Chestnut Bars 2.06, record made at Old Home Week races, Charlottetown, August 13th, 1942, is now at Richelieu Park near Montreal, Quebec, ready to race or possibly he has already raced prior to this date. His owner, Dr. J. J. MacPherson made the move because there were no free-for-all races available in his vicinity. Having beaten everything in Quebec prior to coming to Charlottetown there seems no reason to believe that he cannot repeat the trick.

For the benefit of our Saturday readers we publish a short account of last Saturday's Goodwill race meet at the Charlottetown Driving Park track. The weather was almost perfect and track fast. Nova Scotia owned horses won all four events programmed with the three-year-old recently imported from Ontario, Jacob Withrow, reducing his record from 2.16½ to 2.14½. It was the only new record of the afternoon. The finishes were not as close as on Thursday so therefore not as exciting to the spectators, but there were enough uncertainties to keep enthusiasm alive throughout the afternoon.

The 2.18 Trot and Pace was won in straight heats by Peter Reamore, Aubrey Dillon 2-2-2, Scotty Watson 3-5-3, H. M. Volo, 4-3-4, Bonnie Scott 5-4-5. Time 2.15¾, 2.16, 2.13¾. Peter Reamore 2.12½ is owned by Dr. C. B. Clough, Inverness, N.S., and was driven by Joe O'Brien.

Free For All Pace—Dudey Patch won the first two heats and was fourth in the third, Victor Lee 2-2-1, All Grattan 3-3-2, Tracey Hanover 4-4-3. Time, 2.08¾, 2.08¾, 2.10. Dudey Patch 2.06½ is owned by the Dudey Patch Club, New Glasgow, N.S., and was driven by Joe O'Brien.

Classified Trot—Hillside Scott was 1-1-1, Ruby Volo 7-2-2, Lusty Frisco 2-3-3, Model T., 3-5-5, Lusty's First 4-4-4, Kelly's Nightmare 5-7-8, Lucky Guy 6-6-6, Johnny Eager 8-8-7. Time, 2.14½, 2.16¾, 2.16½. Hillside Scott 2.11¾ is owned by J. A. Kerr, Truro, N.S., and was driven by Johnny Conroy.

2.26 Trot and Pace—Jacob Withrow 1-1-2, Winnie Scott 8-2-1, Lady Hal 2-3-3, Wait N'See 3-5-6, Miss Admiral Mac 5-4-4, Miss Belle Aubrey 4-8-7, Silent Mac 7-6-5, Miss Claire Budlong 6-7-8. Time, 2.14½, 2.15, 2.15¼. Jacob Withrow is owned by J. Harry Breen, Halifax, and was driven by Billy Hood.

The annual Exhibition at Bridgewater, N.S., had as its feature attraction two afternoon's harness racing at the fast and up-to-date Bridgewater track, owned and operated by H.M. Sweeney. Wednesday's races drew a large crowd who saw some great racing with every event split up. The No. 1 Classified was won by Oliver Grattan 2.09 with a summary of 1-1-dr. The Baker was 3-2-1, Hal Britton 2-3-2, O.U. Volo 4-4-3, Paulabbe 5-5-4. Time, 2.11, 2.10½, 2.11. Oliver Grattan 2.09 is owned by P. J Lavers, Truro and was driven by Joe O'Brien.

Free for All Trot—Watchim 2.07, 1-1-4, Millie Kalmuck 4-4-1, June Evans 3-2-2, Sunnymeade 2-3-3. Time, 2.10½, 2.09, 2.10½. Watchim 2.07 is owned by Frank Adams, Halifax, and was driven by Billy Hood. Watchim took his record of 2.07 at Bridgewater last October. It is also the track trotting record, the Maritime record for four-year-olds and also the Maritime stallion trotting record.

Junior Free for All Trot and Pace—Joe Direct 4-1-1, Hal McKinney 1-2-3, Jean Henley 2-3-5, Mart Harkaway 3-4-4, Oakhurst Queen 5-5-2. Time, 2.09, 2.09½, 2.09. Joe Direct 2.07 is owned by S. Horsman, Moncton, and was driven by H. M. Sweeney. Jean Henley 2.08½ was racing under the ownership of C. H. Horton, Murray River, and was driven by Willard Kelly.

