

Civic Election.

In pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of this Island, made and passed in the 3rd year of the reign of His present Majesty King Edward VII., Chapter 17, entitled "An Act to consolidate and amend the several Acts incorporating the City of Charlottetown,"

WEDNESDAY The 14th day of February, A. D. 1906.

AT THE SEVERAL PLACES, THAT IS TO SAY
In Ward 1, at or near the office of J. & T. Morris, Water Street, near Queen.
In Ward 2, at or near the house of Mrs. Thomas Connolly, opposite Mr. R. Hearty's warehouse, Sydney Street, between Great George and Prince Street.

DESCRIPTION OF WARDS:
No. 1 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies south of Dorchester Street, and the parcel of land formerly known as the Military Barrack Grounds.
No. 2 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies south of Richmond Street, and north of Dorchester Street.
No. 3 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies south of Grafton Street and north of Richmond Street.

Nomination Day, Wednesday, Feb. 7th, A. D. 1906.

At the Office of the City Clerk, City Hall, from the hour of Twelve o'clock noon, until the hour of Four o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.
For qualification of Electors see above Act 3rd Edward VII., Cap. 17, Sections 21 to 23.
W. W. CLARKE, City Clerk.
FREDERICK P. KELLY, Mayor of the City of Charlottetown, City Clerk's Office, Charlottetown, January 15th, 1906.

ELECTION OF Commissioners Of Sewers and Water Supply

In pursuance of an Act of the General Assembly of this Island, made and passed in the 5th year of the reign of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 8, entitled "Charlottetown Water Works Act, 1871," and of the Act of His Majesty King Edward VII., Chapter 12, entitled "Charlottetown Sewers Act," and of all Acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto,
I do hereby give Public Notice that an Election for Three Commissioners of Sewers and Water Supply for the City of Charlottetown,

WEDNESDAY The 14th day of February, A. D. 1906.

AT THE SEVERAL PLACES, THAT IS TO SAY
In Ward 1, at or near the office of J. & T. Morris, Water Street, near Queen.
In Ward 2, at or near the house of Mrs. Thomas Connolly, opposite Mr. R. Hearty's warehouse, Sydney Street, between Great George and Prince Street.
In Ward 3, at or near the Market House.
In Ward 4, at or near City Hall, corner of Kent and Queen Streets.
In Ward 5 East, at or near Mrs. Hearty's Shop, on Great George Street.
In Ward 5 West, at or near Jas. McMahon's Shop, on Great George Street.

DESCRIPTION OF WARDS:
No. 1 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies south of Dorchester Street, and the parcel of land formerly known as the Military Barrack Grounds.
No. 2 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies south of Richmond Street, and north of Dorchester Street.
No. 3 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies south of Grafton Street, and north of Richmond Street.
No. 4 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies east of Fitzroy Street, and north of Grafton Street.
No. 5 shall comprise all that part of Charlottetown which lies north of Fitzroy Street, including the Common of the said Town.

Nomination Day, Wednesday, Feb. 7th, A. D. 1906.

At the Office of the City Clerk, City Hall, from the hour of Twelve o'clock noon, until the hour of Four o'clock in the afternoon of the same day.
For qualification of Electors see above Act 20 Victoria, Cap. 8, entitled "Charlottetown Water Works Act 1871," also 3rd Edward VII., Cap. 17, Sections 24 to 26.
W. W. CLARKE, City Clerk.
FREDERICK P. KELLY, Mayor of the City of Charlottetown, City Clerk's Office, Charlottetown, January 15th, 1906.

Constipation

Headache, biliousness, heartburn, indigestion, and all liver ills are cured by Hood's Pills
Sold by all druggists. 25 cents.

Cheesemaker Wanted.

The Montague Dairying Co. wants an expert mixed Cheese and Butter Maker for the season of 1906. Applicants must state wages per month or charge per hundred pounds of milk for manufacturing finding all necessary help. Apply giving references to
W. J. FRASER, Secretary.
Montague Bridge, 362 1/2 twis.

Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Charlottetown Mutual Fire Insurance Company will be held in the Board of Trade Rooms, McLeary's Building, Queen Street on Wednesday, January 31st, 1906 at 8 o'clock p. m. for the purpose of electing a Board of Directors for the ensuing year and transacting such other business as may be brought before it.
ROBERT FENNELLS, President.
B. BALDERSTON, Secretary.

DOMINION ATLANTIC RAILWAY

and Steamship Lines to Boston via Yarmouth
The popular Fast Line Between Eastern Nova Scotia and Boston via Yarmouth, Windsor Junction and Halifax.
EX-PRESS TRAINS leave Halifax daily (except Sundays) at 7:30 a. m. and 3:45 p. m. and from Yarmouth at 8:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. and from Windsor at 8:00 a. m. and 4:00 p. m. connecting at Yarmouth with express trains to and from Halifax and Yarmouth. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday accommodation trains Nos. 5 and 6 run between Windsor and Yarmouth.
The Royal and U. S. Mail Steamship BOSTON
The Fastest and Finest Steamship plying between the Maritime Provinces and Boston. Leaves Yarmouth, Wednesday and Saturday for Boston on arrival of Express Trains from Halifax. Returning, leaves Long Wharf, Boston, Tuesday and Friday. Passengers arriving in Halifax next day 7:30 p. m. by Express Train.
For all information, guide books, folders, etc. which will be sent free, write to F. E. Armstrong, General Passenger Agent, Kentville, N. S. Trains run on Atlantic Standard Time.
P. GIFFKINS, General Manager.

To Fit OR Not to Fit

That is the question? Any spectacle is no more adapted to your face than any coat to your body. The fit of the frame is as important as the fit of the lenses.
We make a speciality of both.
G. H. TAYLOR,
Jeweler and Optician.

HERE IS A CURE FOR SLEEPLESSNESS

Weak, Listless, Sleepless Men and Women. Cured Every Day by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.
The physical suffering and mental distress that victims of sleeplessness endure is indeed a sad story. It is in Dr. Hamilton's Pills there is swift relief from this awful condition. Thousands have proved the merit of this grand medicine, among them Mrs. G. T. Lyons, one of the best known real estate agents of Geneva, who writes: "My health ran down and I was unable to sleep. I had headache and pains in different parts of my body. In the morning I was weary and exhausted—no rest or comfort came from the snatches of sleep I got."
"Dr. Hamilton's Pills braced me at once. After the first night I got refreshing sleep, that extreme weariness left me and I recovered very fast. No medicine I ever used gave me such telling results as Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pills."
"Don't let sleeplessness drive you crazy; take Dr. Hamilton's Pills and get well. You will increase in flesh, your appetite will be vigorous, force and energy will be instilled into your nervous system.
By nourishing and purifying the blood and by stimulating the action of the kidneys, liver and stomach, Dr. Hamilton's Pills accomplish wonders. Try a 25c. box, or five boxes for $1, at all dealers, or N. C. Fols & Co., Hartford Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

CANADIAN PACIFIC

SHORT LINE Through Fast Express leaving Montreal at 8:00 a. m. Daily except Sundays. Sunday Express leaving Montreal at 10:00 a. m. and returning to Montreal at 8:00 p. m. TAWA MEEAG and between SEBR-BROOKE and MONTREAL.
PACIFIC EXPRESS
From Montreal every day at 8:40 a. m. for all points.
CANADIAN NORTHWEST, KOOTENAY AND PACIFIC COAST. This Train carries First and Second Class Coaches and Palace Sleepers, Also TOURIST SLEEPER
SUNDAY, MONDAY and THURSDAY
Round Trip Rates to Colorado, California and N. P. Coast points quoted on application. Low rates apply.
Call on J. E. MATTHEWS, Charlottetown, or write to F. R. PERRY, D. P. A., C. P. R., ST. JOHN, N. B.

