW YORK, March 5.—The stock market today was a bit strong buying today behind selected rail, farm, merchandise and specialty issues.

While the principal gains ranged from 1 to 4 or more points, and many new highs were recorded, the generally bullish picture was a bit clouded by the fact that the trading volume fell considerably under that of the preceding sessions.

The day's upward movement was interspersed with profit taking in various steels, motors, utilities and tobacco. There were 400 advances against 326 declines. Transfers totaled 2,620,840 shares against 3,011,250 Wednesday. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up 3 of a point at 63.4, another new top for this composite since 1931.

The ability of earlier equities to shake off their discomfiture occasioned by the recent enforced reduction of passenger fares acted as a stimulant to recovery sentiment.

Farm and merchandising shares reflected not only the intention of moving to put their agricultural relief measures through Congress, but also the belief that a sharp boost in retail sales will follow payment of the soldiers' bonus.

Conspicuous share gainers included Union Pacific, up 5 at 137; American, up 3 1/2 at 53 1/2; International Harvester, up 3 1/2 at 75 1/2; Simmons Co., up 2 1/2 at 29; and Union Carbide, up 1 1/2 at 86 1/2.

Advances outnumbered losses two to one in the Canadian list, but all were of fractional proportions. Losses included Canadian Industrial Alcohol A, Distillers-Seagrams, Hiram Walker, Hudson Bay Mining, Lake Shore, Massey-Harris, Teck-Hughes, Wright-Hargreaves, Dome Mines and McIntyre-Porcupine. Canadian Marconi, Ford of Canada A, Hollinger, Canadian Pacific and International Nickel were slightly higher.

restorative efforts of the best available medical skill.

Mrs. McDougall's early days were spent in Croes Rivers, Lot 14, where for a number of years she served the community as postmistress in which capacity during a subsequent period of thirty-two years, she like wise ministered to the residents of her adopted district.

During her sickness she was frequently visited by her esteemed pastor, Rev. Urban Gillis at whose hands she received the consoling last sacraments of the holy church of which she was a devout and faithful member.

Her funeral, largely attended by mourning friends and neighbours took place Monday, February 17th. A Requiem High Mass was sung at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, Wellington, by the Rev. Father, who attended her in her illness, after which the mortal remains of this worthy wife and mother were sorrowfully laid in their last resting place in the adjoining cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs James, Frank and Edward McDougall, Angus Gillis, John Arsenault and Ebbas Praught.

She leaves to mourn their irreparable loss a sorrowing husband, four daughters and two sons, viz: Mrs. Bernard McLellan, Indian River, Mrs. Eli Blaquiere, Richmond, Harold in Berlin, N.H., Winnifred, Rupert and Kathleen at home to all of whom is extended the sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances.

Gains Outnumber Losses On Montreal Market

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
MONTREAL, March 5.—Gains outnumbered losses by a narrow margin in drab trading on Montreal Stock Exchange today.

A few selected issues scored gains of more than a point while utilities, papers and constructions slanted fractionally higher. Liquors, metals, and banks moved lower.

Howard Smith Paper featured the late dealings when brisk demand sent the price up 1 1/2 points to 13 1/2, highest since 1934. Smaller gains were shown by St. Lawrence Corporation and Dryden but St. Lawrence Paper preferred and Corporation preferred gave ground.

Liquors lacked interest and regularity. Fractional losses for Associated Breweries, Distillers Seagrams, National Breweries and Canadian Industrial Alcohol "A" and "B".

Outstanding utility was Ottawa Power, up 3 1/2 points at a new top of 94. Highest of the group was partly offset by International Power's drop of 2 1/2. Canadian Electric and Winnipeg Electric displayed fractional improvement.

Wavering tendencies were exhibited by International Nickel before it finished off 1/2 at 81. Smelters was down a couple of points on odd lots while Noranda added the minimum fraction.

Firmness predominated for Bruck Silk, Dominion Bridge, Gypsum Lime and Steel of Canada. Bank of Commerce was 3/4 points lower at 163.

Sales totaled 25,531 shares; bonds $9,900.
