

To Keep Before Your Mind The "W. W. W." Wedding Rings

Every ring bears the stamp "W. W. W." representing a 45 years test in wearing qualities. Look inside Grandmother's ring and see if it is not a "W. W. W."

They are made in all widths and in 10k, 14k, and 18k. Of all rings the Wedding Ring should be the best.

ALL SHOULD HELP put a few nails in the New Grandstand by attending the football game at New Glasgow on May 24th.

MOTOR BOAT ARRIVES.—Captain John Stewart, of West Point, P. E. Island, arrived in port at Richibucto, N. B., with his motor boat last Tuesday.

POLICE COURT.—At the Charlottetown Police Court yesterday morning James Rooney for being drunk and disorderly and Wm. Trainor for being drunk were each fined $5 or 20 days respectively. The case of Dr. Johnson vs Allison Holmes for infraction of the milk Bye-Law was adjourned till May 26th at 9 a. m.

CAMPING TIMES.—The Maritime Y. M. C. A. Camp is to be held this summer as usual at the regular camping grounds at Big Cove, N.S., from July 2 to 16, and will be under the leadership of Rev. E. W. Forbes of Sydney. It is the St. John local team that will camp at Robinson's Point, as already referred to. The Big Cove camp promises to be even more widely patronized by the boys this year as they enjoyed last year's outing to the fullest extent, carrying off the lion's share of the prizes. It is understood that the boys intend holding a reunion this week to talk over the coming camp.

WEDDING BELLS.—St. Joseph's Convent, Charlottetown, was the scene of an auspicious event at 7 o'clock yesterday morning when Miss Laura McCabe of Stanhope became the bride of Mr. Augustus McQuaid, baker, of Charlottetown. Rev. P. D. McGuigan, Tremaine officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Maggie McCabe, while the groom's brother Mr. Tobias McQuaid, was best man. The choir of St. Joseph's Convent rendered several appropriate selections. The Sanctuary was beautifully decorated with flowers, etc. The popularity of the young couple was evidenced by the large number of useful and valuable gifts received.

HANDSOME ISLAND BOOKLET.—Prince Edward Island is this year receiving a fair share of advertising through the Department of Railways. A handsomely gotten up booklet, artistically and profusely illustrated and dealing exclusively with "The Garden of the Gulf" has recently been issued and is being distributed through the various railway offices throughout the province with special emphasis on the principal points, railway centres, routes to and from the province and such information as the traveller naturally looks for, is nicely relieved by nicely printed half tone views of Charlottetown, Summerside, Tignish, Souris, Stanhope, Keppoch and other points. The booklet is a very creditable one and will do much to advertise the Island.

POWNAL CIRCUIT.—Next Sunday Rev. E. E. Styles will preach as follows—Mill View 10.30, Alexandra 3, Pownal 7. The following Friday he will preach in Hartney Hall at 7.30.

FIRST THINGS

NEGRO MINSTRELS.

The first actor to win fame by impersonations of negro characters was Thomas D. Rice, who was born in New York 105 years ago today. Rice was the highest paid actor of his time, and his success was such that he soon had a host of imitators, and thus became the founder of negro minstrelsy, long a favorite form of amusement on both sides of the Atlantic. Rice made his first appearance in a blackface role while playing small parts in a Louisville theatre. His imitation of an aged and comical negro slave, called "Jim Crow," scored a hit, and the character was adapted to a farce in which Rice played before enthusiastic audiences throughout the United States, Canada and England. In the latter country he was the theatrical sensation of the period, and England's greatest actors, including Macready, played to small houses during Rice's stay in London. Rice married an English girl, the daughter of Mr. Gladstone, a theatrical manager. From about 1830, when Rice inaugurated negro minstrelsy, until 1860, when he died, constituted the popular period of that type of amusement, and since then it has gradually declined.
