One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Maj.-Gen. Spry Guest Speaker At Rotary

Maj.-Gen. Dan C. Spry, Chief Executive Commissioner of the Dominion Boy Scout Association, was the guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Rotary Club of Summerside yesterday in the Olympia. The speaker stressed the international aspect of the Boy Scout movement and said it contained a great spirit of unity.

He said that Summerside is one of the few communities this size that he has seen without an active Boy Scout organization. He expressed appreciation for the efforts made forth in the past by the Y's Men's Club. He said he felt that if the men of the town realized the necessity of having scouting for the boys they would go out and get the movement organized.

He was introduced by Mr. K. M. Martin of Charlottetown. Other guests present were Chief Justice Thane A. Campbell, A. S. Hopkins, Harold Rodd, W. A. Currie, Ross MacKenzie, Alexander Campbell, King Scout Eric Tanton, Scout Master Gordon Kerr, Provincial Commissioner R. S. P. Jardine and Rotarian P. W. Turner, Charlottetown.

After the meeting Commissioner Spry met informally with some of the members of the Y's Men's Club and discussed the scouting situation in regard to Summerside. Substance Of Charges In McGregor Report

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Justice Minister Garson tabled a 60,000-word report in which F. A. McGregor, chief combine investigator, charged Canada's 11 main flour and milling companies with agreeing from 1936 to 1947 to fix common prices for their products.

The bulky document, 117 pages long, was tabled in the House of Commons a few minutes before Trade Minister Howe started a four-hour debate in which Prime Minister St. Laurent and Mr. Garson joined to defend the Government's action in not prosecuting the companies. They also defended the Government's action in not tabling earlier the report, dated Dec. 29, 1948.

The ministers said the flour-milling industry was assured during the war that uniform pricing would not be subject to prosecution under the Combines Investigation Act. In fact, they said, the Government's Prices Board encouraged uniform prices to facilitate administrative problems in the complex field.

The Government's actions were sharply criticized by opposition spokesmen. John Diefenbaker (P.C.-Lake Centre); M. J. Coldwell, C. F. leader; Solon Lou, Social Credit leader; and Angus MacInnis (C.C.F.-Vancouver-East).

Mr. Coldwell charged the Government with a breach of the Combines Investigation Act, which required that reports be tabled in Parliament within 15 days after they are received by the minister.

Mr. Coldwell said that regardless of the flour-milling industry's activities during the war, it should be prosecuted for alleged price-fixing activities prior to the war.

Mr. Lou said he wished to protest strongly against the "represensible withholding of the report of a responsible officer so that the people would not know what the report contained."

Mr. MacInnis said there was ample evidence in the report to indicate the companies manipulated prices.

Substance Of Charges

Mr. McGregor, who gave the Government's delay in tabling the flour-milling report as one of his reasons for deciding to resign Jan. 1, 1950, made these charges against firms representing 70 per cent of Canada's productive capacity in the flour-milling field:

1. "It is clearly established by the evidence that since at least 1936 there have been continuing efforts on the part of the principal milling companies to secure and maintain agreements amongst themselves and with others which would fix common prices for the sale of wheat, rolled oats, millets and coarse grains which they sold. These efforts were directed to having such agreements in effect in all markets in Canada in which the associated firms carried on business."

2. "During many periods between 1936 and 1947, agreements to maintain price uniformity have been completely effective." The history of the firms' activities "is a record of a series of agreements which were broken at times, only to be followed by renewals or modifications designed to bring the parties back into agreement."

3. No exception is taken to authorized activities under the Prices Board by the firms concerned when they made "agreements to remove competition in price" when such "joint action was neither required nor sanctioned by the Board."

4. Diplomatic approaches followed by threats of reprisals were made to small, independent millers "if they did not comply" with efforts to "induce them to keep close" to price levels set by the alleged combine.

5. Eastern firms kept a double set of minutes of meetings so that the "frequent agreements and understandings on prices" could be kept in "confidential memoranda."

6. The same sort of price-control activities have been going on in the western bread-baking industry—legal charges are pending

Canadian Ass'n Of Consumers Oppose Boost In Rents

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—The 10,000-member Canadian Association of Consumers today expressed a dim view of the Government plan to boost rent controls by 20 and 25 per cent.

In a telegram to Finance Minister Abbott, it asked reconsideration and amendment of the date Dec. 15, when new increases will take effect. The telegram, signed by the Association president, Mrs. F. E. Wright of Toronto, reaffirmed the C.A.'s stand that there is no room for a further period of rent control in the more congested cities.

"Present rulings which have placed the majority of tenants on monthly leases will result in chaotic conditions should controls be arbitrarily removed on March 31, 1950," the telegram said. "Some further period is needed for levelling off in prices to take place and for normal landlord-tenant relations to be re-established."

It concluded: "In view of government action would request that Federal Government reconsider and amend date on which rental increases may take effect."

Mrs. H. E. Suter of Montreal, vice-president of the organization, said that in Quebec the English-speaking branch of C. A. C. "views with extreme alarm" the Government decision.

