—Robert M. Gibson at the age of 90 years at his home in Melrose, Mass., a link with the old Mount Lebanon Masonic Lodge at Summerside and the Grand Lodge of England has been severed. The late Robert Gibson was a member of the Mount Lebanon Lodge at Summerside when it was a part of the Grand Lodge of England, when the late King Edward seventh, then Prince of Wales, was Grand Master. His deputy on the island was the late Adam Murry. The Masons of that time cherished their certificates signed by His Royal Highness. In 1875 the Prince Edward Island Masons organized a separate Grand Lodge of their own. The late Mr. Gibson was a life member of the Lodge. He left Summerside about 50 years ago. He died on April 26th. He was a sign painter and landscape painter of good repute and was in the employ of the Metropolitan Commission of Greater Boston, having charge of their work for many years. He leaves to mourn his son, Andrew W. Gibson, two grandchildren and six great grandchildren.—S.

The excursion express was held up between two stations, for some reason unknown to the passengers. Is this train fast? asked an excursionist of the guard.
Yes, of course it is, answered the guard.
I thought it might be, said the passenger. Would you mind my getting off and seeing what it is fast to?
Because of the waiting tactics of the police, who stood off while the rioters fired hundreds of shots, only four police were slightly wounded. A taxi-driver also was hurt.
