Island Scenery And Hospitality Impress Visitors

Representatives Of American Agricultural Press Delighted With Yesterday's Visit. Millions Of American Readers Will Be Told Of Delightful Island Province Tucked Away In The St. Lawrence Gulf.

"Since this party has entered the Dominion of Canada it has been one of the most delightful of wholesome, happy, instructive entertainment and social, courteous hospitality," said Mr. A. C. Everingham, Chicago, editor of the Illinois Farmer, spokesman yesterday for the American Agricultural Editors Association whose visit to this Province greatly enhanced the already favorable impression gathered during five days of intensive sightseeing in the farming centres of Eastern Canada. Particularly were the visiting journalists impressed with the agricultural and tourist advantages of the Garden of the Gulf and with the kindness and hospitality of its people. Mr. Everingham, voicing the sentiments of the Association members at the

Canadian Girl And Fiance Lose Their Lives

(Special to the Guardian)

HAMMOND, N. J., June 17.—In one of the worst automobile accidents in the history of the White Horse Pike, followed by one of the most infamous crimes in the history of the state, a pretty 20 year old Canadian girl and her fiance lost their lives and thieves took the young woman's clothing as she lay dying. While six or seven victims of a three car motor crash lay either dazed or unconscious on the pike miscreants of the lowest type not only stole their pocketbooks and jewelry, but stripped three women of their costly clothing and then sped away into the darkness of the night.

The accident occurred when a car in which were Violet F. Wright, 20, of Toronto, and her sweetheart, Roy Sanders, 24, of 102 Seventh Ave., Haddon Heights, was struck by a car driven by Joseph Gorsky of Atlantic City on the White Horse Pike at Lawlida, less than two miles from the home of Sanders, with whose parents Miss Wright had been staying preparing for her wedding next month. As the victims lay helpless on the pike another car driven by Robert M. Hueson, 1409 North Broad St., Philadelphia, crashed into the wrecked machines.

Before the arrival of state police from the Berlin barracks thieves stripped the dress from Miss Wright and stole her purse. They also stole the purse of Mrs. Estelle Gilmore, 28, who was riding in Hueson's car, and a diamond bracelet and a fur piece. They took the pocket book and dress of Miss Lucille Vall, 24, of 2201 Venago St., Philadelphia, the fourth occupant of the Sanders car driven by Gore.

Disturbance In Bombay

(Special to the Guardian)

BOMBAY, June 17.—The Monsoon Festival, which today, came to reinforce the thousand or more armed soldiers sent to the relief of the sorely tried police and civil authorities in the Bombay presidency. At the same time the Government gave the clearest indications that it would no longer tolerate the defiance of Viceroy Lord Irwin's picketing and boycotting ordinances by decisively repressing a disturbance in front of one of the leading department stores of Bombay City, where followers of Mahatma Gandhi were engaged in a demonstration. About a dozen persons were injured. With the beginning of the rains it was expected that a great abatement of the open air activities of the civil disobedience volunteers for some weeks to come.

Meanwhile renewal of arrests has commenced. Volunteers posted outside of liquor and foreign cloth shops were removed in police vans and immediately replaced by colleagues who in turn were taken into custody.

Other than the disturbance in front of the big European department store Bombay was quiet. As regards the country as a whole certain well informed observers today permitted themselves a new measure of optimism. But breaks of violence have lessened.

Our Tariffs Must Fight For Us

Hon. R. B. Bennett's Vigorous Declaration That Tariffs Must Be Made To Blast The Way For Our Trade, Not Kept For The Benefit Of Foreign Countries

The following extract from Hon. R. B. Bennett's speech shows the robust faith he has in the effectiveness of tariffs when properly directed, and not manipulated from Washington as is the case with Mr. Mackenzie King in office:

"What will the Conservative Government do to help you? Listen carefully, all you who rightly ask for facts and results, listen, you agriculturists from the west and all the other parts of Canada. You have been taught to mock at tariffs and applaud free trade. Tell me, when did free trade fight for you? You say our tariffs are only for the manufacturers; I will make them fight for you as well. I will use them to blast a way into the markets that have been closed to you.

