The S. S. "Cacouna" sailed yesterday morning for St John's, Newfoundland, via the Sydneys. Her outward cargo consisted of three horses, eighty-five head cattle, one hundred and twenty-eight sheep, two hundred bags potatoes, one hundred bags turnips, eighty-six crates and seven bags vegetables, twenty boxes cheese, and sundry other cargo.

In the First Methodist Church Basement last night there was rendered a program, varied and pleasing to all tastes, in reference to Mount Allison College.

The parts on the program were all beautifully taken and reflected great credit on those performing. Much could be said of this meeting but space forbids anything more than a brief word. There were readings, solos, and choruses, and the object of the meeting in informing the public a little better on the Mount Allison College was successfully fulfilled in Rev. G. D. Steele's talk, "The Religious Influence of Mount Allison College." Rev. H. E. Thom- as and others also made reference to the institution, creating much interest in the same.

The seventy stereopticon views of the College shown were greatly enjoyed by the large audience gathered, who pronounced the meeting a most enjoyable and entertaining one.
