Mrs. R. C. McMillan, and daughter Muriel of Calgary, are visiting relatives and friends in Cornwall and West River. Mrs. McMillan's friends are pleased to find that while liking her home, and new friends in the great West, she is still loyal to her native land, and old friends.

Citizens will hear with surprise and many with regret that G. F. Hutcheson has decided to give up his large and profitable jewelry business, devoting his time, exclusively in future to the optical profession which branch of his business now occupies his entire time. For a long time Mr. Hutcheson has found it a difficult task to handle the increasing business in both departments and as he has found it impossible to secure competent help to manage the jewelry branch he has decided to clear out his entire stock at big discounts. Mr. Hutcheson's stock of jewelry, cut glass, silverware, china, etc., is recognized as the largest, most complete and high grade in the Province and his big clearance sale which starts today should prove a banner bargain event for all those who wish to secure rare bargains in articles of this kind.

(From Saturday's Evening Guardian.)

Miss Katie Beckworth, Charlottetown, was a passenger to the Northumberland this morning to Halifax.

Among the passengers west this morning was G. Ballingall, Charlottetown.

Don't make the mistake of thinking all talcum powders are alike—There's a difference—An important difference. Na Du-Cro, Royal Rose Talcum Powder is purified and ground, and ground and purified, until it is perfectly fine and smooth, without a particle of grit or foreign substance. That's the kind to use—25c. box—E. A. Foster, Central Drug-store. 10-23M61.