The second day's racing at Bridgewater took place on Thursday afternoon and was featured by the winning of all three events by horses driven by Joe O'Brien, formerly of Alberton, P.E.I., but now located in New Glasgow, N.S. The Free For All was won in straight heats by Dudey Patch, with Victor Lee 2-2-4, All Grattan 4-3-2, Tracey Hanover 3-4-3. Time, 2.08, 2.06, 2.09. The second heat stepped in 2.06 is a new track pacing record for the Bridgewater track, supplanting the 2.07 made by All Grattan 2.06¼, October 3rd, 1941, driven by Joe O'Brien. It is also a new record for Dudey Patch, whose former record was 2.06½, taken at Charlottetown Old Home Week, 1941. Dudey Patch is owned by the Dudey Patch Club, New Glasgow, and was driven by Joe O'Brien.

No. 2 Classified—Peter Reamore 1-1-1, Aubrey Dillon 3-2-2, Peter at Court 2-6-7, Emily Grattan 6-3-3, Skippydale 4-5-4, Bonnie Scott 5-4-5. Time, 2.14, 2.11, 2.11½. Peter Reamore 2.11 is owned by Dr. C. B. Clough, Inverness, N.S., and was driven by Joe O'Brien. Bonnie Scott 2.10½ was racing under the ownership of William Cruickshanks, Halifax, having been acquired in a trade for Jean Henley. She was driven by Tyndall Semple. Peter Reamore reduced his record in the above event from 2.12½ to 2.11.

No. 3 Classified—Singin' Sam 1-1-1, Hilda Budlong 5-2-2, Miss Admiral Mac 2-5-5, Bonnie Budlong 3-3-4, O. U. Volo 4-4-3, Model T. 6-6-4. Time, 212, 2.10⅛, 2.11⅛ Singin' Sam 2.10½ is owned by Charles O'Brien, Covehead, and was driven by Joe O'Brien. Singin' Sam reduced his record in the above event from 2.20¾ to 2.10½ and was the third horse to take a new record at Bridgewater race meetings.

We are indebted to our friend Don MacLeod, North Sydney, for clippings of race track notes covering harness racing in Cape Breton from which the following is taken.... Horsemen of Cape Breton have decided to stage a meet at the North Side race track, North Sydney Monday, October 12th as a benefit for Ollie Rudderham, the popular Point Edward trainer and driver who has been a patient in the hospital for the past two years. Mr. Ballard, owner of the track, states that in addition to three races there will be one or possibly more match races. A committee has been set up of prominent citizens to handle arrangements connected with the event. We are glad to note that our Cape Breton friends have made such a worthy move and hope that everything will turn out very satisfactory.

Oxford County Fair races at Norway, Maine, the week of September 15th to 18th drew a very large attendance and there was some great racing. Among the top performances was the winning of the Free for All by Hal Cochato in straight heats with Happy L. 4-2-2. Time, 2.08¾, 2.09¾, 2.08. The fast trot was won by Ned Abbey but Atlantic McElwyn stepped the fastest heat—2.07. That was the fastest heat trotted during the meeting. The former Maine trotter Afton, who has been campaigning for quite a number of years, won the first heat of the event in 2.08¾. He was driven by Earl Avery. In the 9½ Bar Trot Ned Abbey won in straight heats with Pagliacci 2-2-2. Time, 2.10, 2.10, 2.11½.

Little Pat 1.58¾, who seems likely to acquire a mantle of glory as a pacer almos equal to that worn by the illustrious Single G., added to his accomplishments at Reading, Pa., Fair, September 17th, a new world's record for three heats paced over a half-mile track. 2.01½, 2.01½, 2.01¼ and displaced the former record established by Earl West 2.01¾ at Essex Jct., Vermont, in 1937 when he won in 2.01¾, 2.01½, 2.01¼. Second to Little Pat in his great race was Saratoga who was 2-2-2, third was The Abbott, owned by Sullivan & Mawhinney.

At the same meeting Supreme Hal 3, 2.04, set a new world's three heat record for three-year-old pacers on a half-mile track in 2.04¼, 2.04¾, 2.05.

