LAND FOR SALE

Now is your chance to get a great snap in land. A few minutes walk from the new wharf which is to be built at Franklin Point, North River, D. C. McKinlay offers for sale that part of his farm which lies west of the North River road. It comprises over 100 acres nearly all cleared. It is watered having a spring and good well. The shore at the back is admirably suited for boating or bathing and affords an abundance of seaweed. A good hay barn is also on the property. This farm has long been noted for the fertility of its soil and is now in a very high state of cultivation. Its situation renders it an ideal place for a butcher, milkman or market gardener. For terms apply to D. C. MCKINLAY Charlottetown. Box 108 7-31dftfwjpd.

The funeral of the late Neil Baker a step-son of Newton McLeod, French River, took place yesterday and was very largely attended. The Rev. A. D. Stirling conducted the service. Mr. Baker was a very popular manly young man and will be very much missed by his many friends and especially in the home. He was a member of the Geddie Memorial church choir and treasurer of the church and a very earnest worker.

Among the arrivals to this city yesterday were: G. P. and Mrs. Walker and Ernest Walker, Summerside, W. Y. Robertson and Walter Nash, Toronto, Emma J. Carlton, Detroit, G. R. McKeen, Amherst, J. M. Clark, Summerside, E. N. Knowlton, Toronto, Robt. and Mrs. Sutherland, Brookline, Walter C. Tait, Boston, W. J. Clarke, Winnipeg, George and Mrs. Kerr, Toronto, Annie E. Watson, Davis, N. H., and T. Fred McArthur, private secretary to I. C. R. General Traffic Manager E. Tiffin, and known to many in this Province has severed his connection with the I. C. R. and left on the Ocean Limited Tuesday afternoon for Winnipeg, where he has accepted a similar position with Mr. Albert Stevens, Supt. of that section of the C. P. Railway. Mr. James Barnett, agent of the I. C. R. General Freight Agent's office, has taken Mr. McArthur's position in Moncton.

Advertisers are requested to have their "changes" in for the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily not later than 10 a.m. on both Friday and Saturday of each week as part of the big Saturday paper has to be printed on Friday and Guardian employees have a half holiday each Saturday. The news and editorial departments, which will open at 10 a.m. on Saturday, are closed from 1 p.m. to 7.30 p.m. but the advertising and subscription departments are open from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on other days.

Charlottetown Rifle Association members, especially those who have not fired, will note that a "shoot" will place this afternoon at two thirty sharp. Tickets and ammunition procurable at Mrs. T. O'Brien's (close to Pork Factory) Grafton Street. Rifles on the Range. The imminence of the P. R. A. makes it imperative that all members should get in all the practice available. Members who do not fire today will do so on Monday morning. Range will be occupied Monday afternoon by 4th Regt., C. R. A.

The Rev. Malcolm McLeod, D. D., of Pasadena, Cal., preached at the Brick Presbyterian Church, Moncton last Sunday and will also conduct services August 2 and August 9. Although not yet forty years of age, Dr. McLeod has already earned for himself an enviable reputation on the Pacific Slope as an eloquent and learned preacher. He was educated in Scotland and at Princeton, and has occupied several important pastorates in the Middle West. Under his leadership the Presbyterian Church at Pasadena has recently erected one of the handsomest church buildings in the United States, at a cost of a quarter of a million of dollars. Dr. McLeod will be known to many in the East through his recent volume of sermons, "Heavenly Harmonies and Earthly Discords," and will undoubtedly receive, during his present engagement at the Brick Church, a warm and attentive reception--New York paper. The Rev. gentleman who is now supplying Brick Church, New York, is a native of Belfast, P. E. I., and a brother of Mrs. A. G. Putman, Sackville. He is a Maritime Province young man who has achieved fame in the neighboring Republic.

There was a good attendance at the Opera House last evening to witness the play Miss Petticoats. It is a good clean play, but a little overdone, with sentimentality in several scenes. The capable company presented it admirably and won hearty applause.

The will of the late G. D. Longworth has been admitted to probate. It bears date January 7, 1903, with two codicils dated respectively November 18, 1905 and November 14, 1907. All real and personal estate of the testator, with certain exceptions, are devised in trust to C. H. B. Longworth, Mrs. M. M. Longworth and A. A. McLean, who are empowered and directed to convert the same into money (excepting the residence), and shall out of the proceeds pay general expenses and minor legacies; investing $20,000, the proceeds of which are to be paid to the widow of the testator, under certain conditions during life, and $15,500, the proceeds of which under certain conditions are to be paid to the testator's daughter, Miss Louise Longworth. The sum of $2,000 to be invested to accumulate at compound interest, to be paid to testator's grand-daughter Eileen Longworth on coming of age. The entire residue of the estate after providing for the above and some other requests is bequeathed to C. H. B. Longworth, son of the testator. Other provisions of the will are $500 to the officials of St. Paul's Church for monthly payments of $60 per month to Mrs. Longworth and $30 per month to Miss Longworth for twelve months until the proceeds of investments shall become available; as to the occupation of the residence and the will reduces to convert the same into money (excepting the residence), and shall out of the proceeds pay general expenses and minor legacies; investing $20,000, the proceeds of which are to be paid to the widow of the testator, under certain conditions during life, and $15,500, the proceeds of which under certain conditions are to be paid to the testator's daughter, Miss Louise Longworth. The sum of $2,000 to be invested to accumulate at compound interest, to be paid to testator's grand-daughter Eileen Longworth on coming of age.
