

JANUARY CLEARANCE OF REMNANTS AND ODD NUMBERS

An Unreserved Clean-Up in all Departments of Odd Lines, Short Lengths, Broken Sizes, Etc.

From past experience, we have learned that the above announcement needs no argument. The women of this city know full well that extensive savings can be affected at our periodical clean-up sales. This January event witnesses reductions of a truly startling character—on merchandise that in most instances can be immediately used, assortments, too, are more varied than ever, involving all odd lines from the busiest four weeks selling in the mercantile year. Let us emphasize this fact: Although we take off all our profit and give it to you, we do not take off one jot of our responsibility for satisfaction.

ODD LINES from the WHITEWEAR DEPT
