Double Drowning Tragedy Yesterday

TRANS-ATLANTIC FLIER UNINJURED IN SMASHUP

Brothers Victims Of Fatality When Boat Capsizes

Harold & Basil Redmond Drowned In Lake Verde Yesterday Afternoon. Companions Saved.

Harold Redmond, 13, and a brother, Basil, 9, sons of Joseph Redmond, were drowned yesterday in Lake Verde when a boat in which they were rowing, capsized more than a hundred yards from shore. Two companions, Lawson Cole, 10, and Bobby Power, 11, narrowly escaped similar fate.

The young boys were rowing near the middle of the lake, when the boat, which sprang a leak, overturned throwing them into the water. Three of the boys grabbed Dawson Cole, the only swimmer of the party, but the Redmond brothers sank together clutching pieces of his clothing which they tore from his back while trying to cling to his struggling form.

Cole managed to drag Bobby Power to the boat which was floating wrong-side-up and hold him there until Joseph Redmond, father of the drowned youths, reached them on a makeshift raft.

The accident occurred at 3:30 and the bodies were recovered an hour and a half later in seven feet of water.

Coroner Dr. J. D. MacGuigan, who with the R.C.M.P. investigated the accident, decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

MEMORIAL SERVICES YESTERDAY

Annual Cemetery Services Of St. Dunstan's and Holy Redeemer Parishes.

The annual cemetery service of St. Dunstan's Basilica and the Holy Redeemer parishes took place yesterday in the Catholic Cemetery, His Excellency, the Bishop of Charlottetown presided, and offered prayers for all the faithful departed. He was assisted by Rev. Dr. McMahon and Rev. Louis A. Dougan. The other clergy present were Rev. Father McCardie, Rev. Father Keefe and Rev. Father Dalton.

The Men's Choir of the Basilica, under the direction of W. J. Brown rendered the singing.

A large number were present at the sacred service.

Rev. Dr. McMahon, who preached the sermon, took his text from the 2nd Book of Maccabees: "It is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead." He referred in touching terms to the sad memories which this annual commemorative service stirs up in the minds of all who have friends or relatives buried in this cemetery. He reminded the vast congregation that, although death is inevitable, still the Church's doctrine of the Communion of Saints brings an abiding consolation to those who are left to mourn.

The Catholic doctrine of purgatory, the speaker declared, rests on

Harrowing Flight Ends In Ireland

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) BALLINROBE, County Mayo, Irish Free State, Sept. 22.—The trans-Atlantic solo flight of Felix Watkus, 28-year-old Wisconsin aviator, ended today in a smashup in a rough field but the flier himself was uninjured.

Fog bound and buffeted by storms blew the Irish coast. Watkus, who had hoped to fly nonstop from New York to Kaunas, Lithuania, brought his white and orange plane down in a hazardous landing.

Bouncing across the uneven field, the machine struck a tree and was badly damaged. But Watkus, whom frantic villagers expected to find dead, climbed out of the wreckage without a scratch.

"I had been flying blind for a long time," he asserted. "I had bad visibility all over the Atlantic and when I reached the coast I ran into storms and fog."

"I tried at first to make Baldonnel airdrome near Dublin and then headed for the Ballinrobe Airdrome but I couldn't find it."

"I was delighted to see land for I was feeling very tired and my stock of gasoline was getting a bit low."

Watkus' plane had been sighted over Headford, County Galway, on the west coast of the Irish Free State, about half an hour before the crash, which occurred at 10 A. M. (S. A. M. E.D.T.).

Unhurt but stiff after his harrowing trip over the sea, the Kohler, Wisconsin, aviator crawled from the plane and after testing his legs, was taken to a Ballinrobe hotel, where he went to bed.

Despite the bad weather, Watkus made good time for the trans-Atlantic crossing. He had been in the air less than 22 hours when coast guardsmen at Headford saw his plane.

Watkus took off from Floyd Bennett Field, New York, at 6:45 A. M. E.D.T. Saturday.

The flight was planned primarily to commemorate the flight of Stephen Darius and Stanley Girenas.

COMPLETE PLAN TO AID DAIRY PRODUCERS

Department of Agriculture Makes Public Details Of Butter Export Scheme.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—The Department of Agriculture last night made public details of a scheme by which it hopes to aid Canadian dairymen through control of exports in dairy butter mainly to the United Kingdom, and to prevent possible glut of domestic holdings.

