

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THE WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

THURSDAY.

The news of the death of W. C. Hobkirk, City, which was received yesterday afternoon occasioned many feelings of regret.

The deceased died in the P. E. Island Hospital where he had been undergoing treatment for the past three or four months.

Mr. Hobkirk was a son of the late Dr. Wm. Hobkirk, of this City, one of the most eminent of the physicians of this province, and his mother was a daughter of the late Judge Hensley.

He married a daughter of the late Honorable John Longworth who died some years ago. He leaves to mourn three children: Sydney, holding a prominent position in Chicago, formerly of Horace Hazzard's office here and now located in Halifax, and Miss Helen at home.

Besides his family he leaves to mourn two sisters in this City: Mrs. (Dr.) James Warburton and Miss Hobkirk, and one brother Harry, in Fredericton.

The deceased was a gentleman who was widely known and everywhere respected. As Fishery Warden for the Provincial Government he performed his duties zealously and impartially and was the most honest and faithful official.

Socially he was a pleasant and entertaining companion and was beloved by his many friends. He was familiar as a sportsman being particularly fond of angling and was a splendid shot. As a host he had an enviable reputation. Always ready and willing he entertained friends and strangers with equal grace, especially has it been noted that strangers who came to this Province and became his guests were accurate in reporting his hands that left them ever his friends.

No person was better known for many years in this respect than the deceased. His death will be regretted by not only many friends and intimate acquaintances in this City and Province but by numbers abroad who enjoyed his kindness and hospitality here.

He was a life-long member of the congregation of St. Paul's Church and in politics was a supporter of the Liberal party.

His brother and sons were telegraphed for and are expected to be home to be present at the funeral, of which notice appears elsewhere.

To the bereaved family and other relatives and mourning friends The Guardian extends sincere sympathy.

FRIDAY.

Rev. E. A. McPhee, accompanied by Mrs. McPhee and family, will be messengers by this morning's express enroute to St. George, N. B., where Mr. McPhee has accepted the call of the Baptist Church in that town.

The residence of David and Mrs. Jones, Pownal was the scene of a very merry home wedding Wednesday evening, when their youngest daughter, Melinda Adeline, became the wife of John Heber Gordon, eldest son of Walter F. and Mrs. Gordon, Willowdale, Brunell River. The ceremony was performed at six o'clock by Rev. H. W. Toombs, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, in the presence of immediate relatives of the bride and groom and a large number of invited guests.

The following is from a Boston exchange: In the French-Catholic Church on Isabella Street yesterday afternoon Miss Euphemia Gallant of Charlottetown.

P. E. I., was married to James Earl of Somersetworth, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. LaChapelle, and was attended by the relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple.

Mrs. Mary Meek, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Edward Parley, brother of the groom, was the best man. The bride wore a gown of the silk with Persian trimmings, carried bride roses, and wore a pendant of diamonds and pearls, a gift from the groom. A gown of deep blue silk was worn by the matron of honor, who carried pinks. The bride's gift to her sister was a ring set with pearls, and the best man received from the groom a pair of gold cuff links.

After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of Mrs. Meek, 1 Prospect Avenue, Charlottetown. Later the couple started on a honeymoon to be spent in the hunting sections of Maine, and upon their return will live in Somerville. (The bride is a daughter of Euseb and Mrs. Gallant, 101 Fitzroy Street.)

The following address has been presented to Rev. E. A. McPhee, on the occasion of his leaving Montague for St. George, N. B.

Montague, P. E. I., Nov. 14th, 1910.

To Rev. E. A. McPhee:—As this is the last time you will be present with us in our lodge room, we take advantage of the occasion to express our appreciation of the service you have rendered the cause of temperance during your three year residence among us, and also our sincere regret at your departure. Since you became a member of this community you have from the pulpit, the platform, and in every other way, faithfully endeavored to sow the seed and to promote the growth of temperance sentiment in our village. That much good seed has fallen upon stony ground we do not regret, but we are glad that some has fallen upon good soil, and trust that it may bear fruit to the glory of the cause of temperance. And we must further say that it is owing chiefly to your continuous efforts and undaunted zeal that we are meeting here as a temperance lodge. And now, as you are most highly respected and honored member, are about to leave us, it is with deepest regret that we say "Good-bye." The office which you have filled in our lodge will be filled by another, but the place which you have gained in the hearts of the members, others cannot fill. We have always taken a living interest in the welfare of our lodge; and when difficulties and perplexities loomed dark on our horizon, you always had a word of cheer, encouragement, advice, and, when necessary, correction.

