SCHOOL CONCERT

On Friday night Dec 20th, the pupils of the Mt. Stewart School put on a Christmas Concert in the I. O. F. Hall and although the night was everything but fine, the Hall was taxed to its capacity. The scholars one and all gave a good demonstration of oratory.—Vs. Cleverness.

And a word about the Teachers, well everyone wondered how they could train such a number of children in such a short time.

The following is the Programme Opening Chorus, Merry Christmas to everybody, by the Beginners.

Recitation By Phyllis Leard, Dialogue, Friday afternoon Compositions Solo, by Hazel Affleck. Monologue, Writing a letter to Santa, by Barron McDonald. Rainbow Drill, by Sixteen Girls. Recitation, The Seventy Sixth by Edson Affleck Dialogue, The Lost Child, Highland Fling by Isabella McDonald. Monologue, Elizabeth's Christmas—Presents by Alice Martin; (Pantomime, Auld Lang Sine, by Edna Glover and James McAskill.) Recitation by Elenor Douglas and Arthur McDonald.

Chorus, Christmas Bells, (Monologue "Unfortunate Me" By Florence Martin.) Song The Naughty little Mouse. (Dialogue, The School Master Abroad)

(Duet O'Little Town of Bethlehem, by Margaret, Martin and Margaret McLeod) Dialogue, winning a window Song, High in the Heavens, Dialogue Mrs. Brown's Visitors Dance, by Isabella and Rita McDonald. (Monologue An Inspiring Dish-washer by Alethea McDonald)

Closing Chorus, "Santa Clause is Coming."

After the Programme, Mr. John A. McDonald, disguised as Santa Claus appeared, and stripped the Tree of its valuable presents, distributing them among the children.

Mr. George Clark, acted as Chairman in his usual efficient manner.

About eleven o'clock the Concert broke up, every one going away well satisfied with the evening entertainment.—V.
