BEFORE AND AFTER

"As leader of the Liberal party, I want to say that one of the planks of the platform of the party if returned to power will be at least a reduction in the auto tax AND A DOWNWARD REVISION OF TAXATION GENERALLY. I want to make this statement and repeat it so that there may be no mistake about it."—Hon. A. C. Saunders, as reported in Patriot of March 19, 1927.

"My hon. friend now says, 'We will reduce the taxes.' As I say, Imitation! No initiative! Follow the beaten path of the Liberal party. It has always been the case and I presume it always will be. We announced that we would make a reduction in auto tax AND MAKE A DOWNWARD REVISION IN TAXES GENERALLY. So my friend had our policy; and, as I say, he wasn't able to initiate anything new himself and he makes the same announcement now as I made the other day. We are very glad to know that he has come across now. It looks that it is worth while for us to point the way in which things shall be done. I am sure the people of the Province will be glad to know that we, the Opposition, while small in numbers, have secured that result."—Hon. A. C. Saunders, as reported in Patriot, April 6, 1927.

AFTER THE 1927 ELECTION!

"Had the taxes remained the same as they were in 1920, I think we could have acceded to the demands of the teachers, BUT UNFORTUNATELY THROUGH A WEAKNESS OF THE LATE GOVERNMENT who were playing politics in order to hold their position THE TAXES WERE REDUCED, with the result that we are now, in the unfortunate position that we haven't the revenue to meet essential demands."—Premier Saunders, as reported in Patriot, March 26, 1929.

BROADENING OUT!

"When I hear the Opposition say to reduce taxes, to cut down expenditures, I say that it is time that both parties should broaden out. . . . We should get clear of this small politics and say: 'We are going to spend more money on roads and on the interests of the farmers themselves if they would agree to pay more taxes, if we spent it on the roads and put them in good shape.'"—Hon. J. P. McIntyre, in Legislature, April 15, 1929.

THE FARMERS AND MOTORISTS ARE PAYING THE TAXES, ALL RIGHT, AND THE LEA-McINTYRE AGGREGATION IS SPENDING THE MONEY—AND THE CRACKED McINTYRE HIGHWAY, WHICH WILL NEED TO BE REPAVED BEFORE ANOTHER WINTER COMES AROUND, AND WHICH HAS ALREADY COST $27,000 A MILE, IS THE RESULT!

HERBERT F. DANIELS

Mr. Daniels of Graphic Publishers Ottawa who recently spent a few days in Charlottetown, stated that in making a general business survey of conditions throughout the Maritime Provinces, that it is more than evident that preference for all things Canadian was the first consideration of buyers, and that in the case of literature, librarians and booksellers were quite outspoken in their claims that the reading public were insisting upon books from the pen of Canadian authors, and that invariably books marked with a Canadian imprint received first attention. Mr. Daniels also pointed out that while conditions had by no means reached what might be termed normal there was every reason to believe that the turning point had been reached and that while buyers had of necessity curtailed expenditures, there was an increasing tendency to obtain products entirely Canadian showing the minimum of risk and maximum in quality.