At Carthage, Ohio, September 19th, Adios set up a new record for two-year-old pacers on a half-mile track by pacing the second and third heats in 2.03¾ and 2.04½, both miles being faster than the former record of 2.05¼ established several years ago by Cold Cash 1.58½ at Malone, N.Y., and equalled a few weeks ago by King's Counsel at Painesville, Ohio.

At Cornish, Maine, last Tuesday Optimist won the 2.16 Pace, driven by Red Hanaflin ,best time 2.15. The 2.11 Trot was won by Orena Hanover, best time 2.12. The 2.13 Pace by Royal Lady, Peter Dale winning the last heat, best time 2.10½. The 2.13 Trot was won by Lottery, best time 2.13.

Two famous men connected with the harness horse world passed to that bourne from whence no traveller returns in recent weeks. They were Henry Ten Eyeck White, a brilliant writer whose era dated back to the days of Goldsmith Maid, St. Julien and Maude S. Mr. White wrote in collaboration with John Splan, "Life With the Trotters," which even today is a most readable volume. He is credited with having developed many of the stars of the press world including Peter Finlay Dunne, who made Mr. Dooley famous many years ago. For years he wrote the harness horse column in the Chicago Tribune, the favorite newspaper them with harness horsemen all over America, and he also covered the leading Grand Circuit meeting with a daily story of its happenings. Few men had a command of language equal to the late Mr. White.

Bob Smith, the other horseman referred to, was not a writer but a trainer of trotters and after having spent years in that profession, bought and sold, principally exporting to New Zealand and Australia. His greatest bid to fame was in 1904 when he brought the oversized daughter of McKinney 2.11¼, Sweet Marie, east to the Grand Circuit. She had won quite a number of races in California but few thought that she could take the measure of the stars then on the Raging Grand. Bob Smith was a man of more than ordinary ability and a mastr of detail. He succeeded in his objective, driving himself or having others drive Sweet Marie in many great purse events and closing the season the star stake trotter with a record of 2.02. From then until the end of his career he was known as "Sweet Marie" Bob Smith.

George R. MacDonald, who has been home on furlough, returned Thursday to his military duties with the U.S. Army. While here George saw the Goodwill Races and renewed many friendships. His hosts of friends will wish him well in his new career.

White And Chandler To Pitch As Series Resumes In Yankee Stadium Today

(By Judson Bailey, Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Oct. 2—(AP)—The shifting of scenery and stars having been completed, New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals are ready to resume their hammer and tongs scuffle at Yankee Stadium tomorrow with Spurgeon (Spud) Chandler facing Lefty Ernie White on the mound.

There was every reason to believe that this third instalment of the series would be as exciting as the two tussles which the rivals divided at St. Louis.

Both clubs came to New York on the same train, a 16-car section loaded with baseball notables, but there was no intermingling by the players. The tenseness of the series still could be observed on most of them.

The selection of the starting pitchers was not made by either manager until nearly noon today, although their choices were the obvious ones predicted by everybody well in advance.

Chandler has been one of Manager Joe McCarthy's standbys all season, winning 16 games and losing five, and was the man called in the ninth inning of the first game to douse the fire of that furious Cardinal rally. He managed to smother the Redbirds in time to save the game, although not without being hit and scored upon.

Plagued With Sore Arm

White's record is not so ornamental as Chandler's. The St. Louis southpaw has won seven and lost five, but he was plagued with a sore arm in the early part of the campaign and for weeks was not able to pitch an inning. When the trouble in his pitching elbow subsided he became one of the Cards' surest bets and finished the schedule with a three-game winning streak, including the clinching game against the Cubs last Sunday.

As a rookie last year he won 17 games and lost seven and he showed the Yankees so much in spring training this year that before the series started many of the Bombers singled him out as the hurler they thought would give them the most trouble.

He already is giving the Yankees manager trouble, because McCarthy was wondering whether he would have to change his lineup for tomorrow's game. At least one switch in the batting order is sure, Joe Gordon moving ahead of Charley Keller, but there also was a good chance that Gerry Priddy might be spotted in the lineup either at third base in place of Red Rolfe or at first base in place of Buddy Hassett. Priddy has filled in at both positions, as well as at second and short, during the season.

