Tattoo Bargain Open to Public

HALIFAX, Nov. 11—(C.P.)—Economic conditions have just about wrecked one art. But it's the public that stands to benefit. Conditions are such now Charles Snow will tattoo a man's entire back for $20. All over your back he will trace in indelible ink—indelible as only tattooer's ink is—anything from a snake charmer's form to a reproduction of the Battle of Trafalgar. Of course, says Snow, a flesh puncher of long experience, there's no objection to producing this effect on a lady's back. But he admitted it's seldom done.

Said he added, people shouldn't get the idea that he's the only one who comes to his dingy little hallway, so narrow it's hard to get past a chair. Oh no, he says. Even King George has a quaint little pattern on the arm, reminiscent of his early days as a midshipman. Charles will show you clippings from periodicals to prove it. Then there's numerous little pictures preferred by women, some of them ask for a heart with initials of husband or lover. Others ask for a butterfly on their legs so that when the stocking is unrolled again it looks like a design on the hose.

And Charles knows just where the women like their tattooing best. Mostly on the upper arm or leg, he says. But men aren't so fussy. Usually they don't stick to any particular location. Snow, himself, in fact, is a good example of this as he displays on his figure more than 500 of the 5,000 pieces available for copying.

If you don't like Snow's designs, you can bring your own. Medical students often have skulls with snakes slithering through the eye sockets. Fraternal associations are strong for lodge emblems; soldiers for flags and battle cries, while one Halifax man and his six sons had the mother's tombstone reproduced on their arms.

One big undertaking by Snow was to copy a detailed map of Prince Edward Island on no less than three island doctors, with a little red dot to show exactly locations of their homes.

"Oh yes," he explains, "sometimes it's done for identification."

PEPPER-LOGAN WEDDING—The marriage of Ada Ferne, daughter of Mrs. Pepper and the late Rev. W. R. Pepper, to James T. Logan, son of Mrs. Logan and the late William H. Logan of Saint John, took place at McCall United Church, St. Stephen at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick. The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, entered the church to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin played by the organist. The bride was gowned in brown georgette made on long slenderizing lines. The tucked bodice was trimmed with insertion of peau d'ange lace. Her hat and accessories were of matching color and she wore a brown fox fur, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was of opihia roses and maidenhair fern. Mrs. Howard F. Pendleton, sister of the bride was matron of honor and wore a gown of yellow chiffon and lace and carried an arm bouquet of flowers of bronze tints. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Montreville E. Milbury, and Mr. Milbury in St. Stephen. Mr. and Mrs. Logan left later by motor for their wedding trip, and will reside at Bay View Drive, East Saint John. The bride is a graduate of Provincial Normal School and has been a successful teacher in New Brunswick as well as in Montreal. For the last two years she has been a member of the New Brunswick Protestant Orphan's Home School. From her associates at the orphanage she received a beautiful silver fower basket. Prior to her marriage she was guest of honor at a shower tendered by the choir of Centenary United Church, of which she was a member. The groom is a member of the staff of the resident architect of the Federal department of public works, Saint John. The popularity of both bride and groom was evidenced by numerous gifts of furniture, silver, cut glass and substantial checks.—St. John Telegraph.—(The bride is a native of Bideford, P. E. I.)

PEACE CELEBRATION—The glories of peace were emphasized in Kensington on Nov. 11th, by convincing testimony. On the dot of eleven all industrial activities ceased, and as far as it was possible, the two minutes silence was maintained. Many a fervent prayer was audibly or silently expressed, essentially demonstrating an elevation of the soul to God. Gratitude was returned to God for the successful issue of the Great War, 1914-1918, and His Divine Omnipotence was besought so to direct the minds of leaders of nations, that never again will the world be visited by such a catastrophe. Nations may quarrel over trade relations, trade policies, over racial issues, over religious distinctions, over forms of worship, over sectarian divisions, but when a universal need must be served, then the Omnipotent Power must be unitedly sought. Let the christian nations of the world reflect, Y.

