STREET CAR BLOWN UP BY DYNAMITE

MELROSE, Mass., Sept. 23.—An outward bound electric car, well loaded with people, was blown to pieces at eight o'clock last night near the corner of Wyoming and Main Streets. Six people were killed outright, several fatally injured and at least 15 received severe wounds.

It is thought that the car struck a charge of dynamite left on the track, as the front portion was blown in every direction, the front dashboard being hurled more than fifty feet. The motor man, Rowe, was among the killed.

The vicinity presented a fearful spectacle and the ground was strewn with fragments of the bodies of the killed. So great was the force of the explosion that two men standing in the door of a store fifty feet away were badly injured by the flying pieces, while every window within a radius of a quarter of a mile was broken.

The car contained mostly working men on their way to their homes in that city, but among the dead was a woman and her babe. At nine o'clock last night but few of the dead had been identified, while in the confusion it was impossible at the time to obtain a list of the injured.

All the doctors in the city were summoned and others called from the nearby cities of Medford, Everett and Malden as well as from Boston. The severely injured were tenderly lifted into wagons and carried to the hospital and those who seemed to be able to survive their injuries were taken to the hospital of Melrose and Malden. Other who appeared to be at the point of death were removed to nearby houses, while the police began the work of collecting the dead.

At 10.30 the police announced that the cause of the wreck was the striking of a fifty pound box of dynamite, which had fallen from an express wagon just ahead of the car. The express wagon was driven by Roy Fenton, who discovered that the box had dropped off and rushed back to take it off the track, but before he got within 100 yards of the car the car struck it and was blown up. Fenton was taken to the Police Station but it was said that he was not under arrest.

The force of the explosion was terrific and the report was heard many miles away. Directly opposite the scene was the Masnic building, every window of which was shattered and through one of the windows a human form was blown. There was more than a score of people within a hundred yards of the car, nearly all of whom were knocked down and stunned by the concussion. Shoppers were blown in every direction and few passengers escaped some sort of wound.

Napaneé Lady Tells of Deliverance from Suffering by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

NAPANEÉ, Ont., Sept. 19.—(Special).—Mrs. John C. Huffman, of this place, has consented to make the particulars of her remarkable cure by Dodd's Kidney Pills public, for the benefit of other young ladies or married women.

"I was troubled for about six years with Kidney Disease," says Mrs. Huffman, "and the pain was so great I could hardly bear it. I could not entertain any company. My urine was something terrible, and sometimes very disagreeable to pass, but Dodd's Kidney Pills soon brought me relief from all my troubles, and by the time I had taken six boxes I was completely cured."

There can be no female weakness where there are sound Kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills make sound Kidneys.

LESSON XIII, THIRD QUARTER, INTERNATIONAL SERIES, SEPT. 26.

Text of the Lesson, A Comprehensive Quarterly Review—Golden Text, Psalm 118, 8.—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1904, by American Press Association.]

LESSON I.—The kingdom divided (I Kings xii, 12-20). Golden Text, Prov. xvi, 18, "Pride goeth before destruction and a haughty spirit before a fall." How often one is led to think of the word, "Surely the wrath of man shall praise Thee, the remainder of wrath shalt Thou restrain" (Ps. lxxvi, 10). Because of Solomon's sin God said He would take the kingdom from him, leaving him, however, a small portion of it for David's sake. This lesson tells how that was brought about, Rehoboam seemingly acting his own pleasure, but God overruling for His purposes.

LESSON II.—Jeroboam's idolatry (I Kings xii, 25-33). Golden Text, I John v, 21, "Keep yourselves from idols." Jeroboam knew that God had given him the kingdom, but he could not trust God to keep that which He had given him, so he wrought out a little plan of his own that the kingdom might not get away from him, and this plan was in open defiance of and disobedience to God.

LESSON III.—Aas's good reign (II Chron. xiv, 1-12). Golden Text, II Chron. xiv, 11, "Help us, O Lord our God, for we rest on Thee." It is refreshing to turn from such as Rehoboam and Jeroboam to one who, however imperfectly, had faith in God. The manner of his life was to do good and right in the eyes of the Lord, and that is everything. Note the words following the golden text, "In Thy name we go."

