

ARRIVED SAFELY.—Considerable uneasiness was felt about the city for the safety of Hedley Weeks and his engineer Victor Nelson who left on Thursday afternoon in a large motor boat with a cargo of molasses for Montague. It was reported they were in distress off White Sands and no word was received from them until Friday night when a message was received that they had made port.

WEDDING BELLS.—On Wednesday, August 24th, in Kensington, William Gunn and Margaret Stewart Adams of Grandville were united in the bonds of Holy Matrimony by the Rev. Fred Williamson. The ceremony which was quietly conducted, was attended only by immediate relatives of the couple, who were supported by Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Morrison. The principals afterwards left for their home, and their many friends wish them length of married life and much happiness.

The death occurred, very suddenly, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Koughan, 52 Weymouth St. City, on Friday, August 25, of Mrs. Susanna McWade, widow of the late James J. McWade, of St. Teresas, P. E. Island. The deceased lady, who was in her seventy-first, (71st) year, was in her usual health and able to be around as was her custom, up till the time of her death. After having assisted with the household duties on Friday afternoon she retired to her room, where she was found a few minutes later in a dying condition. Rev. Mgr. Maurice McDonald was hastily summoned, and administered the last Sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church. Medical aid was also called in, but God had claimed her soul for His own.

The late Mrs. McWade, who was a daughter of the late James and Ann Mullin of Hermitage, Lot 49, is survived by her family of three daughters and seven sons: Nellie, of Lynn, Mass.; Mrs. Thomas Koughan and Annie of Charlottetown; John, Michael, Frank, Andrew and Joachim, Dorchester, Mass.; George, Bangor, Maine; and Thomas, Nevada. One daughter and five sons having hastened from their homes in the United States to be present at the funeral. There are also left to mourn three sisters and three brothers: Mrs. Mary Connolly, Pease Station; Mrs. Mary Isabella Doyle, Earncliffe; Sarah J. Bellingham, Wash.; Patrick, Hermitage; John, Bellingham, Wash.; and James in western U. S. A.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place on Tuesday morning, Aug. 30, from St. Teresas church, where the funeral mass and the services at the grave were conducted by her former pastor, Rev. I. R. A. MacDonald. The pallbearers were her five sons: John, Michael, George, Andrew and Joachim, and Mr. Owen McQuaid. The following Spiritual and Floral offerings were received:

TUESDAY

WEDDING BELLS.—A quiet wedding took place in Charlottetown, Sept. 9th, when Miss Catherine Cameron of New Haven, became the bride of William W. Gass, of New Wiltshire. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. M. Lamont, Minister of the Church of Scotland. They were unattended. After the ceremony the happy young couple left on a honeymoon trip through Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, after which they will reside in Somerville, Mass., where the groom holds a lucrative position with the Thompson & Morris Co. Mr. and Mrs. Gass have a host of friends in this Province, who wish them a pleasant journey through life. The Guardian joins in congratulations.

WEDDING BELLS.—A pretty wedding took place at Boston, Mass., Wednesday, Sept. 7th, when Miss Katherine MacPherson of Cambridge, Mass., became the bride of Mr. John A. MacKinnon of the same place. Rev. Robert Watson of the First Presbyterian Church, Boston, performed the ceremony. Miss Isabel MacKinnon, sister of the groom, attended the bride, while the groom was supported by Mr. Malcolm MacPherson, brother of the bride. Mrs. MacKinnon formerly belonged to Dun-das, P. E. I. Mr. MacKinnon is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. MacKinnon, Canoe Cove, P. E. I. The happy couple left on a short trip to New York, after which they will make their home in Cambridge, Mass.

WINS PRIZE.—Mrs. J. O. Hyndman wins "Mercury Mills" hole in two competition. The Mercury Mills of Hamilton, Ont., one of Canada's foremost manufacturers of silk hosiery and silk lingerie some time ago established a competition open to all lady members of golf clubs through Canada. The competition calls for the making of any hole of 140 yards or over in two strokes. The prize is a valuable selection from the company's products. This prize has been won by Charlottetown ladies on two occasions previously and the Guardian now congratulates Mrs. Hyndman on winning this valuable award which was presented yesterday through Messrs. Moore & McLeod, Limited.