PROFITABLE ADDRESS—Much interest was evinced in Mr. Thane Campbell's address to the Community Club at North Bedouque Hall last Monday evening. Mr. D. B. MacDonald acted in the capacity of chairman, and the opening number on the short program was a chorus, "The Old Oaken Bucket." Other numbers consisted of recitations by Master John Lecky and Mr. Allison Proffitt. Then the lecturer of the evening, Mr. Campbell, (a former Rhodes scholar, and graduate of Oxford University, now one of Summerside's successful young lawyers, gave an interesting account of a trip to Italy. Among some of the things mentioned were the different routes by which entrance and exit could be made to that country. Some of the chief cities visited were Rome, Venice and Florence, and also the ancient ruin of Pompeii. Some beautiful cathedrals, paintings and sculptures were seen by the speaker, besides other interesting things. He also was shown through a Mosaic factory, which proved a treat indeed. A hearty vote of thanks was extended to Mr. Campbell at the conclusion of his speech, who by his pleasing personality and fluency had held the rapt attention of the audience throughout. "The King" brought the meeting to a close.

PROFITABLE CONVENTION—The M. R. E. C. convention of the Georgetown district was held at Kilmuir on Monday, October 16th. The afternoon session opened at three o'clock with the President, Rev. A. R. Pyke, in the chair. The scripture reading was by Rev. Mr. Watterworth and prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. MacNevin. After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the 1932 convention and the roll call of schools the president introduced the visiting Secretary, Rev. Mr. Gibson of Wolfville, N. S. Mr. Gibson's address on general work was most helpful and interesting. Rev. Mr. Pringle pronounced the Benediction. The evening session opened at eight o'clock. The devotional exercises were under the direction of Kilmuir Y. P. S. and were very efficiently carried out. A solo by Mr. Allison MacLean and a trio by Messrs. Bears, Bruce and Munroe were very much enjoyed by all present. After the reading and adoption of the minutes of the afternoon Mr. Gibson addressed the meeting on teaching in the Sunday School. This address was most inspiring and no doubt the Sunday School workers present went away with more and better ideas as to how to teach a class successfully. The convention closed with the Benediction by Rev. Mr. Sinclair. The visiting delegates were kindly entertained by the good people of Kilmuir.

King's Coroner Job Not Onerous

LONDON, Nov. 13—The King's new coroner, Carol Romer, a nephew of Rt. Hon. Lord Justice Romer, who has been appointed in succession to Sir Lionel Kershaw, recently retired, served in the war with the Royal Engineers, winning the M. C., and has been assistant Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal since 1931. He was educated at Eastbourne and Cambridge, and was called to the Bar in 1931. He was formerly the editor of "The Nineteenth Century and After."

The position of King's coroner—one of the highest paid appointments in the Royal Courts of Justice—carries with it that of Registrar of the Court of Criminal Appeal and Master of the Crown Office.

The duties are not onerous, and consist of holding inquests into any sudden deaths occurring in any of the royal palaces, including the Houses of Parliament. Most of Carol Romer's work will be carried on at the High Courts of Justice.

Lumbering Brisk in New Brunswick (Canadian Press) SAINT JOHN, N.B., Nov. 13—With the British pound worth approximately 25 percent more in Canadian funds than it was a year ago, and with materially increased woods operations in prospect, the potential value of this winter's long lumber cut in New Brunswick was placed tonight at $2,500,000 greater than the value of the 1932 cut.

While the Department of Lands and Mines has not yet given out detailed estimate of this year's cut, it is generally believed it will be from two to three times that of last year. A conservative estimate of the winter's cut is 150,000,000 feet, although some placed it at double that figure.

Plans for the winter's lumbering operations are now nearing completion with every indication that hundreds more men will be finding employment than last year. The cut, it is expected, will be general over the province with both large and small operators participating.
