THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block--Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

A fine farm is for sale at Hampton. See classified column.

New Wonderland's program for tonight is given in the reader on page four.

Mrs. John Copp, Peabody, Mass., is visiting in Milton the guest of Mrs. George Younker.

Miss Jennie Dollar and Miss Alice Younker, Milton, spent Sunday in New Glasgow.

Miss Maggie R. White of Charlottetown, is visiting at her home at Hunter River.

Miss Annie M. Beaton has returned to the city from a visit to her home in Hunter River.

Miss Jennie Harvey, City, leaves next month to spend the winter with friends in Calgary.

James and Mrs. McSwain, Elliot's spent Sunday in Hunter River the guest of John and Mrs. Beaton.

Miss Winnifred Gillan, Worcester, Mass., is expected home next week to visit her mother Mrs. J. Gillan, Grafton Street.

Vic Haslam, New York and Miss May Saunders, City, spent the week end with their cousins The Lewis's at The Point.

Miss Addie Curtis who has been visiting at Hunter River the guest of Frank and Mrs. Pooley has returned to her home in Crapaud.

The annual Scottish Gathering will be held on Riverside Driving Park grounds on Thursday 19th August, not the 11th as inadvertently appeared.

Miss Ruby McLaughlin who is studying nursing in New York is expected home shortly to visit her parents Dr and Mrs. McLaughlin, Prince Street.

Any young man, who desires to engage in newspaper work should apply at The Guardian's Subscription counter, as there is a good opening in the news department.

Miss Jennie Walsh, Summerside, one of the successful candidates in The Guardian's "Big Free Trip" contest, held last spring, leaves on August seventh for Boston, where she will study nursing in Peabody hospital.

Rev. J. L. Dawson, Sackville, who occupied the pulpit of First Methodist Church at both services on Sunday preached two thoughtful and eloquent sermons, his text for the evening service being "The way of the transgressor is hard." Dr. Burrill of Nova Scotia who is spending a vacation in this city, favored the evening congregation with a choice solo.

On Friday, July seventeenth, from seventy to eighty people of Bonshaw and vicinity gathered together at the shore of John A. McNevin's beautiful farm for a day's outing.

The Elliot River winding in and out on its peaceful course among the hills, the green meadows, the shady nooks, the cool fragrant breezes from off the hills, and the picturesque and lovely scenery make this an ideal spot for a picnic. After a spread under the shady table laden with those things which would be calculated to satisfy the taste of the most noted epicures. The inner man being amply attended to, old and young alike joined together for a good afternoon's fun.

Games, boat-sailing and athletic sports were indulged in and keenly enjoyed. As the shades of evening were falling the picnickers after giving three rousing cheers to the owner of the farm for his kindness, wended their way homeward, confident that they had spent a day of pleasure and enjoyment.

Among the many faces seen at the picnic was that of Mrs. Edward L. Anderson of Westerville, Vermont.

Mrs. Anderson was formerly Miss Jennie MacNevin, one of Bonshaw's most popular young ladies. She has only recently arrived home, and words of welcome were extended to her on all sides.

When she goes to rejoin her husband, who holds a position of trust and honor in Westerville, she will bear with her the good wishes for that welfare and happiness from her many friends that a lady of her worth and popular merits deserve.

Among the outward passengers from this City yesterday were Miss Bessie Foster to Picton, Miss S. Power to Brno, Miss K. W. Murphy from Montague to Montreal, W. H. Daniel Sullivan to Toronto, Jos Reid to Boston, James and Mrs. Calder Jr to New Glasgow, N. S.

It is seldom that the grain crops of the Province have looked better at this time of the year than they do now. This should lead to a large number of entries in the "Standing Fields of Grain Competition." Already several entries have been received and all must be in by Saturday, August seventh, not August tenth, as was stated by mistake in a former issue.

David McCarthy, who came to St. Stephen about a month ago, died at his home on Prince street Tuesday, July 11th, at the age of seventy one years. He was a native of Newfoundland, but spent a large portion of his life at Millville, Prince Edward Island. Seventeen years ago he left that place and went to New Hampshire, where he had resided until coming to this town. Forty-two years ago he was united in marriage with Miss Mary Lapham of Prince Edward Island, who survives him with four sons and three daughters. Three of the sons and two daughters reside with their parents. One son is married and resides in Dorman, Me. and a married daughter resides in Boston. -Exc.

DO NOT BE HUMBLED.

MORE THAN EVER

Dishonorable and disreputable pharmaceutical concerns are flooding the market with cheap and worthless preparations designed to be imitations of "Dr. Fowler's EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY."

Some of these are even labelled "Extract of Wild Strawberry," "Wild Strawberry Compound," etc., in the hope that the public may be deceived and led to purchase them, thinking they are getting the genuine "Dr. Fowler's."

Are you willing to risk your health—perhaps your life, to these no name, no reputation, likely dangerous, so-called Strawberry Extracts?

For sixty-five years "Dr. Fowler's EXTRACT OF WILD STRAWBERRY" has been used in thousands of families for Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Colic, Cramps, Summer Complaint, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum and all Bowel Complaints.

Do not let the dishonest or unscrupulous dealer humbug you into accepting one of these cheap substitutes, to the detriment of your health and gain to his pocket.

Ask for "Dr. Fowler's" and insist on getting what you ask for. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. Price 35 cents.