MacLEAN-MacDONALD.—St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, St. John, N. B., was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding on August 31st, 1927, when Jean Belle MacLean became the bride of Benjamin Earle MacDonald, both of Charlottetown, P. E. I. The bride was prettily attired in a gown of white georgette with hat and shoes to match. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. MacN. Matthews. After the ceremony the bride and groom left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritime Provinces. The wedding presents consisted of silver, cut glass, cheques, china, and linen, including a dining-room suite from DeBlois Brothers and a silver tea service from MacLean & Co.

The death at Georgetown Royalty on August 18th of George A. Parker at the advanced age of 80 years removed a highly respected citizen of that community. The deceased came to Georgetown Royalty when a young man and spent the remainder of a long and useful life in that community. His honest, temperance, and industry all combined to make a sterling character respected by all who knew him.

He was a life-long member of St. David's Presbyterian Church, Georgetown and for many years was an elder. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Pierce from the Church on Saturday, August 20th.

He leaves to mourn their loss, besides his widow, six children on the homestead, George H. in Knicht, Georgetown, Mrs. John Aitken, Lower Montague and Wallace in Portland, Oregon.

The Charlottetown Board of Trade has received a telegram that the Right Hon. Sir Halford MacKinnon, P. C. chairman of the Imperial Economic Committee and of the Imperial Shipping Committee has accepted the invitation of the Board to visit Charlottetown.

Sir Halford, who is at present in Newfoundland will arrive in the city on the S. S. Hochelaga on Friday next and will be a guest of the Board at luncheon at the Victoria Hotel after which he will be shown about the city and other nearby points.

In the evening he will address the members of the Board and other interested, probably in the Legislative Assembly Chamber. In his address Sir Halford will explain the work of the Imperial Economic Committee and in his meetings with prominent business men of this Province will seek to promote inter-Empire trade.

St. Dunstan's Cathedral was the scene of a very pretty wedding yesterday morning at 8 o'clock when Martina Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Monaghan of St. Neil, became the bride of Mr. Neil Alexander Nolan of Boston, Mass.

The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. Gavran Monaghan, assisted by Rev. Gavran Monaghan, D. D., Professor of Philosophy at St. Dunstan's University, brothers of the bride, the former celebrating the Nuptial Mass. During the service appropriate hymns were rendered by the ladies choir of St. Dunstan's Cathedral, of which the bride was a valued member, under the direction of Mr. W. J. Brown.

The bride was prettily gowned in a Parisian white georgette with bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid, Miss Vivien McGuigan was becomingly attired in a Parisian gown of yellow georgette with a yellow picture hat and carried a bouquet of yellow tea roses.

FRESH CLEAN KING COLE TEA Sweet as the mountain air and as exhilarating in its freshness as your cup of King Cole Tea. Each air-proof metal-foil package is full of quality.

WON AT ST. JOHN EXHIBITION.—The following winnings were made by the Jerseys of Mr. J. B. McIntyre, P. P., Tracadia, and Edgar Easter at the St. John Exhibition: Bull 3 years old, 1st; bull, senior calf, 2nd; bull, junior calf, 1st and Junior Champion cow, 4 years old in milk, 3rd; cow 4 years old, dry, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd; cow 3 years old, dry, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd; heifer, senior yearling, 1st and 3rd; heifer, senior calf 1st and 3rd; young herd, 1st; Get of Sire, 2nd and 3rd; Produce of Cow, 2nd; R. O. P. cow over 5 years, 1st, 2nd and 3rd; R. O. P. cow, under 4 years, 2nd and 3rd.

MADE GOOD SHOWING.—Messrs. Horne Bros. of Winsloe returned Saturday night from St. John, N. B., after attending the exhibition at Three Rivers and Sherbrooke in Quebec and St. John, N. B. At Three Rivers they won a silver cup for the best exhibit of beef cattle at the fair. They also did equally well with their fine string of show horses. At Sherbrooke they met such exhibitors as Miss Vican who owns the best stable of show horses in Canada. At St. John they only lost one first and one second prize with good competition. Messrs. Horne Bros. will show at Charlottetown also at Amherst in November.

