Island Holsteins And Jerseys Capture Major Awards At Winter Fair

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

AMHERST, N. S., Nov. 9—Holsteins and Jerseys in the dairy classes were judged today in the Maritime Winter Fair as the finest cattle in the Maritimes were paraded into the arena.

Colby Lewis of Freetown, P. E. I., took the grand championship with his bull Roaker Fancy the Great and won the reserve as well with Paul Olympus Rockhaven. He also won the grand championship female with Queen Calothia Cynthia, and another Freetown entry, R. A. Profit's Willow Farm Dixie Queen won the reserve.

Aside from championships, actual classes were well divided among Colby Lewis, M. L. McCarthy of Sussex, N. B., J. Walter Jones of Charlottetown, and R. A. Profit.

The Jersey class saw keen competition among C. Eric Boulden of Windsor, N. S., Stead Bros., Charlottetown, Edison Mutch of North River, P. E. I., Baker and Son, River Hebert, N. S., and Dr. J. P. Lantz of Charlottetown.

Dr. Lantz won the junior male championship and Boulden the senior championship. In the female classes, Baker and Son were awarded senior, junior and grand championships.

Many of the leading breeders will ship their entries Thursday for the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, it was announced.

In the juniors, Victor Smith of Shinimicas, N. S., won the prize for showmanship, William Sloan of Aulac, N. B., was second. Alison Dixon of Aulac won the prize for the best calf entered by a boy, winning also the championship in the Shorthorn section.

D. A. MacFarlane of Carleton, P. E. I., won first prize in the female division. William Gibson, Marshfield and Gordon Newson, North River were other Prince Edward Island winners.

HAIR TURNED FLAMING RED

(C.P. Cable, By Guardian's Special Wire)

EALING, Middlesex, Nov. 9 — A woman who sued her hairdresser for damages because her hair turned "flaming red" after a shampoo was awarded £5 ($25) today in Brentford County Court.

The hairdresser, Harry Kopitoc, was awarded a 15 shilling counterclaim against the plaintiff, Mrs. Florence MacCullum, for the cost of the treatment.

Delivering the judgment, the court said: "Most ladies like their hair to be a bright color but this lady proved to be an exception."

Bland Scores Win Over Bostonian

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)

HALIFAX, Nov. 9—Sharpshooting Tommy Bland, fighting his best fight in Halifax, scored a decisive sx-round decison victory over Werther Arcelli, Boston, in the feature bout of a boxing card here tonight.

Bland weighing 150 pounds, enjoyed a six-pound advantage.

The Toronto fighter's victory was featured by a smashing attack that carried the first three rounds by goodly margins and enabled him to pile up an advantage on points that Arcelli, a notoriously slow starter, was unable to wipe out.

Best punch of the fight was a long right from Bland that caught Arcelli flush on the chin in the final round. It set the New England Italian back on his heels.

Both men were fresh at the bell although blood trickled from Arcelli's nose.

Five Countries May Compete In Tuna Tourney

YARMOUTH, N. S., Nov. 9—(CP)—Five countries may compete next year in the International Tuna Fishing tournament, staged off Weymouth, N. S., it was revealed tonight as George Herman "Babe" Ruth said he had been asked to join the United States team.

The retired home-run king sailed for Boston after three weeks hunting in Nova Scotia and his party took three deer, 14 duck and 35 woodcock with them. The Bambino said "we had a good time—a swell time—in fact, a marvelous time."

Bob Edge of Newark, N. J., an official in the first tuna fishing tournament this year, who accompanied Ruth on his hunting expedition, revealed Louis Mowbrey, captain of the British team, had written Bermuda that the colony would have a four-man team next year.

Canada will have its own team. England and Bermuda will compete and United States and Cuba have signified their willingness to send representatives.

Pictou Rugby Team May Play Here

Pictou, N. S., senior rugby team may play St. Dunstan's University senior team here Remembrance Day, it was learned yesterday. The Nova Scotians were to play Mount Allison University today and would be willing to come to Charlottetown provided their guarantee requirements could be met, it was said.

Old Miners To Get Aid

Older miners of South Wales who have long been unemployed are to be given suitable work so they may be at least partially self-supporting. Young men of the district who have had little or no opportunity for regular work will also be helped, and an effort will be made to make domestic service attractive to the large number of girls. The plans, reported in Swansea, are the result of a series of inspection visits made recently by British Minister of Labor Ernest Brown.

