SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON VII. FEBRUARY 18.

THE MINISTRY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST.

Luke 3: 1-20.

GOLDEN TEXT

"Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."—Matt. 3: 2.

POINTED SUGGESTIONS.

By Rev. D. W. Snider.

Men who have come to official position in the church or in the state, whatever may be their own merit, ought to seek and preserve a character of a reputable and worthy sort. They ought to reflect that by virtue of their office their names will become, in some way, if only to fix a date, associated with the names of the worthy. The thought of it should lift them to the sanctification of their service.

But, what a record, staining the pages of history, men make for themselves by the misuse or selfish use, and, therefore, the utter abuse of their opportunities. John was a burning and shining light while there were men who exercised authority to deal with him whose names will be an increasing offence to the end of time.

The work of the pioneer or forerunner in any enterprise or of any transitional period is worthy of regard. His task is always difficult. It is very often hazardous. It is apt to be unrewarded and thankless—at least, in his own generation.

But John the Baptist was fitted in temperament and devotion—in fact, in all-round training and character—for such a service. Note his faithfulness and humility. Note, also, his fiery energy and fixity of purpose. He understood his call and stayed, unflinchingly, with it. That is greatness.

Verses five and six are peculiar to Luke. The universal note in the Gospel he never fails to sound. He catches up and finds meaning for the words of the prophet from which he quotes. What a promise they contain! Let the pessimist in the church look at them as in a glass and see how ugly sinful are his lucubrations that things wax worse and worse.

Repent! Those who think it is never necessary have waited until now in hardness of heart. Repent! Those who think that it is a sigh, as of one who has met disappointment, dwell in the shadow of a devil's cheat. John the Baptist draws the blood of this primal demand upon the conscience of those who would believe when he cuts to the core of their wrong-doing, saying, "Bring forth fruits meet for repentance."

Where Jesus comes and wherever He is privileged to enter judgment comes and judgment enters. As sunlight reveals uncleanness, so Jesus reveals sin. Whatsoever makes manifest is light, and Jesus is light. John came to bear witness of that Light.

Where one manner of work prefigures another which is better it is well while using the one to wait with readiness to submit to and use the other. The first disciples of Jesus who were to receive the baptism of fire were disciples of John, whose baptism was of water, But the baptism of fire meant the fuller cleansing. Be ready to advance with the movements of the Spirit.

Remember that the motive force of the ministry of John the Baptist is ours still, viz.: "The kingdom of heaven is at hand." When the thought which that word implies shall be covered in the sight of men it will be time to halt in the propaganda of righteousness.

Jesus Christ becomes greater the more the attempt is made to compare the greatest among men with Him.

Those who, like John the Baptist, rebuke sin must expect reprisal of a vicious sort from the sinners they rebuke. But his reward came for all ages and the world to when Jesus defended him, saying, "What went ye into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with the wind?" etc.—Matt. 11: 7-16.

Cascarets for a Sick, Sour Stomach

Gently but thoroughly cleanse and regulate your Stomach, Liver and Bowels while you sleep.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gases; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, nausea, bloating after eating, feeling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means indigestion; disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they cure indigestion because they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended forever. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10 cent box from any drugstore will keep your entire family goad for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.

Chandler & Reddin

Electors of Charlottetown

Ladies and Gentlemen:—

Having been called again by hundreds of my fellow citizens to offer as a candidate for Mayor at the election to be held on Wednesday Feby. 14th, I need not remind you of my past record. Improvements speak louder than words

It would be unfair on my part to seek your support again without placing before you the platform that I shall endeavour to carry out.

I may say it is not my intention to make a personal canvas. The election is by ballot, through this medium I respectfully ask your support. If you think I am worthy of it, cast your vote for me. If I did not act up to your expectations when I last held office, vote against me. The matter is entirely in your hands.

If Returned as Chief Magistrate

FIRST. I shall in every way encourage the establishment of new industries and will appoint five councilors to be designated the Industrial Committee whose duty will be principally to make enquiries, and if necessary take steps to induce men of means to establish works that will give employment to our citizens.

SECOND. My attention will be given to the good work of laying concrete sidewalks and the macadamizing streets, thereby improving our City and employing our working men.

THIRD. From observation and enquiries made while visiting other cities I am convinced that with the co-operation of the Light & Power Company our streets can be much better lighted at no more expense to the City with the exception of a little extra for lamp posts which could be manufactured in one of our City establishments by our own mechanics.

FOURTH. A Provincial Government have placed upon the Citizens very heavy taxes for which we receive very little benefit. I shall make an effort to secure a just and reasonable share of the revenue, and if successful the amount should be expended on permanent improvement.

FIFTH. The general health and sanitary condition of the City will have my careful attention.

SIXTH. In almost all well regulated Cities, hospitals and charitable institutions receive assistance from the public treasurer. In this respect our past City Councils have failed in doing their duty. In order to be in line with other cities I propose cancelling the Mayor's salary and suggest placing the amount on the estimate as follows:—

Tuberculosis Society	$50 00
Poor Fund for coal etc.	$50.00
Ch'town Hospital.	$50.00
P. E. I. Hospital.	$50.00
Mt. Herbert Orphanage	$50.00
St. Dunstan's Orphanage	$50.00
The balance.	$24.44
	$324.44

to be divided in equal parts for prizes between the three public schools, Prince Street, St. Patrick, and West Kent.

These with all other matters pretaining to the welfare of the City will have my special attention.

Respectfully yours,

James Paton

I am yours truly
JOHN McNEVIN.