WEDNESDAY

SUDDEN DEATH.—Many will be shocked to learn of the sudden death last night about eight o'clock of Mrs. Sarah E. Squarebriggs at her home 199 Kent St. Funeral notice will appear later.

USEFUL PREMIUMS are now being offered by the Guardian. "Lady's Shopping Bag" or Auto Strop Razor and Utility Knife free and post paid to any address in Canada. Send in your yearly subscription today and get your choice.

APPRECIATED.—We have received more letters than satisfied subscribers over our list of premiums than any yet. These premiums will be given, while they last, free of cost and post paid to every subscriber sending in his subscription to The Guardian. Don't delay. Act now.

WON SILVER CUP.—Messrs. Horne Brothers of Winsloe returned Saturday night from St. John, N. B., after attending the exhibition at Three Rivers and Sherbrooke in Quebec and St. John, N. B. At Three Rivers they won a silver cup for the best exhibit of beef cattle at the fair. They also did equally well with their fine string of show horses. At Sherbrooke they met such exhibitors as Miss Vican, who owns the best stable of show horses in Canada. At St. John they only lost one first and one second prize with good competition. Messrs. Horne Brothers will show at Charlottetown also at Amherst in November.

CIVIL SERVICE.—Among the list of permanent Civil Service appointments, gazetted appears the following: Permanent—Agriculture—John C. Jack, Animal Nutritionist and Physiologist, Summerside. In the eligible list, issued by the Civil Service Commission appears the following: Junior Fruit and Vegetable Inspector, Prince Edward Island, Department of Agriculture, Fruit Branch:—Mrs. Winifred Douglas, Mt. Stewart, P. E. I.; John Coyle, Charlottetown; P. E. I.; J. Whalrod, Harrington, P. E. I.; William F. P. Bradley, Charlottetown, P. E. I.; James Edmund Flynn, Gardigan, P. E. I.; Garfield MacEachern, Cove Head Road, P. E. I. GOODE.—At the Coronation Hospital, Alta., to Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Goode (nee Lauretta E. Coffin) on August 18, 1927, a son, Edward Preston.

Bringing Up Father

MAGGIE WON'T LET ME OUT AN I PROMISED DINTY I'D MEET HIM IN THAT SPAGHETTI JOINT ON THE GRAND CANAL!

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.—The funeral of the late John Coady was held yesterday morning from his late residence, 57 Dorchester St., to St. Dunstan's Cathedral, where a Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. D. Croken. The pall bearers were: Messrs. Patrick Keenan, John McKenna, D. J. Riley, James Hennessy, John Murnaghan, and John Cronin. Service at the grave was conducted by Rev. Father McCarthy.

WEDDING BELLS.—Coady-McIntyre.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Joachim's Church, Vernon River on Wednesday, August 24th, when Miss Margaret Coady, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Coady, Mill View, became the bride of Mr. Alphonso McIntyre, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McIntyre, Milloove.

The bride was becomingly attired in a delicate tin with silver trimming, and black picture hat, and carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas and maiden hair fern, she was attended by her sister, Miss Irene Coady, who wore peach satin and hat to match, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Stephen McDougall. After the ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. P. D. McGuigan, the happy couple motored to the home of the bride's parents, where dinner was served to about fifty invited guests, including Rev. P. D. McGuigan. The house was artistically decorated with flowers in pink and white effect.

The numerous gifts received were valuable and useful, including old, dry, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd; cow 3 years old, dry, 1st, 2nd, and 3rd; heifer, senior yearling, 1st and 3rd; heifer, senior calf 1st and 3rd; young herd, 1st; Get of Sire, 2nd and 3rd; Produce of Cow, 2nd; R. O. P. cow over 5 years, 1st, 2nd and 3rd; R. O. P. cow, under 4 years, 2nd and 3rd.