NIXEY'S STOVE ENAMEL POLISHING PASTE

Best on earth for stoves and range
Price 5 cents per box.
WE SELL IT.
Call at store for large free sample
PHONE 264
JOHN CONNOLLY & Co.,
Queen Street, Ch'town.

Desirable Building Lots in Ch'town for Sale.

The undersigned offers for sale the following valuable building lots:
4 lots on the east side of Upper Hillborough Street each having a frontage on Street of 50 feet and extending back 75 feet.
2 lots on the west side of Orlebar Street each having a frontage on Street of 50 feet and extending back 75 feet.
The said six lots lie immediately north of the residence of Dr. Anderson, lately J. D. Reid.
1 lot on the west side of Upper Hillborough St., having a frontage on Street of 50 feet and extending back 75 feet. This lot lies immediately opposite the residence of Dr. Anderson.
It is impossible to procure a more desirable locality for residences than these lots afford.

MME. ALBANI TO FAREWELL CANADA

Will Tour From Coast to Coast
Under Direction of F. G. Spencer—An Effort to Have Her Appear Here.

The great Albani, honored, admired and feted during the past twenty five years by all the great nations of the world, has decided to farewell Canada, her native land, during the coming spring, and with probably the finest company of famous European artists that she has ever brought from the old country. The tour which will be under the direction of F. G. Spencer of St. John will open in Halifax that week and the itinerary includes all the important points from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Mr. Spencer in communicating with friends in this city intimates that indications point to the tour being a tremendous success, as already there are more demand for dates than it is possible for the great prima donna to fill. Albani willing but three times a week and under no circumstances will she depart from that rule. She and her company will travel in a special car, and everything that money and twentieth century conveniences can accomplish, will not be neglected, to make her long journey of some fifteen thousand miles other than fatiguing. It had been hoped by many in Charlottetown that a date in this city could be arranged, closely following Albani's Halifax appearance but it seems that there is not sufficient time for it. There is a possibility that arrangements might be made whereby the diva could sing here while enroute home to England, unless she goes by way of New York. Mr. Spencer states that if sufficient encouragement were given he would make every effort to arrange the itinerary in this manner. This is absolutely the last time Madame Albani will be heard in Canada, and for this reason the tour will be somewhat an historic one. No singer ever lived who enjoyed a career of such distinction as Madame Albani. It will be remembered that at the request of her beloved Sovereign she was the only singer at the funeral of the late Queen Victoria. The great Queen and the great singer had been intimate friends for many years, and Madame Albani has been the recipient of no less than one hundred marks of Victoria's regard in the form of very valuable presents. It is to be hoped that it will be possible to secure Madame Albani for Charlottetown on her return from England about the last of May, as it would certainly be the most important event in the line of entertainment that ever occurred on the Island.

HERE IS A CURE FOR SLEEPLESSNESS

Weak, Listless, Sleepless Men and Women. Cured Every Day by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.
The physical suffering and mental distress that victims of sleeplessness endure is indeed a sad story. It is in Dr. Hamilton's Pills there is swift relief from this awful condition. Thousands have proved the merit of this grand medicine, among them Mrs. G. T. Lyons, one of the best known real estate agents of Geneva, who writes: "My health ran down and I was unable to sleep. I had headache and pains in different parts of my body. In the morning I was weary and exhausted—no rest or comfort came from the snatches of sleep I got."
"Dr. Hamilton's Pills braced me at once. After the first night I got refreshing sleep, that extreme weariness left me and I recovered very fast. No medicine I ever used gave me such telling results as Dr. Hamilton's Mandrake and Butternut Pills."
"Don't let sleeplessness drive you crazy; take Dr. Hamilton's Pills and get well. You will increase in flesh, your appetite will be vigorous, force and energy will be instilled into your nervous system.
By nourishing and purifying the blood and by stimulating the action of the kidneys, liver and stomach, Dr. Hamilton's Pills accomplish wonders. Try a 25c. box, or five boxes for $1, at all dealers, or N. C. Fols & Co., Hartford Conn., U. S. A., and Kingston, Ont.