The scheme, known as the "butter export stabilization scheme," is similar in many ways to projects under the Dominion Marketing Act for regulating marketing of other products.

It constitutes a butter export marketing board of three dairy officials empowered to do these things:

1. Regulate the time and place at which to designate the agency or agencies through which the regulated product shall be marketed.
2. Determine the manner of distribution and the quantity, quality, grade or class of the product that shall be marketed by any person at any time.
3. Prohibit marketing of any of the product of any grade, quality or class.
4. Compensate any person for loss sustained by forwarding to a specified market any of the product pursuant to an order of the local board.
5. Require full information relating to marketing of the product from all persons engaged therein and to require periodic returns to be made by such persons and for the purpose of the scheme to inspect the books and premises of such persons.
6. Appoint an advisory committee to advise in the direction of marketing of the product.
7. Issue such orders or determinations as may be deemed necessary to attain the purpose of the scheme and to revoke and amend the same.
8. Determine the kind, form and terms of any document or documents that shall be submitted as evidence of the shipment for export of the regulated product.

In recent years the handling of Canada's surplus butter supply has been a considerable problem. With a high protection on butter in the Canadian tariff domestic prices tend to be higher than world prices.

Accordingly when a surplus piles up either the domestic prices break below world prices or the export.

Reveals Red Plot Behind Relief Strikes

Need Of Government's Firm Stand For Law And Order Stressed By Prime Minister.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) VICTORIA, Sept. 22.—Behind the recent march on Ottawa of relief camp strikers and sympathizers lay a plan to hold the Prime Minister of Canada as a hostage while a Soviet government was established in the Dominion, Premier Bennett revealed in a address here.

This, he said Saturday night, had been learned by the government, which he declared, stood for law and order, liberty and freedom, but not for license. When men tried to overthrow constituted authority by force, they must be stopped.

The Premier lashed out at the Communists of Moscow and "their emissaries here." He declared his party would never surrender to any lawless organization to secure votes.

"Fledgling his government to the maintenance of law and order in Canada, Mr. Bennett declared "Canadians will never tolerate interference from the outside," and that section 98 of the Criminal Code would not be repealed by his government.

At a mass meeting in a local theatre Mr. Bennett was prompted to deal with Communism and his relief camps, Tim Buek and his

Bessboroughs To Depart On Thursday

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Pausing in the strenuous election campaign Ottawa this week will bid farewell to the Earl and Countess of Bessborough. Since their arrival here early in 1931, Their Excellencies have endeared themselves to the people of this city and the country. They leave Ottawa Thursday and in the meantime the goodwill which they take back with them to England will be expressed in many ways.

A government dinner will be held Wednesday night presided over by Sir George Perley in the absence of Premier Bennett. On this occasion the address passed unanimously by both Houses of Parliament at the last session will be presented. It expressed the appreciation of the Dominion to the King's representative and Lady Bessborough.

Tomorrow Their Excellencies will be the guests at a reception given by the Women's Canadian Club and Tuesday morning the women of Canada through Lady Perley will present their farewell gift to the Countess of Bessborough, a Canadian produced solid gold urn.

Armed Men Hold Up Bank In Ontario

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) KINGSTON, Ont., Sept. 22.—Two armed men held up the teller and other employees of the Bank of Nova Scotia at Harrowsmith 20 miles north of here, and escaped with about $1,000 yesterday.

The robbery occurred just before noon closing. Provincial and city police called to the scene, found the car in which the bandits escaped, overturned in the ditch a few miles from the village.

J. Hamilton, manager of the bank, fired three shots at the fleeing car, believed to have been stolen, but it was not believed any of the shots took effect.

Mussolini To Submit Counter Proposals Seeking Territorial Gains And Disarmament Of Ethiopia. Determined On Military Campaign.

(By Andree Berding, Associated Press Foreign Staff) (A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

ROME, Sept. 22.—Italy is willing to discuss compromise measures on a different basis from that offered by the League of Nations committee of five, but she is determined on a military campaign in Ethiopia, official commentators said tonight.

It is only by such a campaign that Ethiopia can be eliminated as a danger, these persons said.

