N. B. AND P. E. I. CONFERENCE

The morning session opened at 9 o'clock. After Routine Dean Birney again delivered a short address taking as his subject The Minister for this age. Owing to his intention of leaving by the Northumberland he was compelled to shorten his remarks much to the regret of the audience.

Before his departure the Conference passed a resolution of appreciation for the able and instructive addresses delivered by him.

Supernumerary matters they came up and received a good air. The following conclusions were concurred in:

That the assessment on circuit and ministers for this fund be the same as last year.

That this Conference agree to bear in just proportion as ministers and laymen financial obligations involved in the bringing up of the salaries of our supernumerary Ministers to one hundred per cent for the past year and that the amount to be paid himself of this fund reported to the Treasurer on or before August 1st.

Rev. Dr. Steele, Professor Palmer Rev. G. M. Young and Mr. J. A. Brace were added to the Supernumerary Committee.

The next matter taken up was the Educational Fund. The Treasurer of this fund reported an increase of about $500 in the results.

Dr. Borden Principal of Mount Allison then addressed the Conference. During his remarks he stated that over 70 per cent of the total attendance of male students of Mount Allison had enlisted in the King's Service in consequence which there was a large falling off in the students fees. The percentage of enlistments from Mount Allison, he contended, was greater than from any other college in Canada.

In the Ladies' Seminary last year 306 students were in attendance while the finances showed a small surplus for the year.

Dr. Bigelow then addressed the Conference urging greater co-operation on the part of ministers and laymen in their efforts to secure more students for Mt. Allison Seminary.

A vacancy being reported in the delegation to the General Conference Board of Social Service by the death of W. D. Baskin, Mr. J. Willard Smith was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Rev's. Chapman and Lane, Messrs C. M. Lawson and J. W. Smith were appointed representatives to the Council of the Dominion Alliance.

Missionary matters were then taken up. The Treasurer reported an increase of $494 from the St. John District; $76.97 in the Fredericton District; $40 in the Chatham District; $78.50 in the Sackville District; and $110 in the Summerside District.

(The latter amount included a gift of $1000 from one man). The net gain in the whole Conference was about $1300. The amount aimed at for 1917 was $18,000 an increase of about $250.

A memorial service were then held for four deceased members of the Conference who died during the year.

At the evening session Rev. H. E. Thomas of the Army and Navy Board presented his report from which the following figures were taken:

Table with columns for Total enrolment for this Conference, Total enrolment from all Conferences, Applications by Ministers for chaplain in all conferences, Total number Chaplains appointed, Ministers and Probationers in this Conference who have enlisted, Total number and Prob in all Conferences.