THURSDAY MARGE DIRECT WINS AT ST. STEPHEN.—Dr. Chas. Dougan received a telegram last evening from St. Stephen, N. B., stating that Marge Direct had won the 230 class in straight heats. Congratulations.

WELCOME VISITOR.—His old parishioners and a multitude of old friends here have been delighted to see Rev. J. C. MacLean, Vicar General for the District of Charlottetown, who paid Summerside a visit on his return last week from a vacation spot of Cape Breton, and other points of interest and beauty in the Scotia. He was accompanied on the enjoyable motor trip by Rev. J. J. MacDonald, of Summerside, and Rev. K. C. McPherson, of St. Margaret's.

RETURN HOME.—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Muttart, with their daughter, Miss Ruth, and son Kenneth, returned home to Summerside on Monday night from an enjoyable motor tour, during which they visited, Toronto, Elmira, N. Y., Boston, Niagara Falls and other places of interest. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Chas. MacKenzie of Boston, who will spend some time visiting relations and friends at Summerside and Charlottetown.

COULD NOT REST OR SLEEP Rash on Arms, Neck and Face. Cuticura Heals. "I was troubled with an itching rash which broke out in blotches on my arms, neck and face. It itched and burned causing me to scratch, and scratching caused eruptions. My face was disfigured and I had to bandage my arms. I could not rest or sleep on account of the irritation. "A friend advised Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I sent for a free sample. I got relief at once so purchased more, and after using one cake of soap and part of a box of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Wava C. Carter, Junction Rd., Springfield, N. S., Aug. 30, 1926. Use Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum for daily toilet purposes. Sample Each Free by Mail. Address: Canadian Cuticura, Dept. 500, Talcum 25c. Cuticura Shaving Stick 25c.

HAPPY EVENT.—Tighish extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Mooney (nee Etta Kinch), Rumford, Me., on the arrival of a baby girl at their home recently.

RETURN TO COLLEGE.—Misses Valerie Arnett and Dorothy Monkey, Summerside left Tuesday morning to attend Mt. Allison Ladies' College, Sackville. Misses Evelyn Sinclair, Elizabeth Sinclair and Mr. Edward Arnett left Monday for Charlottetown where they will resume studies at Prince of Wales College.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—A telegram was received on Monday by Mrs. Herbert Clark, of Alberton, a niece of Dr. B. Hiram Champion, formerly of Summerside, and now one of the leading medical men in Vancouver, B. C., conveying the disquieting news that the doctor was in a very serious state of health following an operation there for appendicitis.

DEPARTURE REGRETTED.—The departure of Mr. M. J. A'Hearn from Tighish, to take up his abode in one of the great commercial centres of our south, has caused a great deal of regret on the part of his many friends here. Especially those of the Athletic Club and his colleagues of the "Tighish Senate." As host in the "Senate Chamber," our friend Jack has proven himself an ideal entertainer and his departure has been made doubly regrettable by the fact that it has brought about the much talked of "abolition of the Senate in Tighish." Prior to his departure Mr. A'Hearn was tendered a number of farewell receptions and presented with appropriate souvenirs from his friends here, who wish him success in his new surroundings.

LATE MR. J. CAMERON.—The sad death took place at his residence at Elmsdale at noon on Sunday of Mr. John Cameron, after a long illness at the early age of 41 years. The deceased, who was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cameron, was a well known, progressive and highly honored farmer of the district and his loss will be deeply felt in the community. He was a man of splendid character and remarkably fine physique and his untimely death, which occurred three days ago, when whilst plowing he was struck a violent blow in the stomach by the handle of the implement. There are left to mourn a sorrowing widow and one son, Max, at home, to whom the sincere sympathy of the community is extended. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Elliot officiating.

MACLEAN-MACLEOD.—Miss Catherine May MacLeod, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Alexander MacLeod, of Iris, was united in marriage to Mr. John Raymond MacLeod, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. MacLeod, of Iris. The wedding took place at the home of Mr. C. K. Martin on Tuesday evening, Sept. 6, at 7 p. m. The bride was attended by her cousin Miss Catherine F. MacLeod, and the groom by the Rev. Quinky A. McDowell officiated. Following the ceremony, the wedding dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James A. MacLeod. And immediately after the dinner the young people of the community surrounded the house and gave the young couple a lively serenade and as they presented themselves on the lawn, congratulations were offered them by their many friends.

