ANY boy or girl desiring to learn printing should apply at this office at once.

Boys' Brigade.—No. 3 Company will meet in St. Paul's school room this noon at 5 o'clock.

At eleven o'clock yesterday forenoon the ceremony of "swearing in" Lieutenant Governor McIvor took place in the Executive Council Chamber.

POLICE COURT.—Two drunks figured before His Honor yesterday morning. Albert Allen was fined $5 or 30 days and Donald McNeill, $2 or ten days.

JAMES MCKEEMAN, son of Daniel McKeevan, Murray Harbor North, came to the city by the Electric Wednesday and entered the P. E. I. Hospital yesterday. Mr McKeevan has been ill for a number of years and has undergone some five operations during the last five years.

MRS. ANGUS MCINNIS, of Martinville whose death appears in another column to-day, had been in poor health all winter. Two of her daughters, Misses Mary and Katie, returned from Boston a few weeks ago. Mrs. McInnis was a kind and affectionate wife and mother, a warm friend and most hospital in her home. Much sympathy is felt with her husband and family in their sad bereavement.

CARDIGAN NOTES.—An old and respected inhabitant of Cardigan village, William Lewis J. P. is very ill, not expected to survive many days.—Mr. D. G. Morson has bought Campbell's corner lot. He has begun digging a cellar today for his new shop. His old customers are pleased to know he is to resume business, after the heavy loss sustained by last winter's fire. The exodus to Uncle Sam's domains has been as usual this spring.—Capt. Joseph McDonald expects to build a new shop this summer.—The Misses McPherson dress-makers have leased Mrs. David Lewis' shop and begun work.

DUNDAS NOTES.—The abundant rain of Saturday and Sunday did much, not only to refresh the backward vegetation but to extinguish the many fires which were fast devastating what remains of our primitive forest, and in many places making havoc of the border fences. It is learned also that some buildings have been destroyed.—Some of our citizens quietly celebrated the 24th by hoisting the "Old Flag" over their barns as well as in public places.—Our cheese factory began the season's work yesterday.—Seeding will soon be done but the diligent farmers will have no breathing spell as the pervasive potato bugs, and weeds which increase in number and variety every year will demand his unremitting attention.

The City of Ghent arrived at 2 o'clock this morning.

THE Grand Duchess will arrive in Charlottetown on July 3rd.

AFTER the 6th of June the SS Halifax will arrive here Thursday evening sailing Friday afternoon at one o'clock and the Grand Duchess takes Tuesday's sailing.

NON-COMMISSIONED ENGINEERS, ATTENTION!—A meeting of non-com. officers of Charlottetown Engineer Co. will be held this evening in their rooms, Lyceum, at 8 p. m. Very important matters to be discussed. By Order.

A Boston critic has found a new outlet for his sarcasm by drawing attention to the hyphenated Americans who part their names as well as their hair in the middle. The Commercial Advertiser shows that many hyphenated names represent something far more substantial than whims and fads.—Such names as George Cavendish-Bentley, Adolph Muller-Ury, Charles Pelham-Clinton and Charles Roast-Duval, have tradition a d family usages as their licences.—There are others who have the authority by act of parliament, i e Hunter-Duvar, a scholarly gentleman who died some months ago on P. E. I. and who was referred to at the time by our St. John, N. B. correspondent.

SOUTH EASTERN ITEMS.—Almost all the farmers have completed their cropping operations. Notwithstanding the somewhat late spring, the work was seldom, if ever, finished at so early a date. A few years ago, June sowing was found to be fully as profitable as that of May, but now there are changed conditions, and late sowing is avoided as far as possible, except when green feed is desired. The grass was making but little progress previous to the much-needed rain of Saturday. Since that time it has grown by leaps and bounds.—Lobster fishermen at Belle River and vicinity are getting fairly good catches—fully above the average of late years. The price obtained for them is better, too, than formerly.—Measles are prevalent at Belle River, and as a consequence work has been greatly delayed on many farms. The Montague Bridge trotting park is expected to be ready early in June.—A base ball club is being formed there also.—The Montague cheese factory resumed its operations on Monday 29th inst.—Potatoes which were selling at 40 cts since a few weeks, have fallen, it is said, to 30 cts.—Revs. R. McLean, of Valleyfield, and A. S. Stewart, of Woodville, exchanged pulpits on Sunday last. Mr. Donald McKenzie, of Upper Belle Creek, who was seriously ill with congestion of the lungs, is improving and on a fair way to recovery.—Mr. Jas. McDougall, student of Pine Hill Theological Seminary, is expected to preach at Brooklyn, lot 61, on Saturday evening, June 10th and at Belle River on the following Sabbath evening. He is a native of Bangor, lot 40, and is held in great repute for his eloquence.

WANTED

1,000 Acres of Pasture Land.

I WISH to rent for a term of years, or buy if cheap enough, a block of 1,000 acres of good pasture land, or 3 or 4 good farms of 100 and 200 acres each. Land must be in the vicinity of Charlottetown and farms, if separate, must be near each other. I do not want to cultivate farms but use them for pasturing. Address all correspondence, giving full particulars, to Dr. James Warburton Major, City, or is not going to make a poor drink popular, but beverages such as SIMMONS' GINGER ALE, CREAM SODA, LEMON SOUR and SASSAPARILLA, sell themselves, for in delicacy of flavor, brilliancy and wholesome properties, they are unequalled.

Ask your grocer for them.

Father of Good Templary Dead

Rev. E. N. Barkers, who was the last surviving member of the committee that organized the first Good Templar Lodge, died at his home in the State of New York, on the first anniversary of Miss Willard's death.

Mr. Barker's work is well-known to the Order. His history is record of a life devoted to temperance and gospel work. He signed the pledge at 12 years of age, and the same year joined the Methodist church, and later began preaching under a license from that church; later he united with the Seventh Day Baptists and filled several successful pastorates in connection with that denomination in Wisconsin, Minnesota and New York. Wherever his work has been, he connected himself with the Order of Good Templars; except a short time where he resided, where there was no opportunity to organize one. He was a successful organizer and also edited and published several papers at different places.

He has represented the Order both in Grand and Supreme Lodges and is said to have organized more Lodges than any other member of the Order.

TROUSERS

Are the part of the suit most subjected to wear. The attire like the deacon's one horse shay, should have each and every portion as presentable as every other. The strength of trousers is their number. Every well dressed man should supplement his suit with extra trousers of the right material to sustain the general appearance of the suit.

No part of the attire possesses more importance. Nothing can be more incongruous than ill fitting and unfashionable trousers and certainly no trousers in town look or fit as well as those made by us at such low figures as $3.00 and $3.50 for good quality and fashionable stripes.
