COMEDY SCREEN SNAKSHOTS CARTOON

Romance Rums Riot In "Let's Get Married"

Mark TWAIN once remarked: "Everyone complains about the weather, but nobody does anything about it."

He argued that "tax avoidance by the rich or people of moderate means knows no party lines."

He said that money paid to the Philadelphia committee under terms of Mrs. Roosevelt's radio contract was earned by her "as much as money ever was earned by anybody."

NEW YORK, July 11 (AP) — Clipping 2:10th second of the world half mile record, Eloy Robinson, of San Francisco, today stole the show from an imposing array of United States track and field champions.

Pittsburgh's John Woodruff failed in his first major mile test as Glenn Cunningham races around back Archie San Romani of the Emporia, Kansas, teachers in a torrid mile duel.

Cunningham's time of 4:14 failed by nearly five seconds to
