GREECE IS VIRTUALLY AT WAR WITH GERMANY AND BULGARIA

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Reuter's Athens correspondent says: "Venizelist circles assert that the provisional government declared war against Bulgaria to prevent the entry of the Venizelist forces into the campaign from being interrupted as a political manoeuvre. In view of the fact that the Allies consider the Saloniki triumvirate as the government de facto, Greece is now virtually at war with Bulgaria."

"The provisional government has also declared war on Germany because it torpedoed ships carrying national forces and partisans of the provisional government."

Demand For Greek Arms

Athens, Nov. 25, via London.—The first delivery of arms demanded of the Greek government by Vice-Admiral Du Fournet, commander of the Entente squadron, consists of ten batteries of mountain guns. The demand declares that failure to comply with it before December 1 will result in measures being taken by the admiral.

Admiral Du Fournet's latest note fixing a brief period in which Greek arms are to be surrendered greatly excited the people of Athens. The premier informally explained that the admiral, in reply to the government's refusal of his demand, brushed aside the reason for this refusal and simply set December 1 as the date for the surrender of the artillery required, and December 13 as the date for the surrender of rifles. The tone of the note, said the premier, was not courteous, but did not admit of discussion.

According to the diplomatic representatives of the Entente Powers the time allowed would enable the Greek government to reflect with mature deliberation before making its decision.

For Macedonian Defense

Admiral Du Fournet's note, these diplomats say, reviews at length the arguments of the Greek government justifying this refusal to surrender arms, refers again to France's proposal to pay for the arms or replace them after the war, declares that the Entente Powers do not make the demand because they are in need of armament, but because they feel that the war materials in Greece would be better employed in defending Macedonia, "for the liberty of which Hellenic blood has so often been spilled," than stored in the arsenals.

An official close to the King has assured the Associated Press that the surrender of arms no longer depends either on the sovereign or the government. He declared that the King's best efforts, so far, had proved fruitless with the Venizelists, who determined not to surrender their arms, despite the wishes of King Constantine.

Support Venizelists

Paris, Nov. 28.—The French minister to Greece, says a Havas despatch from Athens today, has warned the Greek government in behalf of France, England and Russia that the countries named "cannot remain indifferent to the prosecution to which adherents of the Venizelist cause are the object, and that the nations in question mean to see that the Venizelos supporters enjoy all the rights conferred upon them by law." "The warning," adds the despatch, "is believed to have been caused by the imprisonment of M. Lambaki, chief editor of the Patrie for publishing documents regarding the turning over to Fort Rupel (one of the Macedonian forts occupied by the Bulgarians.)"

May Occupy Athens

LONDON, Nov. 28.—An Athens despatch to the Weekly Despatch says that if necessary Vice-Admiral Du Fournet will occupy Athens, if the Greek government does not comply with the Entente ultimatum.

"The royalist troops declare their complete refusal to deliver up their arms," adds the despatch. "Artillery has been seen at Admetos Hill, beyond the station, and arms have been freely distributed to 10,000 reservists. Fire engines went round the city all last night pretending to extinguish fires, but really to distribute arms. This morning a league of resistance was formed by Gen. Papoulas, who was recently recalled from Janina. Many officers have already adhered to it."

"The misfortunes of Roumania are contributing to the strength of these plots and ideas are circulating among the reservists of proceeding to the interior, beyond the reach of the naval guns, and start guerrilla warfare until the arrival of the Germans, after the conquest of Roumania, which they firmly expect."

STOCK WAS TAKEN BY HUNS IN OCCUPIED TERRITORY.

GENEVA, Switzerland, Nov. 25.—(Via Paris).—A Syrian banker named Geodran Rabbat has been arrested here charged with having in his possession a quantity of Russian, Serbian and French government stock taken by Germans in occupied territory. Three other persons, who, it is alleged, went to Paris twice a month to cash coupons from similar securities, have also been arrested. The French government has demanded the extradition of the four prisoners.

"STOP THE WAR" CAMPAIGN IN THE STATES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 27.—Further steps in a national "stop the war" campaign, designed to crystallize sentiment so that any peace move which may be made by President Wilson will receive the united support of the nation, were taken here today by the organization of the New York branch of the American National Conference. Similar branches are to be established throughout the country.

"They sang of love, and not of fame;
Forgot was Britain's glory;
Each heart recalled a different name.
But all sang 'Annie Laurie' "

If you were asked to name the song—words and music—that lay nearest the hearts of the English speaking people all over the world—some 200 millions of them—what would you answer? Probably you'd have to give it up! Joe Mitchell Chapple, however, the man whose brain first conceived "Heart Songs," could come nearer giving the correct answer than any other living man. He would tell you that the song was "Annie Laurie." The 20,000 votes he received from every country where the English speech prevails, lead him to say in his preface to that wonderful book: "Annie Laurie" is the one great international favorite ballad of all English-speaking people."

Nor was a song ever written with sweeter words or melody. In music, as in poetry or fiction, the "old, old story" is ever new, and appeals to youth and maturity alike, in every age and every clime. This is why the most popular song in the world today is "Annie Laurie,"—with its words, melody and theme!

Bayard Taylor, the author of the verse above given, was evidently inspired by this thought, when he wrote his immortal "Song in Camp."
