

PETER PUTOFF—HE ALWAYS FORGETS

The Last Call!

This is the last chance we will have to remind you that a gift of China or Glass is always appreciated. Nothing is detracted from a gift because it is practical and when you combine the ornamental with the useful you are sure of having given something that will be thoroughly appreciated.

A few weeks ago we were generous enough to announce that we would leave the judging of our assortment of China and Glassware to the public. Since then we have interviewed several hundred who have shown by their actions that they considered it all right. If it should happen that you are one who has not taken advantage of our invitation to use our stock as a panacea to your troubles we again remind you of its soothing influences in time of Christmas worries.