And now as you are about to enter upon a new field of labor we hope and trust that the God of the Temperance Cause may bless your efforts and that you will receive the due reward of your labors. And as now with sad, but loving hearts we say farewell; it is with the hope that if we meet no more on earth as members of their noble order, we may again meet as members of that Great Brotherhood above, where death nor any adverse circumstances shall never separate us, and our meetings shall never end.

On behalf of the Lodge, Leslie J. Campbell, Chief Templar, Wm. McKenzie, Secretary, Bro. McKillop, Thomas Smith, Edward Byrnes, D. J. O'Reilly and Alexander McDonald. Her son Henry arrived home Wednesday from United States to be present at the funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen McGuirk, wife of the late John McGuirk, took place yesterday morning from her late residence, 314 Richmond St., to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a High Mass Requiem was celebrated by the Rev. Father Plus McDonald and the services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. Father Maurice McDonald. The pall-bearers were as follows:—Thomas Fitzgerald, Michael Killroy, Henry Smith, Edward Byrnes, D. J. O'Reilly and Alexander McDonald. COLDS AND CATARRH.

YIELD TO ZAM-BUK.

If you suffer from catarrh or cold in the head, just insert a little Zam-Buk at the base of the nostril, and as the balm becomes warm inhale the healing essence which vaporizes. You will be surprised how quickly this will give you ease.

For bad colds on the chest, rub the chest and between the shoulders with Zam-Buk at night.

Sores in the nostril, which are sometimes set up by catarrh, will yield to Zam-Buk treatment.

Mrs. N. S. Babcock, of Matawatach-an, Ont., says: "For a long time I had a very disagreeable sore on the inside of the nostril, which gave me great pain and caused much annoyance. I feared it would turn to cancer, and all I tried proved unavailing. I was ordered to try Zam-Buk, and I am glad to say that the sore that defied all other remedies was overcome by one box of Zam-Buk and is now quite healed."

Zam-Buk will also be found a sure cure for colds, chapped hands, frost bite, ulcers, eczema, blood-poison, piles, cuts, and skin injuries generally. All druggists and stores 50c. box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto.

At the home of the officiating minister, Rev. A. N. Simpson, 622 Maryland Street, on Wednesday, November 29, at 8.30 p. m., Percy Pope Mills, son of Henry Pope Mills, Charlottetown, P. E. Island, was united in marriage to Miss Emma Eliza Bert, daughter of William R. Bert, Peake's Station, P. E. Island. The wedding was a quiet one, and the contracting parties were unaccompanied. After congratulations, signing of the register and appropriate music, furnished by Prof. W. A. Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. Mills left for their home at 332 McDermott Avenue—Winnipeg, Telegram, Nov. 11.

The sad death at Upper Westmoreland on Tuesday last of Robert Oakes is deeply regretted by the community. The deceased who had been residing for the past twenty years in Butte, Mont., came home about two months ago and purchased a farm. He began to exhibit signs of mental trouble, especially in regard to the disposition of his farm which he sold and bought back several times. On Tuesday he was engaged in banking the house. After hauling a load of banking material after dinner, he took his horse to the barn, put away the animal and then committed suicide by hanging. His body was found ten minutes later by Robert Williams who came to the barn to put his horse in. The deceased was about 40 years of age. He leaves a widow, but no family.

A very quiet and impressive wedding took place on Nov. 8th at St. Ann's Church, Lot 65, when Miss Clara Clarkin, daughter of John and Mrs. Clarkin of Emyvale, became the bride of Eugene McIver, one of Hampton's most popular and progressive young farmers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Curran. The bride was charmingly attired in a suit of brown broad-cloth, with white picture hat and both parties were present. In the afternoon amidst showers of rice and confetti, the happy couple drove to their future home at Hampton, where their many friends wish them a long and prosperous voyage through life.

prayer that Montague Lodge may wield a great influence for good in the community.—Com.

—Earl Howatt, Tryon, formerly accountant to Summerside Branch of the Royal Bank of Canada. Lately on the staff of the branch of the same bank at Woodstock, N. B., has been transferred to Vancouver and left for that place on Saturday last.

—One of the highest tides of the season was seen at Summerside yesterday the water being level and in some cases covering the wharves. One place on the town wharf being about a foot under water while the tide came up level with the floor of the wharves. The high tide accompanied by the heavy seas making the wharf very unpleasant for those who had to use it.