CAPTAIN BREAKS SAILING RECORD.—Captain William Weston, master of the schooner Maud out of Richibucto, New Brunswick, who made such an exceptionally fast round trip between Richibucto and Summerside last year, excelled that record during the early part of September this year. Loaded with lumber he sailed the Maud Weston from Richibucto on September 7th, arrived at Summerside the same evening, discharged the cargo and awaiting the first favorable wind sailed to Newcastle Saturday, September 10th, docked at Newcastle Sunday evening and sailed again for Summerside on Tuesday afternoon, arriving in Summerside with another cargo of lumber on Wednesday noon, September 14th. In all the captain made a trip of more than 325 miles in exceptionally fast time and is looking forward to see some person try to equal that record.

The death of Mrs. Arthur Rose of North Sydney Cape Breton, beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Murphy Borden, occurred at Harbor View Hospital, Sydney Mines, August 30th after a very short illness. Her sudden death was quite a shock to her parents and friends.

The deceased leaves a sorrowing husband and five small children, David, Maurice, Annie, Edith and an infant one day old, besides a sorrowing mother and father, and six brothers and six sisters. The brothers are: Donald of Toronto; James of Texas; Fred of Saskatchewan; William; Bruce and John at home. The sisters are Mrs. Stephen Pike of Charlottetown, P. E. I.; Mrs. Eva Hillman of Boston, Mass.; Mrs.

We strongly condemn the practice of any driver of any auto, drinking intoxicating liquors even moderately while driving a car.

We also recommend that any person convicted of driving a car under the influence of liquor be deprived of the license to drive a car. We also recommend that the laws in regard to speeding both in town and country be more rigidly enforced and also that licenses be not given to drive cars without a thorough examination as to the applicant's ability to operate a car and a physical examination as to the applicant's vision and hearing; also that when said license is issued that it be carried at all times, on the person to whom it was issued, when driving a car.

P. J. MACCLOSKEY For Self and Others The above verdict of the jury in the inquest in connection with the death of little Everett Doucette which took place on Labor Day, was handed yesterday afternoon by the foreman to Coroner Houston after deliberating about three quarters of an hour on the evidence.

FRIDAY OLD THREE YEAR ACCIDENT PROVES FATAL.—John Cameron, 41, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cameron died at his home in Elmsdale on Sunday as the result of a violent blow in the stomach received three years ago when struck by the handle of a plough while turning at the end of a furrow. He leaves to mourn a widow and one son, Max, to whom the sympathy of the whole community has been extended. The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Elliot officiating.

RETURN FROM TORONTO.—Prof. H. A. Tanton and his niece Miss Ethel Coombs have arrived home from Toronto where they enjoyed a most pleasant visit. While in Toronto, Miss Coombs sang for Signor Carboni, Dr. David Dick Slater, and Dr. H. A. Fricker, Director of the Mendelssohn Choir, and grainer of the 200 voices that sang at the Toronto Exhibition. These noted musicians spoke in the highest terms of Miss Coombs' voice. During her stay in Toronto, Miss Coombs took lessons daily from Signor Carboni and hopes to return in the near future to resume the serious study of singing. Miss Coombs also sang at several very select musicals and received a most generous and enthusiastic applause, being obliged to respond to the various numbers.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION.—On Tuesday evening, Sept. 13th, Mr. and Mrs. Earle Ballem, Southport celebrated the fifth anniversary of their married life. The occasion was a most auspicious one. There were present the immediate relatives and some other invited guests. Mr. and Mrs. Ballem received many useful and appreciative gifts which they are heartily grateful for. The evening was very pleasantly spent in music and games, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. At about midnight after the singing of some appropriate songs concluded by "Auld Lang Syne" the company dispersed to their respective homes much pleased with the evening's entertainment and wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ballem many more happy years of wedded life.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

