Motherhood!

Peterboro, Ont.—"Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was very beneficial to me. I had become all run-down, tired, weak and miserable, had no appetite and my nerves were all upset. I saw the 'Prescription' advertised as being helpful to prospective mothers so I decided to try it. It built me up, quieted my nerves, gave me an appetite and I got along like the remainder of the time. I was able to do all my own work. I had comparatively no suffering, and my baby was very strong and healthy."—Mrs. Lottie Murney, 301 Townsend St.

Campaign Against X-Ray Peril

(British United Press) LONDON, Jan. 28.—The refusal of the London County Council to license X-ray message establishment is the first step in a systematic campaign which is being undertaken by the council's medical officers to guard the community against the perils of this type of beauty treatment.

"The London County Council have done a wise thing in vetoing X-ray treatment by beauty specialists," said a leading X-ray specialist recently.

"I know to what they refer. It is called epilation treatment and is undertaken for the removal of hair. No medical X-ray would either advise or administer such a course. The administration of the X-rays is a delicate matter, and has to be timed minutely.

"The effect of the treatment in the hands of a layman would be, first, a deepening in the colour of the skin; second, the appearance of innumerable minute veins; and third, an outbreak of what is called X-ray dermatitis from which many of our leading X-ray experimentalists have suffered. This dermatitis, which eats away the fingers and lambs, is the forerunner of cancer."

A London radiologist and cancer expert said:

"If X-ray treatment is employed for the permanent destruction of superfluous hair, it must be used in such a manner as to destroy the roots of the hair. In order to do

VICKS VAPORUB FOR COLDS OF ALL THE FAMILY

Peters Road And Vicinity

What the winter may yet have in store for us is problematical. Yet the recent cold snap made people a little incredulous of their former optimistic view of the continued mildness. Notwithstanding all this, P. E. Island has generally had the good fortune to miss extremes of less favoured climates.

The reports of many authentic writers confirm the truth of the widespread depression at present obtaining in the U. S. manufacturing centres, and we believe that in many cases the "homeland" holds for us, or ought to, as bright a prospect for her children as do the shimmering mirages of the congested cities of the Great Republic.

We have a great country, with unlimited resources to develop, brain and brawn of the highest order; yet our young people are continually leaving this land of glorious heritage. They go where somebody made well, because there is little demand for employment at home, and they lack the capital to successfully take hold.

The Canadian man of money does not, as a rule, invest in an industry that may furnish work for Canada's young people.

It is time that our financiers let loose the shackles of selfishness in the aim of extending and founding industries all over Canada, and thus make our country a true "Homeland" for our young people, as it is certainly destined to be yet in the future.

Whether by the dream of "Historicus" that this may come by the agency of the aeroplane, or by a patriotic common sense investment of hoarded funds, which gives us but an inflated—practically a non-productive—paper sovereignty. Why not begin now? Make it easy to sing: "Breathes there a man with soul so dead, who never to himself hath said: This is my home, my native land."

We are glad to learn that Master C. V. Vandervelde, who some time ago had the misfortune of severing three toes by the false manipulation of a sharp axe, is now much improved, and is able to attend school.

Miss Lexie Davidson, one of the popular young ladies of this vicinity, is visiting relatives in Charlottetown, and may be absent for some time.

Miss Mae Griffith, a student in the Halifax Hospital for the training of nurses, is now visiting her mother and family. Mrs. S. Davidson, at Peters Road, Miss Griffith is nearing the completion of her course and a few weeks' recreation will relieve the necessary tension of the hospital training.

Mr. Stafford Macdonald, Alliston, who was away for some time in Sydney and Trenton, N.S., has returned home.

Times are reported dull in these once busy centres.

Mr. J. McGuigan, our mail courier on the Montague-Murray Harbor North rural route, is getting the work over in hand, and is reported as giving his many patrons good service.

The farmers of this vicinity, who have succeeded in getting home their annual supply of wood, are now having it sawn up ready for use.

The schools in this locality are all open and progressing favorably with a large attendance of pupils.

It is reported that a movement for the formation of a Ladies' Institute is being considered in the Peter's Road school district.

Mr. George Macdonald, Peter's Road, is engaged in his work of repairing, installing and fitting pumps at Murray River.

MR. HUGHIE A. McCORMACK At Cardigan, P. E. I., Jan. 20th, 1928, Hughie A. McCormack in his 60th year although in ailing health for seven years his death came as a shock to his wife and many friends. The funeral was largely attended at All Saints Church on Sunday the 22nd day of January. He leaves to mourn besides his wife, two brothers, John James of Boston Island, P. E. I., and Sid of East Boston. (Other papers please copy.)

this the living cells of skin surrounding the roots must be destroyed also.