During the past few months Lot 48 has several times been visited by death. The last to be called away is Miss Jane McLean, who died at the home of her only brother, Christopher McLean, at Hillsboro, November 1st. "Miss Janie," as she was familiarly called, was the daughter of the late Christopher McLean. She was born, and spent all her life, on the old homestead, where she died at the age of 64 years, after only one month's illness. She was one of the most familiar figures in the neighborhood and was one of the most welcome visitors among her neighbors. Her disposition was cheerful and buoyant and it was hard for anyone to be dull in her presence. At the same time she was very thoughtful of others, abounding in sympathy and love, and always ready to lend a helping hand, especially when there was sickness or sorrow. Now she is gone, and she will be greatly missed. Besides a large circle of relatives and friends, she leaves to mourn her loss, her only brother Christopher, to whom she was much attached, and three sisters, Margaret, Sarah and Bella, who tended her carefully during her last illness, all of whom are living at Hillsboro. The funeral took place on Tuesday, 3rd inst., and was very largely attended. Rev. Daniel McLean, cousin of the deceased, conducted the services both at the house and at the grave. The body was interred at the cemetery, Wright being the undertaker. During her illness she was most tenderly cared for by her brother and her sisters, all of whom were unregarding in their ministrations, and with whom there is the deepest and most widespread sympathy.

—The inclemency of the weather on Friday, Nov. 11th, did not prevent the meeting together of the friends and neighbors of Duncan and Mrs. Cole, Fountain Road, to show their appreciation of them as good citizens, and to extend to them their best wishes for a long and happy life in his new residence which he has just completed and now occupies and which, to say the least, reflects much credit on the surroundings. The evening passed altogether too quickly, until the hour for supper was announced, each and every one partaking of the good cheer and friendship, prepared by the ladies present. The following address, read by Capt. D. Sutherland of Stanley Bridge, and accompanied with a nice Morris chair was then presented to Mr. and Mrs. Cole:—

To Mr. and Mrs. Cole: We, your friends and neighbors, after first asking your pardon for invading the privacy of your home, wish to extend to you our hearty congratulations upon the completion of your new and beautiful residence, which is most creditable, both in design and execution, and in token of our high appreciation of you as good citizens and neighbors, we present you with this small token of esteem coupled with our best wishes that you and yours may long be spared to enjoy the comforts and conveniences that are afforded you in your magnificent new residence—the product of your thrift and industry. Signed in behalf of all present, Daniel Sutherland, Wm. Campbell, A. J. Corbett, Norman Nicholson, Geo. M. McKay, Andrew McKay.

The singing of "For He's A Jolly Good Fellow" and other selections, together with some remarks by those present, occupied the remainder of the evening. The singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and "God Save the King," brought to a close a most pleasant evening spent by the friends and neighbors of Fountain Mills.

A hearty reception was given Miss Louise Maud Montgomery, author of "Anne of Green Gables," "Anne of Avonlea," and "Kimberly of the Orchard," in the parlors of the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Main and Hermon streets, yesterday afternoon.

Rev. McLeod Harvey, pastor of the church, gave an address of welcome, after which Mrs. J. M. Rivendler gave piano selections.

James E. Coulson, formerly president of the Maritime province association, which had charge of the reception, then made a few remarks in which he said:—"In the past, this association has been honored with the presence of many noted provincialists of various ranks in life; but not till this afternoon have we been so specially honored as to have with us a real authoress—yes, the authoress of books that have pleased and delighted millions of people, acquiring a circulation second to none in the whole realm of recent fiction."

"Miss Montgomery's phenomenal literary success is cause for the highest esteem on the part of her provincial friends. We welcome her to the heart of the commonwealth, where she is by no means a stranger, and we wish her godspeed in her noble mission of enlightening hearts and brightening homes. On the return to her island home we wish her bon voyage."

Miss Laura Lohner then gave a reading. Mr. Wyman complimented Miss Montgomery upon her work.

Miss Montgomery charmingly responded. Miss Lillian Armour presented her a bouquet of asters from the Maritime provinces association and from the girls club of the church which assisted in entertaining her.

Miss Montgomery arrived in Worcester on the 2.30 o'clock train from Boston, where Saturday she had been the guest of the Boston authors club at a reception given in her honor.

Mrs. McLeod Harvey and James B. Coulson and daughter, Miss Almira, met her at the station and escorted her to the church in a roundabout way in an automobile furnished by C. A. Middlemas, in order that Miss Montgomery could get a glimpse of Worcester.

On the 5 o'clock train she went to Boston, where she was the guest at another reception given in her honor by the Intercolonial club, last night.—Worcester Telegram, Nov. 15.
