MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

The DOOM TRAIL by ARTHUR D. HOWDEN SMITH

WNU SERVICE AUTHOR OF PORTO BELLO GOLD ETC. COPYRIGHT BY BRENTANO'S

All unsuspecting, De Veulle made me a slight bow, a look of indifferent disdain on his face at sight of my plebeian figure. The disguise was good, and I hoped I might cozen him for a time at least. But no man forgets another who has toyed with his life, and his indifference was dissipated the instant his eye met mine.

"Juggins?" he exclaimed in bewilderment. "Parbleu! 'Tis Harry Ormerod, the Jacobite refugee!"
Murray snapped his fingers to Tom, the negro, who had been a silent witness to our conversation. In an instant he stood beside us.

"Is this the man who came with Master Juggins to the bearing before the lords of trade?" snapped Murray.
"He de man, massa."
"Are you sure?"
"Yes, massa."

"Tom doesn't make mistakes," remarked Murray with a gesture of dismissal to the negro. "May I ask you who you are, sir?" he addressed me.

"I suppose you may," I replied coolly; and with a sense of relief I tipped the bobbed scratch-wig off my head and tossed it into the sea. "Does that help you at all?" I inquired of De Veulle.

He stared back at me, his face all drawn with hatred.
"I knew you with it on," he said savagely. "It became you. Why should a deserter wear the clothes of a gentleman?"
"I laughed at him, but Murray intervened quickly.

"What do you mean?" he demanded.
De Veulle made a gesture in my direction.
"This person, who was in the immediate entourage of the Pretender, abandoned his leader not long ago and fled to England to seek a pardon, repudiated and detested by all honorable men in Paris. But in England his protestations of loyalty were refused, for they naturally doubted the sincerity of one who wearied so soon of an unfortunate cause."

"Is this true?" Murray asked me.
"Within reason," I said.
Murray stared from one to the other of us. "Stap me, but I rejoice to see that we may look forward to an entertaining voyage!" he exclaimed. "I had feared 'twould be most tedious. Are you seeking satisfaction from the gentleman, chevalier?"

"I shall fight him when I choose, on grounds of my own choosing," replied De Veulle curtly.
"And by no means with small swords," I jested.
He gave me a black look.

"You will pray me to kill you if you ever fall into my power. Ormerod. I can wait until then."
"As you please."
He turned and left us. Murray took snuff very deliberately, first offering the box to me—which he had not done before—and scrutinizing me politely from head to foot.

"I fear I have been patronizing in my conduct, sir," he observed.
"Pray accept my apologies. 'Twas a perfect disguise. And your manner, if I may say so, was well conceived."
"I thank you."

"In short, I find you an opponent of totally different importance. You are an opponent?" he shot at me.
"Sure, sir, that is for you to say," I made answer. "So far as I know at this time we merely happen to be passengers together on this craft."
"I have known it!" he exclaimed. "Twas not like Juggins to send a bumpkin to Burnet. He hath been an enemy I might not scorn at any moment. But I must go below now. I have some papers to attend to. And I shall also attempt to induce the Chevalier de Veulle to preserve

She Suffered For Four Years With Sore Back

Then New Brunswick Lady Used Dodd's Kidney Pills
Mrs. A. J. Ferlotte Found Relief After Taking One Box

Archibald St'ville, N. B., March 7. (Special)—Just why Dodd's Kidney Pills are so popular in the Province of New Brunswick is shown by the statement of Mrs. A. J. Ferlotte, a well known resident of this place. She writes:—
"I suffered for four years with Kidney trouble and Sore Back. I got a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they gave me relief. Since that time I have never been without a box in the house. I have also used Dodd's Kidney Pills for Headache and found them very good."

"That Mrs. Ferlotte's trouble came from her kidneys is evidenced by the relief she got from Dodd's Kidney Pills. They are purely and simply a kidney remedy. Many men and women suffer periodically with backache, and, as middle age approaches, the pain increases in severity. Rest may give temporary relief, but Dodd's Kidney Pills do much more than this. They strengthen the weak kidneys and remove the cause of the pain."