LESSON IV.—Jehoshaphat's reform (II Chron. xix, 1-11). Golden Text, II Chron. xix, 11, "Deal courageously, and the Lord shall be with the good." Verse 9 might have been a better golden text, "Thus shall ye do in the fear of the Lord, faithfully and with a perfect heart." Jehoshaphat's heart was lifted up in the ways of the Lord (xvii, 6), and he had a great and wonderful victory over His enemies (chapter 20), but in this lesson he is rebuked for helping the ungodly.

LESSON V.—Omri and Ahab (I Kings xvi, 23-33). Golden Text, Prov. xiv, 34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." In contrast with the two previous lessons we have in this lesson two men who did more evil than all that were before them. Omri was very wicked, but Ahab was worse.

LESSON VI.—God taking care of Elijah (I Kings xvii, 1-16). Golden Text, I Pet. v, 7, "He careth for you." We might not think that bread and flesh brought by ravens and water from the brook was very good fare; neither might we be in love with constant rations of meal and oil. We might not like lonely tent life by the brook nor even the widow's humble home, but to such as Elijah or John the Baptist or Daniel, even the item of food was a minor matter.

LESSON VII.—Obadiah and Elijah (I Kings xviii, 1-16). Golden Text, I Kings xviii, 12, "I, thy servant, fear the Lord from my youth." Elijah in his lonely places and Obadiah in the house of ungodly Ahab both feared and served the Lord according to ability and opportunity, as far as we know. The Christian who truly desires to serve the Lord may fully trust Him to manage all the details of his life.

LESSON VIII.—Elijah on Mount Carmel (I Kings xviii, 20-46). Golden Text, I Kings xviii, 21, "If the Lord be God, follow Him." In Elijah see a man filled with a desire that God may be glorified and that people may know Him as the living and true God. David had the same desire when he went forth against Goliath, and Daniel and his friends when they went to the furnace and the lion's den.

LESSON IX.—Elijah discouraged (I Kings xix, 1-8). Golden Text, Ps. cxx, 1, "In my distress I cried unto the Lord, and He heard me." The only way of peace and victory is a mind stayed upon Jehovah, seeing no one but Jesus only. However strong we may be in the Lord, we are utterly weak and helpless in ourselves, and the moment we allow ourselves to dwell upon people or circumstances we sink like Peter when he took his eyes off the Lord.

LESSON X.—Elijah encouraged (I Kings xix, 9-18). Golden Text, Isa. xli, 10, "Fear thou not, for I am with thee." It must not have looked quite so hopeless to Elijah when he learned from God Himself that there were 7,000 yet in Israel who had not bowed the knee to Baal and that he was not the only witness on whom the Lord could rely.

LESSON XI.—Elijah taken up into heaven (II Kings ii, 1-11). Golden Text, Gen. v, 24, "He was not, for God took him." It is not wise nor brave to covet death, even though death be a gain. It is better to leave all to God and be strong in Him. We may never die (I Cor. xv, 51, 52; I Thess. iv, 16-18), and until we leave this mortal body or get a glorified one we shall never have more to bear than He will give us grace for.

LESSON XII.—Israel reproved (Amos v, 4-15). Golden Text, Amos v, 6, "Seek the Lord, and ye shall live." Jehovah had done everything for Israel. He was their Redeemer from the bondage of Egypt, their Lawgiver, their Judge, their King. He only asked of them a willing obedience that He might bless them and make them a blessing, but they turned away from and worshipped idols. If we are in any way turned from Him, He is earnestly calling, Come unto me and I will give you rest.

TIRED AND DEPRESSED.

The Condition of Many Young Women in Shops and Offices.

Thousands of young women have to depend upon their own efforts to gain a livelihood, and to these, whether behind the counter, in the office, the factory or the home, work means close confinement—often in badly ventilated rooms. There is a strain on the nerves; the blood becomes impoverished; the cheeks pale; there are frequent headaches; palpitation of the heart and a constant tiredness. If the first symptoms are neglected it may lead to a complete break down—perhaps consumption. What is needed to restore vigor and energy and vitality is a tonic and absolutely the best tonic in the world is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They actually make new blood, bring health and cheerful energy to tired and depressed girls and women. Miss Viola Millet, Robinson's Corners, N. S., says: "I was a great sufferer from headaches, heart palpitation and rashes that almost made me water, and the least exertion left me weak and depressed. I used seven boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and they made a remarkable change in my condition. I can truly say that I feel like a new person, and I strongly recommend these pills to all weak, sickly girls."