They explained that Italy would do everything in her power to avoid a clash with Great Britain and would, if possible, localize the conflict in Ethiopia.

There was much optimism today following yesterday's cabinet meeting and assurances credited to Sir Eric Drummond, the British Ambassador, to the effect that British warships are in the Mediterranean only for the purpose of defence.

Protest Unnecessary

It was stated Sir Eric's formal assurances would make unnecessary an Italian protest to the League of Nations Council concerning the ship movements.

The cabinet's rejection Saturday of the Geneva peace plan, a government spokesman said, "left the door open" for further discussion of the Italo-Ethiopian question and created a definite note of optimism that differences with Britain may be straightened out.

"There is no foundation to reports of a rupture between Italy and the League," he said. To the contrary, the spokesman continued, Italy was vastly pleased by the committee of five's action which he contended supported Italy's claim that Ethiopia is a barbaric country and must be subjected to European tutelage.

Ethiopian Aggression?

The spokesman asserted the committee of five "completely forgot" to take into account portions of the Italian memorandum filed at Geneva showing "that there is a very definite Italo-Ethiopian problem which is entirely between Italy and Ethiopia."

By this, the official said, he meant "that 40 years of Italo-Ethiopian relations have been marked by repeated Ethiopian aggression."

The cabinet's communique was couched in friendly and polite terms. Thus, observers believed, the way was kept open for further negotiations to prevent war.

It rejected the Geneva proposal because it does "not offer a minimum basis sufficient for a conclusive realization which finally and effectively would take into account Italy's vital rights and interests."

(Copyright 1935 By The Havas News Agency)

ROME, Sept. 22.—(C. P. Havas)—Territorial gains for Italy and disarmament of Ethiopia are underlined in a four-point program which Italy may submit as a counter-proposal to the League of Nations peace suggestions, it was learned tonight.

The points are:

1. A distinction should be made between Ethiopia proper and other territory controlled by Emperor Haile Selassie;
2. Ethiopian disarmament should be made effective by Italian control;
3. Ethiopia must be denied an outlet to the sea, because such an outlet would render disarmament ineffective;
4. A new proposal should recognize Italian rights mentioned in her agreements with France and Great Britain.

Observers pointed out that an essential difference between this plan and that of the League committee is that it mentions only Italian control in Ethiopia, while the League contemplates international control.

(By Joseph E. Sharkey Associated Press Foreign Staff) GENEVA, Sept. 22.—(A.P.)—Reports in certain League of Nations quarters stated tonight that Italy will offer Ethiopia—a seaport in Italian colonial territory—either in Eritrea or Italian Somaliland.

In return Ethiopia would cede certain of her provinces to Italy. Italy's newly reported desire to hand over a strip of her territory to Ethiopia on the Italian colonial seaboard was interpreted in some international circles as reflecting her ambition to exercise control over the seaport which other nations want Ethiopia to have.

14 Persons Injured At Liberal Rally

ST. JOSEPH D'ALMA, Que., Sept. 22.—A large slice of rough-casting, 40 feet long by three feet wide, fell from the ceiling of the Town Hall in which a Liberal rally was being held here last night and 14 persons, including Hon. Ernest Lapointe, former Minister of Justice, were injured. Mr. Lapointe was unconscious for 10 minutes from shock. He was struck on the leg.

When he regained consciousness Mr. Lapointe insisted on the program being carried out and delivered a one-hour speech. He was forced to keep his injured leg off the ground most of the time.

The communique stated: "His Majesty's Ambassador to Rome called upon Signor Suvich, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs on Sept. 20 in order to communicate in the name of His Majesty's Government the movements of the British Fleet and the reinforcements with men and materiel of British garrisons in the Mediterranean adding that they are not intended to imply any aggressive intention upon the part of His Majesty's Government."

"He explained such measures had been taken as a natural consequence of the impression by the violence of the campaign against the United Kingdom which has been conducted by the Italian press during the last few weeks."

Signor Suvich made an analogous communication and stated he was authorized to declare to the Ambassador that the Italian military preparations in the Mediterranean basin were of a purely precautionary nature and had no aggressive aims."

A foreign office statement emphasized there has been no special protest from Rome regarding the British naval and military movements and that the Government acted upon its own initiative in ordering Sir Eric Drummond, the British Ambassador to Italy, to deliver this message to the Italian Government.

