DIES IN YARMOUTH — Friends at Pictou and elsewhere in this Province, will regret to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. Joseph A. Taylor, nee Margaret Walker, at her home at Yarmouth, N.S. She was a sister of Mr. Patterson Walker, Kensington, who received a wire from her son Dr. Willard Taylor, stating only that she had passed away suddenly on Sunday, Dec. 4th. A sister, Mrs. Eliza Palmer passed away at Summerside only one week and three days previously.

CITY POLICE COURT — At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday, a man convicted of breach of the Temperance Act was fined $200 and costs or three months in jail. The same man was also fined $5 and costs or 10 days for a drunk and incapable charge. A second drunk and incapable was also fined $5 and costs or 10 days in jail, while two drunk and disorderlies were each remanded for one week.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear husband and father, W. C. MacLeod, who passed away Dec. 8, 1948.

Today brings back sad memories Of a loved one gone to rest. And those who think of him today Are the ones who loved him best.

Ever remembered by wife and family.

PATIENTS ENTERTAINED — The patients and staff at the Provincial Sanatorium were privileged to hear Mr. George Haddad, distinguished pianist in an impromptu recital last night. After arriving in the city yesterday Mr. Haddad kindly responded to the Kinsmen request that he provide a short entertainment for the patients. The recital was given to the appreciative group in the institution's auditorium. Following are the numbers he played: Rhapsody in Blue, Begin the Beguine (personal arrangement for Borden's Cavalcade of Music), The Cat and the Mouse, and a novelty duet with Freeman Archer, Night and Day. He concluded with a bit of Boogie Woogie. Mr. Haddad will give a recital at Prince of Wales College this afternoon and tonight.

Mrs. Eleanor MacKinnon arrived home Saturday evening from Halifax, N.S.

SCHOOL BOARD RESOLUTION — Following is the full text of the resolution by the City School Board in connection with the proposed new school: "The Board, having heard the report of the High School Committee, approves of the finding of the Committee that a new school building is necessary to relieve overcrowding, and their recommendation that such school provide accommodation for grades 9 and 10. Further that said school include in its curriculum both Academic and Vocational Training; and that the committee be given authority to proceed with preliminary arrange-
