CORRECT FOUNDATION FOR GOOD GROOMING

NEW YORK.—For a well-groomed appearance be sure you have the right foundation garment for your figure type. Whether you wear the all in one corselet, the girle with long bra fastened together with hooks and elastic, the girle and short bra, or the pointed girle with short or long bra, choose the garment carefully to give you a smooth line as well as freedom of action which your activities require. (Manufacturers have been able to use synthetic rubber satisfactorily on foundation garments of all kinds, and while these are allotted on a quota basis to all shops, they can be obtained from time to time.)

MENTS ON BEQUESTS

When a girl announces her engagement, a gift is not indicated unless you particularly wish to give one. Such a present from the prospective mother-in-law or a close friend, should be a personal one to the girl herself.

Several brides of American women in Melbourne, Australia, are planning to make the trip to the United States solely for the purpose of divorcing their husbands, they disclosed before their departure for the States. They said they were going to America to establish residence prior to divorce action and several said they knew other girls with the same intentions. One wife said her husband was moved to a forward area two months after their marriage and since has returned to America. Three months ago, he wrote, she said, that he had courted another girl and the marriage had been a mistake. A girl from Perth said she had not heard from her husband since shortly after their marriage eighteen months ago.