"In the past few years the Government of Mr. Mackenzie King has carried out what it calls "Most favored nation" treaty, by which the manufactured goods of other nations secured entry into our markets at minimum rates of duties—treaties with France, treaties with Germany, treaties with Italy, treaties with all the nations of the world. There are fifty grades, I think, of them in all.

Foreign Tariff Increases.

"Many of these countries have in recent months greatly raised their duties on natural products from Canada. For instance, listen to these words: The duty on wheat to France, 95 cents a bushel; Italy, 87.15 cents per bushel; Germany, 94 cents per bushel. All done within the last few months, increased to that extent, and still a favored nation's treaties with these countries remain and our champagnes, and textiles that are entering into Canada in competition with Canadian products—except champagne—are proving greatly to the detriment of Canada and the increase of the Canadian unemployment and the hardship to Canadian workmen.

"When we have the power I will undertake a complete reconsideration of these treaties and if they cannot be amended so as to afford to our agricultural products more favorable terms, I will denounce them; there will be no favored treaty by Canada with any country which imposes restrictive measures on the exports of our natural products to them. You have my pledge to that. (Applause).

"Moreover recognizing that the marketing of our natural products is a foremost factor in our national welfare, I pledge the organized machinery that they will in co-operation with private and provincial agencies permanently establish effective marketing organizations in the countries with which we trade, with these drastic adjustments and improvements to which you are entitled, and with the full employment of our great transportation system you will have broader markets, and will have them for all time.

Egyptian Premier Tenders Resignation to King Fuad.

(Special to the Guardian)

CAIRO, Egypt, June 17.—Mustapha Pasha Nahas, Prime Minister, today tendered his own and his cabinet's resignation to King Fuad. His ministry was formed Jan. 1, 1930, after a Wafdist victory in the general elections a few days previous. Are Becoming The Distribution Base Of Liquor

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, Ont., June 17.—The Miquelon Islands, which are French possessions off the Newfoundland coast, are becoming increasingly the distribution base of liquor, particularly since Canada prohibited the export of this commodity to countries into which its importation was forbidden by law. The supplies which were formerly exported from Windsor, Ont., to the United States are apparently now being diverted to St. Pierre, Miqu., with the result that the export figures from Canada to these islands show a large increase over last year. In May 1929, the Dominion exported 16,114 gallons of spirits to St. Pierre, Miquelon, last month the exports were 98,492 gallons, returns to the department of national revenue show.

Schooner Floated

(Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, N. S., June 17.—The speed champion of the north Atlantic fishing fleet is safe. Lunenburg, her home port, is jubilant tonight, anxiety which had persisted since the Bluenose grounded on the shores of Placentia Bay last Thursday gave place to celebration in the home town of the south shore fleet today when word came from Newfoundland that the schooner had been dragged off the Point Roche sandbar by the Govt. steamer Arron and in tow of the drydock at Burin. There, it was believed an examination would reveal only slight damage to the staunch schooner whose seaworthiness had withstood nine years of North Atlantic buffeting and whose speed had shown the way to the fleetest craft of Gloucester.

Scollard, Bishop of Sault Ste. Marie. Miss Margaret Jones, Montreal, secretary. When Miss Jones complained that the League's activities did not receive much publicity even from Catholic papers, Mrs. W. J. MacIntyre, Charlottetown, P. E. I., suggested the appointment of a publicity convener.

Trinity Term Of Supreme Court

Jail And Falconwood Hospital Inspected By Grand Jury. Commission Of Mr. Justice Saunders Read. Chief Justice Presented With White Gloves.

The June term of the Supreme Court opened yesterday morning with his Lordship Chief Justice Mathieson, Mr. Justice Arsenault and Mr. Justice Saunders on the Bench. A Grand Jury was empanelled and sworn, was addressed by the Chief Justice, and in the afternoon at the second session of the Court brought in its report of the inspection of the Queens County Jail, and of Falconwood Hospital. A pair of white gloves were placed on the desk of His Lordship signifying that there are no criminal cases to be tried at the present term.

The names of the jurymen are as follows: Samuel A. McLeod, (foreman), Gavin Harding, James Monaghan, Robert Anderson, Samuel Kennedy, Ernest Warren, Clarence Reid, Edward Nicholson, John Collings, Boswell Jenkins, Scott Cairns.

