The Musical Recital in Notre Dame Convent Wednesday evening was well attended and a most successful and enjoyable affair. The lengthy program was made up of music, vocal and instrumental, and readings and each performer showed the excellent training she had received, in many cases, the pieces being most difficult of rendition. The fairy drill by the little folk was greatly enjoyed and Notre Dame Convent concerts are always looked forward to with delight.

The change of program by the trio Jewette, Hayes and Lind, at Wonderland last night was another evidence of the versatility of these clever artists. The "horse ballet" was introduced with a most charming impersonation of a distinctly prancing pony by the Misses Hayes and Lind, Mr. Jewette being the ballet master. Every movement was graceful, and the costumes, which have been a feature of special attraction in this engagement, were gorgeously beautiful. The French and parolai dances were especially charming, each petite and beautiful personator winning instant favor. Mr. Jewette in his songs was excellent, his distinct enunciation notably good. The military closing of this act was fine, the martial time kept perfectly by the fascinating flag-bearers on either side of the singer. Good vaudeville is a mild word to use in connection with Jewette, Hayes and Lind. It is exceptionally fine, and mere words fail in attempting to describe one of the most charming and pleasing acts presented at Wonderland since the inception of vaudeville at the motion picture houses in this City, for every one should see this trio and enjoy its excellence from the beginning to the finish.

The body accompanied by Mr. Murphy will be forwarded this afternoon to her late home in Morell where interment will take place and of which further notice will be given.

"Governor Tilden says that John Hanson told him that he heard W. K. Wagner say that Anna E. Dickinson told him that D. S. Decker heard that there was no doubt that John McLaren said that S. T. Benedict thought Fred Seward had told Jim Johnson that Cushman had declared to John Fulton that it was generally believed that Harry Hull said, in plain terms that he heard Al. Bevy say that his friend Harriet Beecher Stowe, had said that Fred Hotchkiss informed her at Delmonico's, that it was well known all over the country that Jim Helwig had caught Jimmy Farthing saying that in his opinion it was a matter of fact of great public interest, that Nate Wells had said Fred Howell told him that H. H. Brown was undoubtedly the best and cheapest place in town to buy a Spring Suit or Overcoat and that he is the only up-to-date Hatter and Furnisher in the City. Charlottetown 1908. 5-3dril.

HORSE NOTES.
The imported Hackney Stallion "Fashioner" of Dan Chestnut, swim, near hind fetlock white, foaled 1902, bred by George Hodgson, Manor House, Brandby, England, imported to Canada in 1906, is looking better this spring than ever under the care of his proud owner, John B. Roper, Royalty. This celebrated Hackney Stallion is one of the best ever imported to Canada and his equal has never been seen in the Maritime Provinces. "There is no reason why the breeders of this Island should not raise duplicates of this horse and feel proud that they have such highly bred and thoroughly shaped stallion in your midst." It was said the judge at the Provincial Exhibition last fall. "Fashioner" is a great prize-winner, having won the sweepstakes for Hackney Stallion, any age, at the Dominion Exhibition at Halifax, 1906. In 1907 he was also awarded first prize at Halifax and at the Provincial Exhibition when the judge so highly complimented the owner for possessing such an excellent animal. Besides these prizes "Fashioner" won many others. When four years old, before he came to this Province, he was shown at the London Fair in 1906 and against a strong field of horses, any age, he succeeded in capturing second prize. "Fashioner" may be seen at his owner's stables except market days, when he stops at Essey's Stables (Connors' old stand) Grafton Street, Charlottetown.
