In November she went to the Sanatorium and for a time hopes were entertained for her recovery but God called her to His Heavenly Home where sorrow and pain are unknown. Her death at the age of 22 years is a hard cross for her devoted mother to bear. She was a devoted member of the Holy Mother Church and received the last rites from her Pastor Rev. O. Kiggins. Sincere sympathy is extended to her mother and brother Charles in their sad bereavement.

The Path Across the Hill under the auspices of the Murray Harbor Community Club held in the Town Hall on Saturday June 25th was a decided success. The stage was attractively arranged and the players were heartily applauded by an appreciative audience. The specialties between the acts included guitar music, vocal solos, also violin selections by Mr. Archie Hume.

Walsh who ruled the turbulent Madison Square Garden convention in 1924, got the job this time when the delegates gave him 628 votes against 528 for J. J. Pendergast, chairman of the Executive Committee of the party for the past three years. He represented the anti-Roosevelt forces of Alfred E. Smith and John J. Raebok of New York, John Garner, Speaker of the House, Alfalfa Bill Murray, governor of Oklahoma, Governor Albert Ritchie of Maryland, Melvin Traylor of Chicago and Newton D. Baker of Ohio.

The south and west with the exception of Texas and California, Garner states, went mostly for Walsh and by implication for Roosevelt. Walsh got only 27 of New York state's 94 votes, but made up for this weakness in the east by collecting 42 from Pennsylvania's 76 and 38 in Michigan.

The voting on the permanent chairmanship was not entirely representative of the strength of Roosevelt; nevertheless it is significant in some measure that Walsh got only 49 votes more than a majority and if a similar lineup should develop when balloting on the nomination begins Roosevelt would be 144 short of the necessary two-thirds.

The druggist danced and chortled till the bottles danced on the shelves.

"What's up?" asked the soda clerk. "Have you been taking something?"

"No. But do you remember when our water pipes were frozen last winter?"

"Yes, but what?"

"Well, the plumber who fixed them has just come in to have a prescription filled."

RAKWANA RED LABEL Tea

The Democratic Convention
By Ken Clark
Canadian Press Staff Writer

CHICAGO, June 29.—Through a haze of tobacco smoke pierced by the fierce yellow rays of a battery of photographers' lights, delegates to the United States Democratic National Convention tonight whooped it up for Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana, elected permanent chairman, and the initial triumph of the forces of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt, candidate for the Presidential nomination. The convention also settled two state delegation contests by seating official groups from Louisiana and Minnesota supposedly favorable to Roosevelt.

Walsh who ruled the turbulent Madison Square Garden convention in 1924, got the job this time when the delegates gave him 628 votes against 528 for J. J. Pendergast, chairman of the Executive Committee of the party for the past three years. He represented the anti-Roosevelt forces of Alfred E. Smith and John J. Raebok of New York, John Garner, Speaker of the House, Alfalfa Bill Murray, governor of Oklahoma, Governor Albert Ritchie of Maryland, Melvin Traylor of Chicago and Newton D. Baker of Ohio.

The south and west with the exception of Texas and California, Garner states, went mostly for Walsh and by implication for Roosevelt. Walsh got only 27 of New York state's 94 votes, but made up for this weakness in the east by collecting 42 from Pennsylvania's 76 and 38 in Michigan.

Nfld. Gov't Is Sworn In

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., June 29.—(By The Canadian Press)—This Island Dominion was under control of the United Newfoundland party tonight with F. C. Alderdice, prominent St. John's business executive, as Prime Minister.

The Liberal administration of Sir Richard Anderson Squires, unseated at the general elections of June 11, resigned at noon, and members of the new government were sworn in at six o'clock.

Mr. Alderdice took the portfolio of Minister of Finance. Other members of the executive Council are: J. C. Fiddler, Secretary of State; L. E. Emerson, K. C., Minister of Justice; H. A. Winter, K. C.; James Ayre, Hon. F. McNamara, S. J. Foote, Harold Mitchell, W.

CANADIAN CROP CONDITIONS

OTTAWA, June 29.—(By The Canadian Press)—Canadian crop conditions are much improved in the Western Provinces and distinctly lower in the Maritimes and Eastern Canada, as compared with last year. This statement is made in the government report on crop conditions issued today.

Western crops have maintained their condition fairly well, the report states, in a period of spotty rainfall and higher temperature. The likelihood of heavy damage from cutworms is now past but grasshoppers, now migratory, are still dangerous and are particularly menacing in Manitoba. In some large areas, rain is needed to prevent crop deterioration, but generally, the present moisture supplies are satisfactory.

In British Columbia, recent weather has been almost perfect, with plenty of heat and rain. The first cutting of hay will be considerably below average in the East due to dry and cold weather. Canadian spring-sown crops have also been affected by June drought. With more rain and higher temperatures, other crops may produce average yields. The Canadian fruit crop, with some notable exceptions, has suffered from a variety of depressing causes in recent weeks and will not be as large as expected.

Maritime crop conditions are reported in the following terms: Seeding of all crops is practically completed and the weather of the past two weeks has been much more favorable for germination and growth. The hay crop in the Maritimes will be generally light, with other crops backward but capable of improvement.