"If this is accomplished, an area of dead tissue is formed and the cancer germ, which, like other germs, is always with us, is not opposed by the resistance of the living tissue."

"Modern research has shown that the chief cause of disease is the destruction of living cells. It applies particularly to the cancer bacillus, which, so far as we can see, thrives on dead tissue.

"An amateur with an X-ray apparatus is more dangerous than a fanatic with a machine gun."

Death of Mrs. John Fitzpatrick

Death, inevitable death, which sooner or later comes to every one, has again found its way to the bereaved family of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham, late of Siskora parish, and claimed for its victim Mrs. John Fitzpatrick, who, resting in the mercies of the Divine Lord, passed peacefully to her eternal home on the morning of Jan. 10th, in Holy Family Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y., after a few days of unexpected sickness.

Three days previous to her death she suffered from severe internal pains, occasioned by most violent attacks of vomiting, the strain of which her weakened constitution could not withstand. All that the best medical skill and the careful nursing of loving relatives and friends could do, was done to prolong her stay in this Vale of Tears. But God willed otherwise.

Her death-bed scene was a tranquil one, her soul being fortified by the rites of Holy Mother Church the day previous to her death.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick, whose maiden name was Mary Elizabeth Cunningham, was born in Kinkora on Christmas Day, 1883 and was the eighth member of a family of twelve children.

From infancy to the date of her demise, her kind and cheerful disposition endeared her to all young and old. Her wonderful facility for making friends made her universally beloved. And it might be said of her "None knew her, but to love her."

None named her but to praise. Four years ago Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick and family removed from Manchester N. H., to Brooklyn, and since then lived and prospered there.

Members of St. Augustine's parish—the deceased lady was uniting in her efforts for the good of the Church and all parish activities. The parochial school, conducted by the Brothers of the Christian school and the Sisters of St. Joseph, she took especial pride in sending her children that they might receive a thorough and practical Christian education. Sacrificing every other pleasure in order to be present at all the ceremonies of the Church and all the exercises of the school. "Earth's greatest woman was great by virtue of her motherhood." Of Mrs. Fitzpatrick it may be emphasized, a loving, devoted wife, and an ideal mother.

Her departure will be regretfully felt by all, but her memory will continue to live in the hearts of her numerous relatives and friends that are left to mourn such an irreplaceable loss.

A sorrowing husband and five small children viz, Joseph, John Jr., Elizabeth, William and Charles survive her. She is also survived by three sisters and four brothers, viz, Mrs. Francis Kelly; Millie Me, Margaret, New York, and Mrs. John M. Kenny, Morell, P.E.I., Rev. Brother Ambrose Jerome, F. S. C., and James, living in New York, also Francis and John, in Morrell, besides a large circle of relatives and friends throughout Canada, the United States and Ireland.

During the days that the body lay in the home, all friends and classes were represented in the great throng which paid a last tribute of respect to the memory of their dear departed friend. Youth and age was represented from the boys and girls of the Parochial School, their teachers, the Christian Brothers, and the devoted Sisters of St. Joseph.

At 9:30 a. m. Thursday, Jan. 12th, the funeral obsequies were held in St. Augustine's Church, where a solemn High Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of her soul, Rev. George Helfenstein being the celebrant. Rev. Geo. H. Kileen, deacon, and Rev. John H. Kearns, sub-deacon. The funeral procession was headed by a delegation of Christian Brothers from the New York Catholic Protectory. Then came the bereaved family, followed by the chief mourners. Behind them came a respectable representation of sorrowing relatives and friends, many of them came from afar off to render their last tribute of filial affection. At the end of the religious services, the funeral cortege drove in autos to Holy Cross Cemetery in Flatbush, one of the beautiful suburbs of Brooklyn, where all that was mortal of a kind, loving wife and mother was consigned to the earth to await the advent of a glorious "Resurrection Morn."

In evidence of the high esteem in which the deceased was held by her neighbors and friends, many lovingly manifested their heartfelt sympathy in the presentation of wreaths, carnations and roses, to which grateful acknowledgements are extended to St. Augustine School Class 1 B, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Casey, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gannon, Mr. and Mrs. George Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. William Brennan, and Miss Katherine McCarville, Bridgeport, Conn.

To her grief stricken husband, bereaved family, relatives and friends we extend our heartfelt sympathy, and we beg God to console them in their heavy affliction. R. I. P.