There passed away at Little Sands on Saturday evening, Aug. 27th after a few years of very poor health, Flora Munn, beloved wife of Mr. Daniel MacNeill. Born in Wood Islands 76 years ago, but her entire married life of nearly forty years was spent in Little Sands. She was a quiet, kind and inoffensive woman and one who enjoyed a large circle of friends. Besides her sorrowing husband, who is now left alone she leaves to mourn two brothers and four sisters, Magnus Munn, Stoughton, Mass.; Malcolm Munn, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Annie MacMellan, of Wood Islands; Mrs. Hamilton in the United States and Miss Sophia Munn in Little Sands. Her funeral on Monday afternoon was very largely attended. The service at the house and grave was taken by her pastor Rev. M. D. MacDonald, who spoke a most comforting message to the bereaved. She was laid to rest in the Little Sands Cemetery.

The safe way to assure spick and span Healthful Cleanliness is to use Old Dutch. Its unequalled quality makes it the sure and safe thing to use on porcelain and enamel surfaces. Made in Canada

MARRIAGES

MACLEOD-MURCHISON.—At East St. John on Sept. 6th, by the Rev. J. M. Murchison, the Rev. A. A. MacLeod of Charlottetown to Barbara Grace Murchison of Point Prim. (Patriot please copy.)

WARREN-HASLAM.—At Charlottetown, Sept. 10th, by the Rev. C. J. Johnson, Milton, P. E. I., assisted by the Rev. R. J. Bowen, Toronto, Garnet Marshall Warren French River to Mrs. Lenora Luella Haslam, Charlottetown.

MACLEOD-MURCHISON.—At East St. John on Sept. 6th, by the Rev. J. M. Murchison, the Rev. A. A. MacLeod of Charlottetown to Barbara Grace Murchison of Point Prim. (Patriot please copy.)

WARREN-HASLAM.—At Charlottetown, Sept. 10th, by the Rev. C. J. Johnson, Milton, P. E. I., assisted by the Rev. R. J. Bowen, Toronto, Garnet Marshall Warren French River to Mrs. Lenora Luella Haslam, Charlottetown.

MACLEOD-MURCHISON.—At East St. John on Sept. 6th, by the Rev. J. M. Murchison, the Rev. A. A. MacLeod of Charlottetown to Barbara Grace Murchison of Point Prim. (Patriot please copy.)

WARREN-HASLAM.—At Charlottetown, Sept. 10th, by the Rev. C. J. Johnson, Milton, P. E. I., assisted by the Rev. R. J. Bowen, Toronto, Garnet Marshall Warren French River to Mrs. Lenora Luella Haslam, Charlottetown.

MACLEOD-MURCHISON.—At East St. John on Sept. 6th, by the Rev. J. M. Murchison, the Rev. A. A. MacLeod of Charlottetown to Barbara Grace Murchison of Point Prim. (Patriot please copy.)

WARREN-HASLAM.—At Charlottetown, Sept. 10th, by the Rev. C. J. Johnson, Milton, P. E. I., assisted by the Rev. R. J. Bowen, Toronto, Garnet Marshall Warren French River to Mrs. Lenora Luella Haslam, Charlottetown.

MACLEOD-MURCHISON.—At East St. John on Sept. 6th, by the Rev. J. M. Murchison, the Rev. A. A. MacLeod of Charlottetown to Barbara Grace Murchison of Point Prim. (Patriot please copy.)

WARREN-HASLAM.—At Charlottetown, Sept. 10th, by the Rev. C. J. Johnson, Milton, P. E. I., assisted by the Rev. R. J. Bowen, Toronto, Garnet Marshall Warren French River to Mrs. Lenora Luella Haslam, Charlottetown.

Strike! HOW good one feels when the pins go flying right and left—and how specially good a bagful of luscious Planters tastes at such a moment. Planters SALTED PEANUTS "THE NICKEL LUNCH" —By George McManus

lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25

lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25

lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25

lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25

lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25

lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25

lumbago backache Quick relief comes as congestion goes Absorbine Jr. THE ANTISEPTIC LINIMENT At all Druggists $1.25