In Prince Edward Island, the season has been rather cold and dry which conditions have been unfavorable to hay and pasture growth. Other crops are more promising. Nova Scotia's crops have made a good showing during the past fortnight although dry cool weather is retarding hay and pastures. Grains, potatoes and root crops are growing well. The apple crop will be less than last year judging from the set; strawberries will be a light crop and other tree fruits fair and small fruits good. In northern New Brunswick the forage crops promise light yields although there has been some slow improvement under the better weather conditions prevailing lately. In southern and central districts the crops have more promise.

Stranger, (handing him money) "How did you do it?"
Tramp: "Kept out of 'em."

J. Browne, John Stone. They were sworn in by Sir William Horwood Chief Justice of Newfoundland who is acting administrator during the absence of Governor Sir John Middleton.

The Department of Marine and Fisheries and the Department of Agriculture, combined by the Squires Administration will be reinstated with John Stone as Minister of the former and W. J. Walsh as Minister of the latter. W. Winsor is slated for Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, and H. Quinton for Minister of Public Works. Other appointments will be announced within the next few days.

It is understood the Prime Minister will attend the Imperial Conference at Ottawa next month, accompanied by J. H. Fenson, controller of the Treasury.

The United Newfoundland party, led by Mr. Alderdice won 24 out of 27 seats in the elections. Sir Richard Squires and his wife, Lady Squires, were defeated at the polls, and the Liberal party won only two seats. Dr. H. M. Mosdell, former member of the Squires cabinet who resigned after a quarrel with Sir Richard over the budget, was elected by acclamation in Fortune as an Independent.

CAPTURED HIS 35TH BEAR

(Canadian Press)

HALIFAX, June 29.—Thomas Dillman, 76-year-old Halifax County hunter, captured his 35th bear over the week-end and tonight was out after another reported to be loafing in the vicinity of Wyse's Corner.

His last victim stood six feet and had unusually large head and paws. Caught in one of Dillman's traps, it thrashed about for half an hour and made the ground around it look like a ploughed field before it succumbed to the old hunter's bullet.

Dillman is one of the best known sportsmen in this section of the Province, and has a rich store of good stories about his experiences with rod and gun.

One story he is fond of telling concerns a young bear he trapped a few years ago and kept alive for a pet. An official of the department of Lands and Forests visited him one day and decided that a moving picture of bear hunting in Nova Scotia would fit into the department's advertising programme. Dillman had done pretty well off, the government in the way of bounties. So he agreed to the proposition.

Accordingly, a game warden, cameraman and five sharpshooters went out from Halifax and set the stage for the wild-life scene. The cameraman took his stand, the sharpshooters levelled their rifles in the woods nearby, and Dillman released the bear. Five rifles cracked as it appeared in the clearing. But Mr. Bruin wasn't even ruffled as he disappeared among the trees. "Go to it, bear! You'll be my bear again soon," shouted Dillman when he had controlled his laughter.

Every year he looks for a bear with trap marks on its paws but he has not seen his pet from that day to this.

Falls Into Tub, Badly Scalded

(Canadian Press)

MONTREAL, June 29.—John E. Carpenter, of Vancouver, who was yesterday elected Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of the Black Knights of British North America, was discovered badly scalded in a bath tub in a Montreal hotel today.

Mr. Carpenter who is advanced in years and in poor health, apparently suffered a slight stroke and fell into the bath tub. He was taken to a hospital where his condition was reported as serious.

He is one of the most prominent members of the Grand Orange Lodge of Canada and is a Past Grand Master of the British Columbia Orange Order.

LATER

MONTREAL, June 29.—(By The Canadian Press)—John E. Carpenter, of Vancouver, died in hospital here tonight from injuries sustained when he was scalded in his hotel bathroom.

PARIS COUTURIERS OPEN IN LONDON

LONDON, June 27.—Crossing the Channel for her Paris clothes is no longer necessary for the smartly dressed English woman. Paris, in this respect, has come to London, and some of the best known Rue de la Paix firms have established service here for their British clientele.

The immediate cause of this is the economic crisis, which put up the cost of imported cloths, on the one hand, and reduced the Englishwoman's income, on the other. In many instances, the Paris couturiers are using British materials, and giving exhibitions of models not yet shown in the French capital.

FAILINGS

It is usually the small-souled and narrow-minded man who can detect faults and failings with an eagle eye, but upon whom all the finer and grander qualities of humanity are lost. To him who ever walks with head bent and eyes on the ground the whole universe appears to be made of dust; but he who goes with head erect and eyes uplifted breathes the pure air and greets the rising sun, and forgoes the dust that may be under his feet.

Cleaned Up For The Delegates

(Canadian Press)

OTTAWA, June 29.—Relieved of their mantles of green corrosion, statues of Queen Victoria and St. John A. Macdonald, on Parliament Hill will greet delegates to the Imperial Conference resident in experimental coats of varnish.

After months of work, national research council chemists prepared a solution to remove the corrosion which had marred the statues. The varnish was applied in an attempt to prevent its recurrence.

Formula of the solution will be made public by the council, solving a problem for public officials throughout the Dominion. The formula, it is suggested, might end the dispute between the Ontario Government and the City of Toronto over responsibility for cleaning St. John A's statue in Queen's Park.

Other monuments on Parliament Hill unaffected by corrosion will retain their marks of the passing years.
