GERMAN SUB OFFICER AT NEW YORK THEATRE

NANTUCKET, Mass., Aug. 26.-A story indicating that an officer of one of the German submarines operating off the American coast, may have attended a New York theatre on the night of August 8, was disclosed today by the wife of a well known New York playwright and prominent member of the summer colony here. She was among those who rendered assistance to the fishermen brought to the island August 11 after a submarine had destroyed their vessels the previous day off Georges banks.

One of the fishermen, a member of the crew of the Lena A., told her, she said, he questioned by the German petty officer who boarded the schooner. During the conversation they talked of New York and the fisherman asked the German if he had ever been there. The officer, he said, smiled and took from his pocket two seat checks for a Broadway theatre dated "Thursday evening, August 8," two days before the attack on the fishing fleet.

In telling the incident today, the woman explained that in the excitement of the moment the story had slipped her mind until it was recalled to her by published despatches from Washington today that the raiders were believed to have landed men on these shores. Her story was corroborated by another prominent resident of the island who also interviewed the fisherman.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. MAJOR MCGREGOR

In the death of Mrs. Major McGregor or which took place on 12th day of August as the sun was setting in the west at her home in Unionvale the residents of this place lost one of its early pioneers at the age of 68 yrs. Her husband predeceased her 22 years ago and when they settled she chose Unionvale as their future home, woods abounded on all sides.

All that tender care and medical skill could do was of no avail. On the 18th day of June her daughter, now Mrs. Wm. Meggison of Berthamby returned home and diligently waited on her until the last. Besides Mrs. Meggison there is left to mourn of a kind and loving mother James, a prosperous farmer at home and Alonzo at O'Leary. The many floral offerings contributed gave evidence in which she was held in Unionvale and O'Leary besides a lovely floral sheaf from the family. Upwards of 100 teams attended the funeral which took place on the afternoon of the 14th inst, the services taking place at the home and interment at Springfield cemetery. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Mellick assisted by the Rev. Mr. Murray. The many acts of kindness and whole hearted generosity of Mrs. McGregor will be long remembered. We miss thee from our home mother We miss thee from thy place A shadow o'er our life is cast We miss thy kind and willing hand Thy fond and earnest love Our home is dark without thee We miss thee everywhere. 1097.

MRS. JOHN MCENTEE

The death took place at Auburn, on Tuesday, August 20th of Mary, relict of the late Mr. John McEntee.

The late Mrs. McEntee was in her 60th year; and her death at this comparatively early age is a source of much regret to many friends. She was in vigorous health until about a year ago, when she contracted a painful and fatal malady. Although she had the best medical attendance, and the gentle manifestations of devoted friends, there was not any possibility that her life could be prolonged.

The deceased lady was very highly esteemed. She had a very sympathetic heart; and she was ever ready to give help and comfort to those in need. She will, indeed, be greatly missed, not only in the home circle, but by all with whom she had intimate acquaintance. Her death was a fitting end to a good christian life, as she had the great privilege of receiving the sacred and consoling rites of the Church, not only during her last days on earth, but at different times during her long and painful illness.

The funeral was on Thursday morning to Fort Augustus, when a High Mass of requiem was sung by the pastor, the Rev. A. J. McDonald. Her remains were interred beside those of her husband who predeceased her several years. The pall bearers were Messrs. Patrick Callaghan, John Simpson, Edward Laverty, John Garland, James Quinn and John McCarson. Sympathy is extended to her son in his irreparable loss; also to her brother, sister, and other relatives in their great bereavement. May her soul rest in peace.

MRS. JOHN A. DINGWELL

The death of Mrs. John A. Dingwell at her home at Bay Fortune, on the 9th day of August inst, removes another time honoured land mark. Her husband who was for many years Registrar of Deeds for this province predeceased her about thirteen years. Mrs. Dingwell, although approaching ninety years of age, ruled her household up to within a few weeks of her death, with that unassuming firmness and judgment which always commands respect and obedience. Strictly honest and just in all her dealings, kind and considerate towards the wants and troubles of those around her, giving little heed to the demands of custom of fashion, but unwavering in the discharge of those duties which she conceived to be right. Strongly attached to her home from which she was seldom absent and which was ever open to the stranger and the way farer it is felt that her death removes a true Mother in Israel. She is survived by one brother Daniel Burke of Rollo Bay and one sister Mrs. Duncan Smith of Boston, and three adopted children, John Alexander, Minnie and Mabel Iris, all of whom take the name of Dingwell and who at her death according to the will of the late John A. Dingwell, succeed to the fine property, formerly occupied by him, fronting on the beautiful and historic river on Bay Fortune. After an appropriate and impressive service at the house on the 11th conducted by her pastor Revd A. McKay her remains were followed to the cemetery at Bay Fortune Church by a large concourse of sympathizing friends.

MRS. MALCOLM P. MURCHISON

At the home of her son Daniel Murchison, Mt. Buchannan, Catherine McPherson, widow of the late Malcolm P. Murchison passed away peacefully and gently to her eternal rest on the morning of July 18th aged 76 years after a long illness, which she bore with patience, that was remarkable. Eighteen years ago she was stricken with sciatic rheumatism being bedfast a greater part of that time and although suffering intensely was always cheerful and happy. ready to meet the many friends who called to see her during her illness with a cheery smile and hearty welcome content to await the Master's summons "Come home thou faithful of the Lord." and when the call came she was found ready and willing to go knowing that He who stood by her during her many years of affliction would bring her safely through the dark river of death. She slept quietly as a little child with a smile on her lips. She leaves two sons and five daughters who will long continue to mourn a kind and loving mother. Daniel and Mrs. Wm. McDonald in the home who tenderly cared for their mother and tried to make her life as pleasant as possible during her affliction. Mrs. Simon A. Murchison, Phinette; Tena, Mrs. Norman Stewart and Mrs. Malcolm McDonald, San Francisco; Archibald of British Columbia.

The funeral service was conducted at the home grave by the Rev. J. W. McKenzie, Lauchlin McPherson of Lyndale is brother of the deceased. (Other papers please copy.)
