Address and Presentation to Rev. J.S. and Mrs. MacKay

Saturday evening, Oct. 25th, Rev. J. S. and Mrs. MacKay were invited to spend a social evening in the hall at Bonshaw. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion, Miss Tena Salmon taking the lead in the same. Mr. Heath Crosby very kindly conveyed Mr. and Mrs. MacKay to the hall at Bonshaw in his magnificent Brisco car. A number of friends gathered, the ladies with baskets, and a most enjoyable evening was spent by those present.

Mr. H. McNevin, president of the Y. P. S. C. E. Society was called to the chair and the meeting was opened by a selection by the choir after which Mr. J. J. McLeod led in prayer. Miss Blanche Beaton, followed by reading a very complimentary address from the W. Missionary Society to Mrs. MacKay. This was accompanied by an expensive camera, presented by Miss Lizzie McLeod to which Mrs. MacKay made a suitable reply. Miss May Carson then came forward and read an address to the Rev. J. S. MacKay from the Y. P. S. C. E. This was accompanied by a magnificent dressing case with brush, glass and comb of polished ivory presented by Miss Tena Salmon.

Mr. MacKay in his reply thanked the people of Bonshaw for their great kindness to him since he came to Bonshaw four and half years ago. He also informed the people that since he came to the congregation he had seen in the neighboring congregations four Methodist and three Baptist pastors and he was thankful for the good will that existed between them. He was followed by Mr. J. J. McLeod who spoke of the help Mr. and Mrs. MacKay had been to the societies and to the congregation. Hon. Cyrus Crosby expressed his gratitude to God for the uplift Mr. MacKay had given to the community and for the splendid Christian spirit that existed between the two denominations, much of it, he said was due to Mr. MacKay's work in their midst and his prayer was that Mr. and Mrs. MacKay would have a delightful winter in Florida where he himself had spent a winter some years ago.

The ladies served tea and cake and the social evening was brought to a close by prayer by Mr. MacKay and the Mizpah benediction.

Popularity of New Dictionary Grows

Lawyer Praises Book — Money Well Spent He Declares.

Appreciation of the offer of The New Universities Dictionary being made by this paper to its readers is shown in the steady increase in the distribution. The popularity of the book has become more widespread, as those who were among the first to secure a copy have told their friends about the dictionary or have shown it to them. Each day the distributing clerks have been besieged by crowds of coupon-holders.

Many comment on the work in terms of highest praise. "I never spent ninety-eight cents to better purpose in my life," a well-known lawyer declared. "I have long been wanting just such a dictionary. It is thoroughly up to date, gives a simple, accurate definition of a lot of new words, and the illustrations are both interesting and instructive. Its convenient size and practical style of binding further recommend it."

The New Universities Dictionary was designed to serve as a guide to the correct use of today's English. It contains the latest and newest words whose general usage warrants their incorporation into a dictionary designed as this one was, primarily for everyday folks who want to speak and write the English language correctly and well. A new supply just received.

CANADIAN TIMBER IN GREAT DEMAND

MILLIONS OF ACRES AVAILABLE IN THE DOMINION ONE OF THE ASSETS BEHIND VICTORY LOAN 1919.

Canada is the great forest resource of the British Empire. The demand for timber for pit-props during the war was enormous. Naturally all eyes were directed to Canada for the supply of these gun-pit essentials. The great yield of Canada's forests was available; but largely owing to the submarine menace there were not sufficient ships to convey the timber to Europe.

The Prime Minister of the Dominion came to the rescue of the Allies in their difficulty. He suggested that the woods of Great Britain should be utilized for this urgent purpose and that Canada should supply the lumbermen. The idea was adopted, and husky lumberjacks were to be met in numerous lumber camps throughout Scotland, England and Wales.

Now, the woods of Great Britain are being replanted and Canadian timber is in great demand, not only by Britain but by the Allies, whose forests were destroyed by war and for war purposes. Canada's millions of acres of commercial timber are among her most valuable assets. They combine, with her resources in minerals, fisheries and lands, to form a sufficient guarantee that every dollar subscribed to the Victory Loan 1919 is absolutely safe, and that all is well with Canada in the new era of prosperity on which she has entered.

Facts About Fighting On Last Day of War

Canadians Keen and full of Fight Beyond the Last Minute.—But They Didn't Cheer.

A returned war veteran who is working on the Victory Loan campaign tells about the fighting of the Canadians on that last sunny November morning.

It's a good story, and hasn't yet been told, though the incidents are almost a year old.

I was with an Alberta outfit that day. A brigade of western battalions had orders to push on from Frameries, south of Mons, to some ground about five miles beyond Mons. They got out of billets about four in the morning, started marching, prepared to fight in full packs, and kept going till after eleven.

There was a stop about 10.30—we were in a turnip field and couldn't get ahead, and had to lie down while some trench mortar fellows blew Mr. Helmie skyward.

"And it was very nice nestling behind a turnip top while the machine gun bullets splattered smashed turnips in your eyes.

"But the fun came at eleven. Some of the officers knew beforehand that the war would be over but none of the boys knew. Sharp on the hour, Canadian time, bits of white shirts and handkerchiefs and so on began fluttering over the bushes where the fighting was taking cover. Our fellows gave a war whoop and shot those shirts and things to shreds.

"The Helmies then tried another line. An officer rode out from behind a house mounted on a big white horse that looked to me as if it had been whitewashed. Bingo! down went the horse.

"By about that time our officers came running along the lines yelling that the war was over and to cease firing. We didn't cheer."

"About quarter past eleven we heard movement in the German lines, and an officer shouted "Hun" and Helmies began hobbling up together in a field. He yelled "Hun" again and they formed fours, another "Hun" and they marched away to Germany.

"One of our Lewis gunners, who had his gun mounted on a fence post, was feeling pretty sore. He'd lost his brother that morning. The sergeant-major had to take a flying jump at him and bring him down, gun and all in a heap, else he would have shot up that whole column of two hundred Helmies. He could have done it easily at the range. I think we all sort of sympathized with the gunner.

"Oh, well it doesn't matter much now exactly when the fighting stopped. If the Loan goes across with a smash it will bring anyway an armistice on the war bills.

Beets if they are red, add an attractive touch of color to the table, but if they have accidentally lost their color they are not pleasing to the eye. In such an event the beets may be made a brilliant red again if a little red fruit coloring is added to the vinegar.

At every meal, if necessary preach the gospel of the clean plate.

FAVORITES FALL BY WINDSOR WAYSIDE

BY BERNARD AUSTIN WINDSOR, Ont., Oct. 22.—Favorites fell by the wayside today at the second day's program of the fall races at Sage Park, not one of the horses figured to win their respective events landing at the top of the summary.

Bill Gentry, the Swampscott pacer, could not top the summary in the 2.16 pace. Revelry, another nag from the vicinity of Boston, failed to have enough speed to take away first in the 2.19 trot, while Colorado L., the Maritime trotter, was far from the best of the 2.16 trotters.

First money in the 2.16 pace went to the Hartford sidewheeler, Earl D., the Earl of Chatham gelding coming from behind in each heat and nipping Bill Gentry at the wire. Johnny Skinner won the first two heats of the 2.19 trot, but the Connecticut trotter did not have enough speed to head Famous Nutwood in the remaining rounds.

Eddie Rowe, made a straight heat victory out of the 2.16 trot with the black mare, Radiant, owned by H. L. Handy of Springfield, while Lord Lyndon easily was second best in the field.