BIRMINGHAM, England — Lobo, the new apple developed in Canada, was a big attraction at the 17th annual Imperial Fruit Show here. Producers from all parts of the Empire were represented in 2,000 exhibits.

Canadiens And Black Hawks Play Two-all Draw Before Small Crowd At Montreal

MONTREAL, Nov. 9 —(CP)— Chicago Black Hawks spoiled Montreal Canadiens' opening in the new National Hockey League season tonight by sinking two third period goals to gain a 2-2 tie. Canadiens had to come from behind in the final minute to level the score on George Mantha's goal.

Climaxing two dull periods with a burst of speed in the third, the teams went back to defensive hockey in the overtime. Only 4,000 saw the Canadiens open their season against Hawks, who lost their first game at home to New York Americans last week.

Bill Stewart, former chief of the N. H. L. Referee force, made his road debut as coach and it was largely through the efforts of his veterans, rather than the crop of young United States players he has gathered that Hawks earned a tie. Louis Trudel got the first Chicago goal after seven minutes of the third chapter and Earl Seibert came through with the other two minutes later.

The clubs went through a lustreless, first period that produced neither a goal nor a penalty. Canadiens, out to begin defence of their sectional title properly carried most of the play in the early going and went ahead when Toe Blake sank Joffre Desilets' pass in the second.

Canadiens nearly lost the contest by playing defensive hockey in the third. Trudel whipped in Mush March's pass and Seibert scored on an assist from Johnny Gottselig to put Hawks ahead.

The defenceman Babe Siebert, voted the league's most valuable player last winter, rallied the Canadiens and after Hawks had broken away from habitant attacks several times a break came with a penalty to Earl Seibert. The Frenchmen turned on a power play and Mantha took Johnny Gagnon's long pass beside the net, then flipped the puck in as Mike Karakas fell in a desperate attempt to save.

Lineup

Chicago—Goal, Karakas, defence, Burke, Seibert; forwards, Romnes, Thompson, March. Subs, Wiebe, Brydson, Gottselig, Levinsky, Kendall, Trudel, Hanson, Dahlstrom, Palangio.

Canadiens—Goal, Cude defence, Siebert, MacKenzie; forwards, Haynes, Joliat, Gagnon. Subs, Buswell, Lorrain, Blake, Mondou, Lepine, Goupille, Mantha, Desilets, Drouin.

Sports Dope

NEW YORK, Nov. 9—Ginger Foran, crack British featherweight was no sooner off the boat than he was offered $2,500 to fight Henry Armstrong on Ed Bang's Cleveland News Christmas Fund show. Ginger turned it down. We don't blame him. The way to debut in America is not against Henry Armstrong.

Joe Guyon, Jr., son of one of Walter Camp's greatest All-America football picks, is going great guns for Catholic U. at Washington. Murray Agricultural College at Tishomingo, Okla., with a student enrolment of only 525, has four Golden Glove boxers on its roster. Johns Hopkins is rating a big hand for "pioneering" in simon-pure athletics by discarding gate receipts and guarantees, but little Bethany College near Wheeling, W. Va., threw open the gates to all athletic contests more than a decade ago. Policy is still in effect.

Col. Henry Doherty of the Miami-Biltmore Country Club has offered more than $95,000 in golf prizes in the last 10 years.

FORT AUGUSTUS WOMEN'S INSTITUE

The Annual meeting of Fort Augustus Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Duffy with nine members and four visitors present. Meeting opened by singing the Institute Ode, Roll call was responded to by paying the membership fee. Minutes of previous meeting were read and signed. The secretary then gave the annual report. It was decided to parchase a stove board for the school. It was also decided that the Institute hire someone to scrub the school floor.

The election of officers then took place resulting as follows:

President, Miss Anna G. Dalton, (re-elected), Vice-President, Mrs. Joseph Curley, Secretary, Treasurer Imelda MacLellan. Directors, Mrs William Hughes, Mrs. Leo Dunne and Mrs. Charles Hughes.

Auditors, Mrs. Carroll Kelly, re-elected and Mrs. Francis Kelly.

