MISCELLANEOUS SHOWER

A pleasant evening was spent at the hospitable home of Mrs. M. McLeod, New Glasgow, on Sept. 18th, when the friends of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Johnson, Charlottetown, tendered them a miscellaneous shower. Mrs. Johnson was formerly Miss Ruth McCoubrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry McCoubrey, and was one of New Glasgow's popular young ladies. The Bride and Groom were ushered into the living room by Miss Ethel Dickieson, after which a huge bouquet of Sweet Peas, were presented to the Bride by her little sister, Miss Irene McCoubrey. The gifts were brought in by Miss Elva Stevenson. The Misses Anna Stevenson and Alice Dickieson opened the parcels. Miss Mildred Brown read the humorous verses and Margaret Stevenson arranged the gifts on the table. After the presentation, "For they are Jolly Good Fellows" was sung, after which refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in music and social chat. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will make their future home in Charlottetown, and are followed by "best wishes" from their many friends.—G.

take their departure from this congregation and the community to a neighboring town. Rev. B. C. Salter presided. Games were indulged in and a short program given. Vocal solos by Messrs. Russell MacKay and Arnold Taylor were given in their usual fine form. A humorous dialogue by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sudsbury was much enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Salter in a few remarks explained the nature of the gathering and called on Mr. Archibald MacKenzie to make a presentation address, after which Miss Dorothy MacKenzie presented Dr. and Mrs. Lockhart with a beautiful silver serving tray. A presentation of a gift was also made to Miss Mildred Bishop by Miss Moase from the Young People's Society. One and all expressed regret at the departure of Dr. and Mrs. Lockhart with their family from Kensington, where for the past twenty-five years they have fitted into the life of the community as necessary and uplifting citizens. But it is as members of the United Church they will be more sorely missed, for they have always taken an active and willing part in all branches of the church work. Senator John H. Sinclair of Summerfield was present in his capacity as chairman of the Official Board and gave an interesting address, voicing the deep regret of the Board at losing Dr. Lockhart as a member, where by his wise council and helpfulness he has served faithfully and well. Dr. Lockhart in a very pleasing manner made a fitting reply, thanking the speakers for their kind words and wishes and expressions of goodwill from the congregation. A hearty sing-song, with Mrs. Harold Laird accompanying at the piano, was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served by the ladies.—B.