Private advices were understood to have been received from Sir Eric regarding Italy's objections to the League of Nations peace plan. These, it was expected, would be used to guide the Cabinet in its deliberations.

Press Comment

London was placarded with newspaper posters informing Sunday crowds "there still is hope" and "Mussolini saves doom ajar." In an article headed "The Way Out" signed by J. L. Garvin, the Sunday Observer urged that Italy be given direct administration over all Ethiopia conquered by the Amharas since Adwa—Ogaden, Anusi, Harar and Danakil.

Others injured were Ethel Boutiller, Mrs. Ethel Pinck, Arthur Hambleton and James Cameron, the driver.

BRITAIN HOLDS FASCIST PRESS RESPONSIBLE

Naval and Military Concentrations Due to Violence of Campaign Against Britain.

(By Albert W. Wilson Associated Press Staff Writer)

LONDON, Sept. 22.—(A.P.)—The Foreign Office placed full responsibility for its naval and military concentrations in the Mediterranean Sea squarely upon the controlled Italian press tonight.

Shortly after Prime Minister Baldwin had cut short his week-end at Chequers, the Foreign Office issued a communique stating the massing of warships from Halifax to Gibraltar and the strengthening of defences at such points as Malta and Gibraltar was caused by "the violence of the campaign against the United Kingdom" in Italy.

As all members of the Cabinet gathered in London for their first full meeting since Aug. 27, official assurances were received from Rome that Premier Mussolini has not yet slammed the door on further attempts at conciliation of his dispute with Ethiopia.

The critical full dress session of the Cabinet was set definitely for Tuesday.

The communique stated: "His Majesty's Ambassador to Rome called upon Signor Suvich, under-secretary of state for foreign affairs on Sept. 20 in order to communicate in the name of His Majesty's Government the movements of the British Fleet and the reinforcements with men and materiel of British garrisons in the Mediterranean adding that they are not intended to imply any aggressive intention upon the part of His Majesty's Government."

Social Credit Candidate Will Oppose Premier

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) CALGARY, Sept. 22.—Premier Bennett will be opposed in his home constituency of Calgary West by a Social Credit candidate in the Dominion general election, it was decided here early today after a five and one-half hour session. Robert Reid, a 51 year old high school teacher and farmer of Cremona was selected by the advisory committee of the Calgary West constituency group.

Convention delegates named eight candidates, the names of three being selected for the advisory committee's choice. The Social Credit group will also contest Calgary East. John Landreau was named candidate there at a convention last night.

No New Scheme Will Be Considered—British View

(By George Hambleton Canadian Press Staff Writer) GENEVA, Sept. 22.—Geneva is anxiously waiting for the next development in the critical dispute between Italy and Ethiopia. British circles tonight stressed that the communique issued in London following the Italian Cabinet meeting yesterday does not definitely reject the peace plan of the League of Nations committee of five. Its wording is capable of several interpretations.

The five-power committee therefore is still awaiting the official memorandum from Rome with Premier Mussolini's instructions to Baron Aloisi, chief Italian delegate here—ardently hoping, as one British authority put it, that Sir

U.K. - Canada Negotiate On Oats Export

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—Negotiations are under way between United Kingdom and Canada to continue for another year the arrangement whereby Canada gets a preference in the U. K. market for oats. The agreement was reached for the 1933-34 crop and continued for the 1934-35 crop. Under it a British tariff of three shillings for 112 pounds was levied on foreign oats and Empire oats went in free.

However to protect the U. K. growers, Canada was placed under a quota of approximately 6,700,000 bushels. In 1933-34 the Dominion was much below the quota but in spite of the short crop last year, prices were so good in Britain that the quota also covered oat products such as rolled oats for which quotas were fixed.

Instructions to Aloisi would be favorable.

Any discussions with the Italians, it was stated at British headquarters, will be on the basis of the five-power committee's plan. There is no idea of submitting a new scheme. The committee in drafting the plan, it was pointed out, took note both of the Italian charges against Ethiopia and the Ethiopian reply.

The charges summed up were:

1. Ethiopia was a backward country needing assistance;
2. Italy wanted more security for her East African colonies;
3. Italy was not obtaining the economic outlet in Ethiopia to which she was entitled.