"The working girls are in a panic," she said. "They have been told that this added 25 per cent

New Boy Scout Hall Is Opened At Borden

The new Boy Scout hall in Borden which has been donated for this purpose by Scout Master A. P. Ceretti of Borden was formally opened last evening by His Honor Lieutenant Governor by His Honor Ceretti at a festive ceremony which was also attended by Maj.-Gen. Dan C. Spry, C.B.E., D.S.O., chief executive commissioner of the Boy Scout Association of Canada, who is on a three-day visit to this Province.

Lieutenant Governor Bernard extended a welcome to the Province to General Spry and continued: "General Spry is our guest at a very important time. Tonight we are privileged to attend this gathering because of the kindness, generosity and big heartedness of Mr. A. P. Ceretti, a gentleman, I may say, around whom the town of Borden is built, a man though not born in this Province who is a real Prince Edward Islander first and foremost. A gentleman who has devoted much time and money to the advancement and uplifting of the morale of Scouts, Guides and Cubs and a man who does not practice the evil of selfishness but is always guided by the virtue of doing good."

His Honor lauded the Scout movement and said that the future peace and progress of the world depends upon the training, honor and trustworthiness of the youth of all nations. From the ranks of the Scouts and Guides, he said, have come many men and women whose names are engraved in golden letters upon history's pages. He congratulated all who had any connection with the splendid progress made by Scouting in Borden and he offered his earnest wish that the future may hold many good things in store.

The evening's activities were in the form of a camp with the Scouts, Cubs and Guides gathered around a camp fire with the Union Jack flying nearby. Commissioner Spry acted as camp chief for the evening and at the conclusion of the activities spoke briefly, first to the Scouts and Guides on the necessity of being prepared which is the Scout motto. To the adults present he said that men and women interested in Scouting and Guiding seldom get much thanks from the parents of the children they work with. He asked parents to co-operate and he suggested a number of ways in which they could help.

Mr. K. M. Martin of Charlottetown, a member of the Provincial Council, spoke briefly on the excellence of the hall which the Scouts and Guides of Borden have for their activities. Mayor Willard Leard welcomed the guests to the Town of Borden and complimented Mr. Ceretti on his generosity.

Presentations were made by Chief Executive Commissioner Spry on behalf of the Scouts of Borden in appreciation to Mr. A. P. Ceretti and to Cpl. A. King, R.C.M.P. Certificates and bronze arrowhead badges were presented by the Commissioner to Douglas Oozon and Fred Toombs as patrol leaders and their significance was explained. Red Cross life saving certificates were presented by Governor Bernard to Marguerite Westhaver, Francis Westhaver and Desmond Melver.

Mrs. D. C. Tompkins, District Commissioner, spoke briefly. Commissioner Spry was introduced by Stan McInnis and Ray Hickey was in charge of the program.—S.

Mainland Butter Prices Advance

HALIFAX, Nov. 8.—(CP)—Retail butter prices in Halifax, increased today by two or three cents a pound in some stores, will go up another three or four cents this week and probably level off at approximately 71 cents, dealers here said tonight.

Butter prices here had been steady at about 65 cents for the last several weeks but today some stores were quoting 68 cents.

K. J. MacSween, director of marketing in the Nova Scotia Agriculture Department, said: "It is definitely my understanding that there will be a substantial increase in retail butter prices almost immediately."

He said the increase would be the result of a seasonal trend and an increase in Government floor prices.

At Saint John, N.B., butter was selling at 67-69 cents, an increase of 3-5 cents in recent weeks.

Consumers in Charlottetown seemed to be getting the best break on butter in the Maritimes. They could get it for 65 cents a pound and at a Saturday sale two pounds for $1.25.

Unified Control For Railways Is Forecast

By John LeBlanc

OTTAWA, Nov. 8.—(CP)—A farm economist today told the Royal Commission on Transportation that failure of the railways to boost efficiency and economy may result eventually in unification of the systems.

Dr. E. C. Hope, economist of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, said public pressure for savings might bring about "some form of unified control."

The economist was testifying under examination on a brief presented by the Federation to the Commission, which is investigating national transportation problems for the Dominion Government.

A brilliantly enacted Courtroom Drama.

"wasteful" duplication of rail services. Dr. Hope suggested joint cooperative measures between the two big carriers could result in savings of perhaps $30,000,000 a year.

Taking into account the technological improvements, he said, labor had not shown the "increasing efficiency you would expect over a period of time."

Under questioning by F. C. S. Evans, C.P.R. counsel, Dr. Hope said it appeared evident that the railways had agreed to do nothing about the matter of effecting joint economies.

On the controversial "Crow's Nest Pass" rates issue, Dr. Hope told co-ordinator counsel, Frank M. Covert of Halifax, that there should be no change in the statutes and will be with only by Parliament because of their national importance.

When Mr. Covert asked if he thought the grain rates should be subsidized from the Federal Treasury, Dr. Hope replied "not necessarily." The competitive rates were not subsidized, he said.