ADDRESS TO GRAND JURY

In addressing the Grand Jury, the Chief Justice remarked that the duties devolving upon that body, on this occasion, are unusually light. The Sheriff has placed on the desk a pair of white gloves, which from ancient times have been the emblem of freedom from crime, as far as bills of indictments, before the Grand Jury, are concerned.

As a result of there being no bills of indictment presented, and no notice falling upon the jury for criminal cases, no Petit Jury has been summoned. A change has taken place in the manner of calling non-jury cases. Formerly a very large proportion of these cases, coming before the Supreme Court, were tried at the term, but now law permits their being sent up at any time. The former condition often meant a great hardship, due to the uncertainty as to when a case might be called for trial. Now non-jury cases can be called by appointment at any time convenient.

The duties of the present jury, His Lordship stated, are confined to the inspection of public buildings, principally the jail and the asylum. Always the Grand Jury is charged with the responsible duty of making a thorough inspection. Though the last named institution has been characterized by improvement and steady growth to a point of noted efficiency, no consideration of outside information, or of good reputation, will lessen the responsibility of a careful and thorough inspection. The report made must be one consisting of facts, verified by careful investigation, as on it lies the security of the most helpless part of the population.

In the jail are imprisoned nineteen persons—eleven prohibition offenders, two for vagrancy, four for theft, one for assault, and one for contempt of court. The Grand Jury will look into the condition of the institution and of the prisoners, and present a report and make recommendations to be placed before the government.

Since the Court last met in Charlottetown a change has taken place in the retirement of Mr. Justice Hazard who was assistant Judge of the Supreme Court of this Province for nineteen years. He has been replaced by Hon. Albert Charles Saunders as Master of the Rolls and Chancery, and as assistant Judge. While bidding the new Judge welcome His Lordship remarked that the event marks the close of a judicial career of one of the wisest and best of a long line of Judges who have sat on the Bench. The record of Hon. Francis Longworth Hazard will stand as an example and an inspiration to his successor and to the whole judicature of the Island. The hope was expressed that there may remain for this distinguished jurist years of happiness and prosperity during which his counsel may be sought.

The only case docketed was that of Creed and others, vs. Fearson for ejectment, Bentley, K. C., plaintiffs;

Stewart, K. C., and Lowther, defendant. The case was allowed to stand adjourned till Tuesday, June 24.

Reference was made by Attorney-General Campbell to the Bedeque Telephone Inquiry. A difference between the subscribers in the telephone company had been referred to a commission for inquiry. The report of the Commission had been amended by the Lieutenant Governor in Council. The application made to the Attorney-General is to make the report thus amended a rule of the Supreme Court. It had not been proposed that the matter might be referred to the Public Utility Board, and the matter stands adjourned till a date to be fixed, in order that this proposal may be considered.

GRAND JURY'S REPORT

Following is the report of the Grand Jury:

To His Lordship Chief Justice Mathieson, and the Associate Judge, of the Supreme Court of Prince Edward Island. Your Lordships,

The members of the Grand Jury at this time assembled desire most heartily to join in the kind sentiments of appreciation so fittingly expressed by your Lordship, the Chief Justice, on the retirement of the Honourable Francis Longworth Hazard, from the Supreme Court Bench, where his Lordship had served for so many years with eminent distinction. It is the fervent wish of members of this Grand Jury that His Lordship may long be spared to enjoy his well earned retirement and to see the fruition of his labours in the several spheres of activity with which he has been so intimately connected in the furtherance of our agricultural and industrial progress and social welfare.

The appointment of the Hon. Albert Charles Saunders as successor to the Honourable Mr. Justice Hazard will, we assure your Lordships, meet with the approval of all classes of our people in every section of this Province. The high principles of integrity and honour coupled with the ability which the Honourable Mr. Saunders has shown in public life, are a sufficient guaranty of his capacity to perform the duties of his high office with impartiality and wisdom.

We visited Falconwood Hospital, and after a thorough inspection, found everything in a very satisfactory condition, and we wish to compliment the Medical Superintendent and staff on the splendid manner in
