Undefeated Highlanders Team Play Abbies At The Forum Tonight

A youngster in years but a veteran in hockey wars will lead the P. E. I. Highlanders team against the Intermediate Abbies at the Forum tonight in the opener of the Island hockey season. The player in question, a former Abegweit star, is Hickey Nicholson and teaming with him are a host of well known former Island players. John "Whackey" McEachern, the real veteran and a terror to opposing goalies in his "hey-day"; Wes Storey, rugged defence player of the newer crop; Casey, brilliant goalie from Summerside; Charley Deighan, one of last year's Junior Royals; Hogan, another Summerside boy and Mahar, Mill and Kelly. That is the team Major Bill Reid will stack against the Abbie team—a squad that has yet to go down to defeat and one that plays a rugged, wide-open game from the start.

The locals, appearing to be one of the strongest Intermediate teams banded together here in years are also no slouches when it comes to playing a rugged brand of the national pastime. They promise to trade blow for blow with their opponents and on their lineup is enough rugged material to do just that. Most of the boys have been through tough hockey games many times and the "Kilties" can be sure of a great reception and at the same time a "hot" one on the ice.

The game shaping up as a natural hard hitting fast skating encounter should draw a large crowd. The fans won't want for any action and in addition will witness plenty of great hockey—in addition to being able to take and give bumps these same hockeyists know plenty of the finer angles of the game.

So it will be "war" for one hour at the Forum tonight. Sit in on the friendly battle and by so doing give Major Reid's Highlanders the kind of reception they are deserving of.

The game will get away at 8.30. Should there be any change in the starting time due to train conditions it will be announced over the air.

Lineups:—

Highlanders: Goal Casey; defence, Storey, Rankin, Mill; forwards, Nicholson, Deighan, Hogan, Mahar, Kelly, McEachern, McInnis.

Abbies: Goal Cantwell; defence, McDonald, Pound, Darrach, Carmichael; forwards, Woolridge, B. Whitlock, Blanchard, Cudmore, W. Lawlor, P. Whitlock.

Canadiens Show Traces Of Hockey Brilliance Beating Black Hawks 5-1

MONTREAL, Jan. 16—(CP)—Montreal Canadiens, snapping a slump that saw them lose five straight games, flashed one of their most productive scoring attacks of the season here tonight to defeat Chicago Black Hawks 5-1, and strengthen their hold on sixth place in the National Hockey League.

A crowd of about 4,500 watched Canadiens smash the bubble of goalie Sam Lo Presti, unbeaten in four previous matches since replacing Paul Goldman in the Chicago nets. Montreal held the Hawks even in the initial session and then scored four straight goals in the next two for the verdict over the fourth-place Chicago team.

Leading the Montreal attack with a goal and assist each were the veteran Ray Getliffe and rookie Joe Benoit, back in the lineup after a two-game absence through injury. Polly Drouin picked up two assists while the other goals went to Elmer Lach, Red Gaupille and Tony Demers.

The Hawks bagged their only counter midway through the first period when George Allen lifted the puck into the net to tie the score at 1-1 after Benoit had counted for Canadiens. Goalie Bert Gardiner had no chance on Allen's tally and was brilliant to hold the Hawks scoreless for the remainder of the game.

At the other end, Lo Presti, who never had more than two goals scored against him in four starts for Chicago, was continually harrassed. Lach's goal, which broke the 1-1 tie early in the second period, apparently hit a Chicago defender on the way into the net.

Canadiens held their one-goal margin through the second period and increased it 22 seconds after the start of the next when Gouplille's bullet shot beat Lo Presti while defenceman Johnny Mariucci of the Hawks was serving a penalty. Montreal clinched the verdict on late goals by Getliffe and Demers and breakaways.

The Hawk defence was weakened by the absence of Joe Cooper, who fractured his leg in Chicago's last game. Rookie Red McKay, brought up from Providence Reds, subbed effectively for him however.

Local Rinks Win Three Matches, Tie One With Halifax Visitors

Charlottetown rinks won three matches last night in exhibition curling games with teams from Halifax and tied in a fourth match against a rink skipped by veteran H. St. C. Silver of Halifax.

In the match between a Charlottetown rink, skipped by Rankine McLaine and the Silver rink the score at the end of the regulation 12 ends was 10-all.

D. B. Bishop curled his local team to a 11-9 win over a mainland rink led by A. S. Mahon.

J. P. Simmonds won 17 to 15 from T. P. Moffat and W. R. Cruickshanks took his match 15-7 from E. W. Fraser.

The Halifax visitors, who came by special car, were late in arriving here because of delayed train schedules. The matches, slated to begin at 8 o'clock were more than two hours late getting under way.

This afternoon eight matches are planned and four more at night. The program includes a dinner at the clubrooms in the rink, at which the visitors will be the guests of the Charlottetown Curling Club.

Rangers and Bruins draw

NEW YORK, Jan. 16—(CP)—Milt Schmidt, Boston centre, scored the cleverest goal Madison Square Garden has seen in many a day as Boston Bruins and New York Rangers drew 2-2 in a National Hockey League game before 10,234 spectators tonight.

Schmidt's goal, half way through the second period, and two goals by Lynn Patrick within two minutes of each other, shared the individual honors in a game that saw the first practical results of the league's new rule under which players joining in a fight are fined $25 automatically.

When Schmidt and Art Coulter tangled in a fist-swinging encounter in the second period the rest of the players stood around in a circle and made no attempt to intenfere.

Boston's line of Terry Reardon, Art Bruce and Pat McReavy opened the scoring in the first period, Reardon scoring and the others getting assists.

SUMMARY

First Period

1—Boston, Reardon (Bruce, McReavy) 16:43
Penalty—Shibicky.

Second Period

2—Boston, Schmidt 10:10
