The Great Blood Maker "IRON"

Iron is the element that gives richness to the blood, the substance that brings back the color to faded cheeks and strengthens and invigorates the whole body. Iron to give these results must be given in the proper form for assimilation.

Hughes' IRON BLOOD PILLS

contains iron in such a combination that it is readily absorbed. If you are pale, run-down or anemic you can count on results by taking these Pills.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.—Miss Lilla Harkins, daughter of Mr. W. S. Harkins, is recovering from a severe attack of grippe. Miss Harkins while a student at Edgemoor was popular with her schoolmates, many of whom still correspond with her. Mr. Harkins, who was a student at Collegiate School, is now superintendent of a large experimental farm in New York State. Windsor Tribune.

A PRESENTATION.—At the close of the weekly prayer meeting which was held at the home of Mr. W. J. Gibson Marshfield, on Wednesday evening last, a very pleasing event took place when Mr. J. T. Ferguson was presented with a beautiful pair of fur-lined gloves as a token of appreciation of his services as secretary for the concert and also as leader of the choir for upwards of thirty years. The presentation was made by Rev. Mr. Coffin in a neat speech. Mr. Ferguson though completely taken by surprise, made a suitable reply. Complimentary remarks were then made by Mr. Gibson and others.

HARD TIMES SOCIAL.—A very interesting audience met in the Murray Harbor Hall last Monday evening, and were repaid for braving the intense cold. Inside the hall was all animation and life. The programme was prepared by the members of the Mission Band of the Methodist Church and the following programme was enthusiastically received: Remarks by Chairman; solo, Mrs. A. McLeod; recitation, Myrtle Dunn and Cora Stewart; exercise, "Wishes," by children; chorus by children; recitation, Miss Marion Hugh; "Missionary Album"; solo, Rev. H. A. Brown; Missionary Arithmetic; girls; solo, Miss Edith Prowse; recitation, Herbert Brown; chorus, children; recitation, Miss Lucy Lumsden; dialogue, "Snowing for the Heathen." After several old-fashioned and familiar games, in which many partook, refreshments of gingerbread and cookies were served. It was unanimously conceded that the Poverty Social had been a great success and ought to be repeated at an early date. "God Save the King."

A NEW MAN FOR PLAYERS.—W. J. Townsend arrived in Halifax Saturday to take Mr. Woodworth's place in "Klax In", next week's offering by the Players. Mr. Woodworth's accident prevents his being in the cast next week. Mr. Townsend has been playing the same part with the W. S. Harkins company and when Mr. Connell explained the circumstances, Mr. Harkins and Mr. Townsend, were only too happy to assist. The Harkins company will go to the West Indies and Mr. Townsend will go later.

SCHOOL EXAM.—A public examination of the Murray Harbor School was largely attended by the parents of the children who evinced great interest in the children's work. Rev. I. A. Brown, Mr. E. Lumsden and others took part in the examination, the various subjects which brought much credit to both students and teachers. Mr. Wm. R. Carson and Miss Eda Prowse. It was particularly interesting to note the very accurate knowledge possessed by the children in classes regarding the various nations engaged in the war, together with their most prominent military and political leaders.

WORDS OF PRAISE.—A private soldier writing from the front says: "I must say a good word for the other Chaplains we have here. Our Chaplain could hardly have better representation than Dr. Pringle, Major Beattie, Major Vloca, Captain Gordon (son of Principal Gordon of Queen's) and Bruce Taylor. I've never seen a better chaplain, but everywhere I heard good things about him. I was sorry that Bruce Taylor had to go home. It is good to know that so many of the men who have gone to the front as Chaplains have the respect and confidence of the private soldier, for that is the real test of their fitness."

BELIEVED TO BE OF UNSOUND MIND

FREDERICTON, N. B., Feb. 21.—More light upon the activities of the young mischief maker, locally known as Harold E. Baker, was shed at his trial upon the criminal charge of issuing a worthless check was proceeding in the Police Court.

Information received by the Gleasoner from Amherst, N. S., that Baker was not known there, but that person answering the same description had operated in a similar way at both Springhill, N. S., and at Sackville, N. B. The information was at once given to chief Magistrate Colman who is busily engaged in compiling a list of charges against the prisoner.

In the meantime the impression is growing that if Baker is not utterly insane he is at least half witted. His mania for entertaining young telegraph messengers and hobboys at hotels is being enquired into the notes which he has sent to boys inviting them to visit him at the house where he had established himself on King street have been found. Rev. Thomas Marshall, upon receiving the information today that Baker was evidently of unsound mind.

Mr. W. S. Thomas, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia in this city, told the check being refused on presentation to the bank because there were no funds, while Donald Ferguson, the boy to whom the check was issued, stated that he had been told at the bank that Baker had no account there. Mr. Norman Edgecombe, the other witness for the prosecution had accompanied young Ferguson to the bank and substantiated his evidence.

When asked if he had any witnesses to call, Baker told the court that he desired to call the accountant of the Royal Bank of Canada as a witness. Mr. H. W. Ferguson, the accountant, was summoned and Baker asked him one question. It was: "Did I not ask you if I presented a check at the bank and there was no funds, would it be no good?" The witness stated that the defendant had asked him the question and he had replied "that the check would be no good."

The case was then closed and the Magistrate adjourned until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock, when he will deliver judgement.

That "Baker" had used many aliases in his escapades is evident from not only the information which has come from outside points, but from local developments as well. At Springhill, N. S., and Sackville, N. B., he was known as "B. E. Andrews," while when he was here he apparently was unable to remember just what name he was going under and signed a note to a hobo of the Baker House, which a reporter saw today, as "H. Parker."

THREE FAMOUS SCIENTISTS

Dr. Andrew Wilson, Dr. Gordon Stables and Dr. Lascelles Scott, the famous English analysts, have all personally tried Zam-Buk and expressed themselves convinced of its great healing value.

Mrs. St. Denis, of Thompson St., Weston, Winnipeg, suffered long with eczema and finally her doctor said only Zam-Buk could cure her—another fine tribute of a scientific man to this great herbal healer.

Mrs. St. Denis says: "The eczema broke out on my nose and one side of my face. I could get no sleep because of the irritation and pain, and my face was in such a shocking condition that for two months I did not go out of the house. I applied remedies and my doctor treated me, but without effect, until one day he said that the only thing which would be likely to cure me was Zam-Buk. I procured a supply and to cut a long story short, in a few weeks Zam-Buk cured me completely, leaving no scars."

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for cuts, scalds, burns, eczema, scalp sores, irritation, inflammation, sores, etc.; also an embrocation for rheumatism, sprains and neuralgia. All drugs and stores carry it or write to Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes.