Still Mad Over Decision

The Yankees spent a good part of their train ride last night grousing about whether the triple which George (Whitey) Kurowski hit in the seventh inning yesterday was fair or foul.

Charley Keller got his glove on the ball, a sinking liner, but was unable to hold it and it dropped outside the left field foul line. George Magerkurth, National League umpire at third base, ruled the play a fair hit, apparently on the basis that the ball was in fair territory when Keller, running at full speed, deflected it with his glove. At the time the Yankees did not make much of a dispute about the play, although catcher Bill Dickey and third baseman Rolfe argued that it was foul, but McCarthy did not leave the bench and there was no long argument.

However, the Yankee skipper was boiling after the game and still hot when he boarded the train. Bill Summers, the American League umpire who had been behind the plate, felt a portion of McCarthy's wrath. Summers said it was Magerkurth's play and he had no opinion to give. Magerkurth and the other National League umpires were not on this train.

Manager Billy Southworth of the Cardinals, who was coaching at third, said he could honestly declare the ball was safe, but that if anybody wanted to squawk he could kick about Stan Musial being called out at first base on a close play in the fourth inning, possibly costing the Cards a run.

Attendance Down In Big Leagues

NEW YORK, Oct. 2—(AP)—Major league baseball lost approximately 840,000 cash customers during the 1942 season, a drop of about eight percent from the 1941 attendance total, but the figures fall to show evidence of a first class losing trend.

The National League drew 4,724,961 fans as compared with 5,029,689 a year ago; the American League, falling behind the older circuit for the first time in many seasons, had totals of 4,685,614 this year and 5,220,519 in 1941. These figures, in most cases, are taken either from announcements by clubs or from the attendances given out at daily games. They do not include the free admissions given to members of the armed forces by every club.

The American League absorbed more than half the total loss but produced the two clubs which gained the most at the gate as well as the two big losers. Four clubs, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago White Sox and Brooklyn Dodgers, suffered a total drop in attendance of more than 672,000, but six others recorded gains.

The biggest loser was Cleveland, whose attendance dropped according to sports writers' estimates, from 850,000 to 550,000. The reason there is obvious. They didn't have Bob Feller to bring in the fans and they didn't have a pennant contender. Failure to figure in the pennant races also can explain big losses at Cincinnati and at Chicago's American League park.

It's another problem trying to figure out why the exciting National League pennant race failed to draw the fans. Brooklyn passed the 1,000,000 mark in home attendance for the second year but fell 127,912 short of last year's total. The pennant-winning St. Louis Cardinals lost 74,893, drawing their largest crowds in the last half of the season when interest in other cities was beginning to slacken.

Football is in the air again and if present plans materialize the local season is due to open at St. Dunstan's gridiron a week from today with an R.A.F. team clashing with Father Walter McGuigan's Red and White warriors.

* * * *

It will be remembered that last season these same two teams waged terrific battles all season and with each fielding strong teams again this year rugby fans will be looking for even keener struggles. No quarter asked and none given is the manner in which both play the game and next Saturday's encounter should be the best opener seen here in a good many years.

* * * *

Saints, well fortified with members of last year's squad, should again line up a team on a par with the many fine fifteens turned out at this seat of learning. Invariably, whether losing key players or not, the Red and White are always a squad to be reckoned with and it is mainly through the interest that the players and their coach have shown year after year that football has not died the death that has befallen so many other athletic sports.

* * * *

Little is known as yet about the Air Force squad but they have been getting in workouts whenever possible and if they can field a team as good as they did on several occasions last season then Saints can and will get one gruelling battle.

* * * *

After a great season that saw many exciting matches played the final mixed foursomes for this year will be played at the Belvedere Golf Club this afternoon. A good entry list is assured and competition promises to be plenty keen in all the matches.

* * * *

An added feature and a patriotic one at that is the bean supper that is to be served at the conclusion of play. A small fee is being charged for the supper and the proceeds are being donated to the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union for war work. The draw appears on this page.

* * * *

What is turning out to be the most nerve-tingling, drama-filled World Series in a long time, will be resumed today at Yankee Stadium when the fleet-footed Redbirds from St. Louis, cocky as ever, tangle with the mighty Yanks in the third game of the series.

