It pays to buy in this Province.

There were no cases before the police court in this city Saturday.

G. E. Toombs, City, was among the passengers outward on the Southern train Saturday afternoon.

Miss Helen Moore, Charlottetown, who has been the guest of Miss Evans, Shediac, left town this week to visit friends in St. John.—Moncton Ex.

Will J. Wright, Montreal, who has been spending quite a few weeks in Vernon River, has returned to the city. Mr. Wright leaves for Edmonton, Alta., on Friday morning where he opens an office and will do dispensing eye work. His many friends will wish him success.

Recent "Notices to Mariners" posted by the Marine Department contain the following which will interest seafaring men of this province: A steel conical buoy has been established in Egmont Bay, at the entrance to Percival River, south coast of P. E. Island. Lat. N. 46.33.50. Lon. W. 64.6.46. The buoy is moored in 2 1/2 fathoms water. It is painted red, with "Percival" in white letters.

The sad news has been received at the home of Patrick Brzez, Johnston's River, of the death of his daughter Sister St. Mary Magdalen (formerly Katie Brazel), whose death took place on August 21st after a short illness of three months in the Convent of the Good Shepherd, Roxbury, Mass., in which institution she has spent the last two years of her life. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing father, three brothers and four sisters, besides a large circle of friends and acquaintances both at home and abroad.

A Sea View correspondent writes:—The farmers are busily engaged at the harvest. Mrs. David Adams and daughter Mrs. Hatfield of California are spending their vacation at their summer residence at Sea View beach. James Duggan has been visiting in Malpeque the guest of Herbert Ramsay. Howard Powers of Berlin, N.H., has been home on a short vacation. Wilson Adams has been visiting in Spring Valley the guest of Charles Casely. Charles Graham, machinist, is doing a rushing business in repairing binders. William Brander has secured a position as fireman in the Electric Light plant, Summerside. Duggan and Adams are busy building their fox ranch for the five red ones they captured a while ago.

The residence of Ansel Mollins, High street, was the scene of an interesting event at 8.15 last evening when his daughter, Miss Nora, was united in marriage to Ernest Dorman. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Lane, pastor of the Wesley Memorial church, in the presence of a number of friends of the contracting parties. The bride, who was attired in white, was unattended. After the ceremony luncheon was served. The bride was the recipient of quite a number of handsome presents. Mr. and Mrs. Dorman will reside in Moncton.—Moncton Ex. (Mr. Dorman is a native of this city, and a son of G. S. and Mrs. Dorman Moncton. The young man has many friends here who will extend to the newly married couple best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.)

One afternoon recently two swimmers from across the water who made the excursion to this port on St. S. Lady Sybil ventured into the waters of Hillsboro Bay to enjoy a refreshing bath. The water was even more refreshing after entering than the prior contemplation forecasted and the couple seemed to be so strengthened that they decided to have a good long swim. They proceeded to the buoy opposite Rosebank. This they rounded and then headed for the old Southport wharf—whatever attraction it had for them remains a mystery yet unsolved. When near this wharf one of the pair began to feel the first symptoms of exhaustion and soon was wallowing in the water with weak limbs, and aching lungs. These latter he attempted to revive by washing them out with salt water but the trick didn't work and repeated gulps had a directly opposite effect. Had it not been for the timely assistance of a young man who is making for himself an enviable reputation for being on the spot in emergencies, things might have resulted seriously but the pair were duly pulled in a rowboat and after some little reviving were rowed to the Marine Wharf, where they again became closely attached to their clothing, and made silent resolutions on the futility of their attempt to win fame in the marathon game in a harbor.

Vinol is a blood purifier, a tissue builder, a flesh creator and strength producer. It improves the appetite, gives tone to the stomach, and rejuvenates the whole system. Specially recommended in convalescence from fevers, etc., 1.00 bottle. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.