Miss Anna Dalton invited the members to her home for the December meeting, roll call to be answered by "What I would like for a Christmas gift."

The following committees were then appointed: Sick, Mrs. William Hughes and Mrs. Leo Dunne. Program, Mrs. Joseph Curley and Imelda MacLellan, Mrs. Carroll Kelly entertained the members with a solo.

A vote of thanks was extended to the hostess for the enjoyable evening spent, after which meeting adjourned by singing "The Old Spinning Wheel."

Feller Will Take Turn As It Comes

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

CLEVELAND, Nov. 9 — In 1938, Manager Oscar Vitt of Cleveland Indians declared today, pitcher Bob Feller "will take his turn just as it comes."

In so many words Vitt, newly appointed pilot of the Tribe, foreswore the 1937 policy of former Manager Steve O'Neill and the Indians' management—that of making Feller largely a "Sunday pitcher" as a lure to the crowds.

Louis Eager For Bouts

NEW YORK, Nov. 9—(AP)—Inactivity is becoming tiresome for Joe Louis, the heavyweight champion, and he has asked Promotor Mike Jacobs to arrange two fights for him this winter, Jacobs said today.

Jacobs said he would like to match Joe for one bout in the Garden and another in Chicago, Detroit or Cleveland.

ABBEY CLEANING REVEALS BEAUTY

LONDON, Nov. 9—(CP) — Visitors to Westminister Abbey, recently opened to the public following removal of the Coronation setting, have been amazed by the transformation in the chapel of St. Edmund and St. Thomas, on the south side of the ambulatory.

Gone is the atmosphere of antiquity, no trace of grime and dust. Monuments, tombs and effigies placed in the chapel generations ago have a striking appearance of newness and walls have been restored to their original color. "Just an ordinary cleaning," attendants assure inquirers.

For instance, the elaborate canopy of the tomb of Sir Bernard Brocas, executed on Tower Hill in 1400 for plotting against Henry IV, now is snowy white. Before it was a dull slate color, streaked with black.

Ducky Medwick Selected As Outstanding Player In The National League

(Sy Sid Feder)
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, Nov. 9—In well-deserved recognition of baseball's classiest clouting sweep since the palmy days of Ty Cobb, the Baseball Writers' Association today selected Ducky Medwick as the most valuable player in the National League for 1937.

Although they "split the ballot" and gave Gabby Hartnett of the Cubs more first-place nominations than the Cardinal clouter, the committee of eight writers more than made up for it in Medwick votes for second and third place, which counted heavily in the final point tabulation.

As a result, the No. 1 Gas House Gangster won the award, and the accompanying Sporting News Trophy, by two points, 70 to 68 for Gabby.

King Carl Hubbell, recipient of the award last year, wound up in third place with 52 points. Surprise of the balloting was the high total cast for the sensational "old man" rookie pitching pair of the Boston Bees, Jim Turner and Lou Fette, who were picked for fourth and fifth, respectively, with 30 and 29 points.

For Medwick and the dose of pitchers' poison packed in his war club, the award topped off a year in which he not only achieved his long desired goal, the batting championship, but cleaned up in just about every other important individual offensive department as well.

He batted for .400 for most of the season, then wound up with .374 after a late season slump; he was the league champion in runs, with 111; hits, with 237; runs batted in with 154; doubles, with 57, and tied with Mel Ott of the Giants for the home-run crown, with 31.

With each of the eight voting experts casting a ballot for 10 choices in the order he wanted them selected, Medwick drew two first-place nominations; Hartnett three, Each was selected twice on a second ballot. But Medwick collected four third-place mentions, while the rest of Hartnett's votes were strung out, one each for third, fourth and sixth.

A first-place vote counted 10 points, second, nine; third, eight, and so son. In addition to Medwick and Hartnett, first-place nominations were cast for three others, Hubbell, shortstop Dick Bartell and catcher Harry Danning, all members of the New York Giants' family.

RUSS WANT OPERETTAS

Revival of operettas and other light musical productions in Moscow and other cities is being debated. Musical compositions of this kind written by Soviet composers have created an insistent demand for more. G. Yaron, a well known director, says that the Soviet operettas "should present the people among whom we live and work, and who look at us from the auditorium." Under the czars the operetta was a favorite form of stage production.