COVEHEAD.

Jan. 25.—The sports of this place gathered on the afternoon of the 15th inst. for the purpose of testing the speed of their well bred trotting horses. The ice being in perfect condition some excellent speed was shown.
While crossing Covehead Bay on the 17th inst. a horse driven by James Strickland took fright from an ice boat and had it not been for the nimbleness of horse and driver a serious accident might have befallen both.
After a poor winter's smelt fishing on local fishers recently had the misfortune to loose a valuable net.

MANY CHILDREN SUFFER

from Worms through Loss of Appetite, Fits, Sleeplessness and Pains. Give McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup, the original and genuine. Always Safe, Pleasant and Effective. Many years in use, always satisfactory. Get the genuine McLean's Vegetable Worm Syrup.

Just received an elegant line of Photo Frames for Christmas in gold, leather and composition all of the very latest designs. To be seen at the Studio—Geo. H. Cook. 5d 1/2
Your money spent for some of the STARTLING BARGAINS now offered by John McLeod & Co., Queen Street, will pay YOU. Call and see.

AN EVENTFUL PERSONAGE

The body of Shadrach W. Johnstone of Gasperaux, who died in a private hospital in Boston, Mass. on Friday, January 12th arrived in Georgetown on the S. S. Minto Tuesday morning the 18th accompanied by his brother Dr. W. J. Johnstone, Boston. Impressive funeral services were held at the Sturgeon Baptist Church on Wednesday and the burial took place in the afternoon at Lower Montague. A large number of his personal friends and neighbors attended the funeral and paid respect to his memory. Mr. Johnstone had not felt well for some time and with his sister, Mrs. Johnson B. Young of Albion who had just recently lost her husband, paid a visit to his brother Wm. J. Johnstone, M. D. Boston, Mass. and shortly afterward entered a private hospital, where under the care of several of the best surgical experts in the city of Boston he underwent an operation for a condition involving several of the vital organs, and which proved to be of so rare and serious a nature that further interference would have resulted in immediate death on the operating table. He was later placed under special treatment, and special nurses were engaged to care for him, but Mr. Johnstone although a man of tremendous vitality and nerve succumbed to the great reaper. Mr. Johnstone was born in P. E. I. 46 years ago and having lost his parents when very young took to the sea when but a lad, sailing every port in the known world. About 24 years ago he quit the sea and in Northern Idaho secured land and started a ranch where for a number of years he was engaged in raising stock, but having had much trouble with the Indians, who were ever raiding and stealing his stock, and finally burned his property, he moved into British Columbia where he again started a ranch and also engaged in mining. There he continued until a few years ago when he sold out and returned to his old home, and having married became engaged in farming and coasting. While in the west Mr. Johnstone served as Deputy Sheriff and was the means of bringing many hardened criminals to justice. He also served in the cavalry under the Canadian Government during the "Riel" rebellion. He has served several terms as constable on P. E. I. Mr. Johnstone was a descendant of a very hardy race and no doubt inherited his roving and adventurous disposition from his grandfather Sergeant William Johnstone, of the 42nd Royal Highlanders (Black Watch), who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged. This same old veteran also assisted his chief Sir John Moore at the field when he fell mortally wounded, and at the dead of night with his bayonet assisted in digging his grave on the ramparts of Coruna, and for his services he received the seven barred Peninsular medal and also received the Waterloo Medal. The late Lieut. Peter Dewar who was one of the bravest that followed Sir John Moore through the Peninsular Wars and who was one of the twenty-five survivors (of the 1500 picked men) who made the most memorable bayonet charge in which a British Regiment was ever engaged