* * * *

Still the underdogs despite their brilliant stand in taking the second game of the fall classic to even the series, Cardinals can be expected to show the same fire and dash that carried them to the National League pennant in a drive that saw them win 43 out of their last 52 games and at one time trailing the Brooklyn team by ten full games.

* * * *

Any team that can perform a feat like that has to be considered and considered mightily. They still are riding along on the momentum that carried them to the pennant and that same momentum might well carry them to a world title.

* * * *

It was away back in 1926 that a St. Louis team defeated the Yankees in the World Series. Since that time the Yanks have never been defeated in the classic and perhaps the finger of destiny is again pointing at a Cardinals team to halt the New York winning streak.

* * * *

And that 1926 series was packed full of drama as this one has started out to be. But the most dramatic moment of them all back in 1926 was when old Grover Cleveland Alexander came trudging out of the bull pen to strike out Tony Lazzeri with the Yankees threatening to go into the lead and take the series.

* * * *

White for the Cardinals and Chandler for the Yanks are the pitching selections for today. Southpaw against right hander. Chandler has much the better record of the two but White in the latter part of the campaign showed conclusively that he had regained the form that he showed against the New York club in spring training games.

Final Mixed Foursomes Of Season This Afternoon

Final mixed foursome of the season will be played at the Belvedere Golf Club this afternoon starting at 2:30. 10 matches are scheduled and the result of the draw promises lots of competition.

A bean supper will be served on the conclusion of play. Proceeds will go to the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union for war work.

Gives Stirring Address On Youth Problems

In the auditorium of Notre Dame Convent, the Rev. Daniel A. Lord, S.J. of St. Louis, Miss. last night delivered an address on the place of Catholic youth in the present-day world. Father Lord, internationally known for his work with young people and for his writing on problems confronting youth, came to Charlottetown at the invitation of the authorities of St. Dunstan's College.

His presence here was the result of a policy formulated at the last meeting of the Maritime Catholic Educational Association, a policy of providing the students of the colleges concerned with the opportunity of hearing talks designed especially for them by outstanding men actively connected with youth work. At the request of the Most Reverend J.A. O'Sullivan, Bishop of Charlottetown, Father Lord's address was given in the city rather than at St. Dunstan's so that the general public might attend.

The gist of Father Lord's address was the responsibility of every young person, and especially of every one with the benefit of a good education, to practise and spread his Christain faith for the benefit of his fellow-men. He pointed out the fact that even in the midst of this war, determined men and women everywhere are planning the reconstruction of the post-war world. These are people with a faith, a conviction, a cause for which they are willing to sacrifice everything. What, he asked, are we, who have the truly great cause of Christ to fight for, doing to advance that cause?

To illustrate his point, Father Lord referred to events described in a recent best-seller, Jan Valtin's "Out of the Night." Using this story of Germany before and during Hitler's rise, he contrasted the heroic sacrifices made by fanatical young Communists for a false, materialistic doctrine with the luke warm and even selfish attitude of many young Catholics who possess the true Christian faith. The world, Father Lord emphasized, is going to belong to the fanatics, and if the world is to be won to the only doctrine that will save it, the Christian religion we must have Catholic fanatics who will sacrifice for their religion as the Communists and the Nazis do for theirs.

Modern Catholic youth, the speaker pointed out, are like the spoiled children of over-indulgent parents. God has given them so much that many of them take everything they have—their faith, their freedom, their innumerable privileges—quite for granted, and think always of getting more, never of giving anything in return. But if the design of God for the world is to be realized, if we are to know the kingdom of God upon earth—the truly "good life"—then Catholics, and particularly educated young people, must realize that rights carry corresponding duties and that theirs is to take an active part in Catholic action, in spreading their true Christian principles by whose recognition and application this weary world of ours will alone know that true peace which men so earnestly desire, "the peace of Christ in the reign of Christ."

The well-attended meeting was under the chairmanship of the Right Reverend J.A. Murphy, President of St. Dunstan's College, who introduced the speaker. At the conclusion of the address, Bishop O'Sullivan, Monsignor Murphy, and Father Archie MacDonald, Rector of Holy Redeemer Church, spoke a few words to the audience. Among their remarks was the promise that Father Lord will return to Charlottetown at a future date.
