

O'LEARY AND VICINITY

The Community Hall in Coleman is being shingled and when all repairs are completed will be in splendid condition.

Mrs. Boylan, aged and beloved resident of West Devon left on Friday for McAdam, N.B. where she will spend the winter, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. McArthur who accompanied her to McAdam.

Mr. Allan Matthews of O'Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews, fell at the O'Leary branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia has received his transfer to Truro, N.S. and will be leaving shortly to assume his new duties. He has always been very obliging and conscientious and his many friends wish him every success in his new position.

Mr. Ross Strang and Mr. J.M. MacWilliams of O'Leary attended the special service on Sunday night at the Cape Wolfe United Church and they received a great welcome from the congregation. They were guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Collett, along with Mrs. Alice Turner of O'Leary, proprietress of the O'Leary Nursing Home, and Miss Ina Phillips of Knutsford who was the special soloist and Rev. W.G. Dickson who was the special speaker. Mr. Strang's and Mrs. Collett's mother, a dear old lady of ninety years of age resides in the home and the guests were delighted to see her again. She has good eyesight and hearing and a wonderful memory and until she had a bad fall about a year ago was able to get about. She takes a great interest in community happenings and church activities and the guests all wished her God's richest blessing in the sunset and evening star period of her life.

Rev. W.G. Dickson of the O'Leary United Church was the special speaker at the Cape Wolfe United Church on Sunday night, Nov. 28th, the occasion being the annual Thanksgiving service of the Women's Missionary Society. Despite the very high and piercing winds, there was a splendid congregation, and the visiting Minister was heard in an inspiring sermon and the choir had special solo by Miss Ina Phillips, teacher at Knutsford. Rev. Mr. Dickson complimented the congregation on the splendid condition of their beautiful church, which has been entirely renovated this past summer. The ceiling is painted, the pews are varnished, and the church is now one of the finest rural churches in the province. There was a splendid offering for the Women's Missionary Society. The regular minister of the Cape Wolfe church, Rev. Blair Colborne exchanged with Rev. Mr. Dickson and was the speaker at the Bloomfield United Church in the evening where he was heard to advantage by a large congregation.

A most enjoyable concert was held in the Baltic school House Tuesday evening, Nov. 30. Sponsored by the Baltic Women's Institute, Mr. W. H. Burns capably acted as chairman and in a jovial and witty manner introduced and elaborated the artists as they appeared on the program. The following was the program: Instrumental music - Joyce Campbell (soprano), Brian Campbell (tenor), Reading - Mrs. Bruce Crozier (soprano), Solo - Miss Etta Mountain (soprano), Reading - George Riley (soprano), One Act Play - Tea For One - Members of W. I. Instrumental music - Carl Crozier and Lloyd Holmes, (soprano), Intermission and sale of candy, Instrumental music - Misses Harriet and Joyce Campbell (soprano), Monologue - Mrs. David Cousins, Solo - Rev. Jas. Cross (soprano). Next to appear on the stage all nicely crated a 32 lb live turkey. The drawing for the lucky winner followed. Mr. Thane Adams Sea View was called to come up to the platform to draw the lucky ticket. When the ticket was drawn the chairman announced Mr. Archibald McDonald Jr. the lucky winner of the turkey "ate and all". The President of W. I., Mrs. Earl Matthews thanked all for their presence and kind attention and all who helped to make the evening's performance so successful and profitable. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very successful evening.

Misses Marion MacPhee and Miss Fernie Oulton who are employed in Summerside spent the weekend at their homes in the Brae.

Miss Marjorie Dunville, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dunville, O'Leary, has come to St. John's N.B. where she has secured employment.

Miss Pearl Dunville, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dunville, O'Leary, has been confined to her home for the past several days with a very severe case of congestion. Her many friends wish her a speedy recovery.

At the Sunday morning service in the West Devon United Church on Nov. 28th, Rev. W.G. Dickson baptized the infant daughter, Martha Alfreda of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Boylan who was born in Alberton on Oct. 23rd, 1943.

Mr. John Field, manager of the O'Leary Branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia for the past year has received his transfer to the New Richmond N.B. branch of the Bank and will be leaving shortly to assume his new duties. His many friends will wish him and Mrs. Field and their little daughter, Betty, every success in their new sphere of service. His successor will be Mr. David Holland.

The Knutsford Women's Institute celebrated their twentieth anniversary on Friday, Nov. 26th and they had a special celebration with a banquet, addresses, films etc. Memorial flowers were presented in memory of those who departed this life during the past twenty years and they were presented to the Knutsford Baptist Church at the morning service on Sunday, Nov. 28th and at afternoon and the ministers read the following notice: "This bouquet is presented by the Knutsford Women's Institute in memory of departed loved ones: - Mrs. Robert Harris, Mrs. Thomas R. Harris, Mrs. William Meigs, Mrs. John Yeo, Mrs. Addison Barker, Mrs. William Silliker, Mrs. Anthony Williams.

"We often think of days gone by, when we were all together. A shadow over our lives has cast our loved ones gone forever. The years may wipe out many things, but this they wipe out never. The memory of those happy days, which we have spent together."

A very fine social evening was held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton MacLean in West Devon when the Women's Institute of West Devon made a presentation of a sum of money to the last returning soldier of the West Devon community in the person of Leslie Chisholm, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Chisholm of West Devon. Mrs. Eric McNeil read a nicely worded address and Mrs. J.A. Grigg presented the guest of honor with a purse of money. He thanked his friends in a few well chosen words after which a social hour was enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. Chisholm served overseas and married a Dutch girl, who is still in Holland, but hopes to come to Canada in the not too distant future. They lost a little child in Holland. He came back to Canada about a year ago but has been a patient in the Charlottetown Hospital for some considerable time. His many friends are delighted to see him back and hope that there will soon be a decided improvement in his health. Mr. Chisholm is the last of twenty-four boys and one girl from the West Devon district who served in World War Two to come home. This is a splendid record from the small community of West Devon. The active and live-wire organization, the Women's Institute, presented them all with gifts when they enlisted and when they returned.

Of the twenty-five, two paid the supreme sacrifice in World War Two. Ernest Trednick who gave his life at the early age of nineteen years and who is a brother of Mrs. John Matthews of O'Leary and Lloyd Leaman. Truly "Greater Love has no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends".
