SAINT ABROAD; DEVIL AT HOME. —Intemperance or Saint Abroad; Devil at Home—will be the subject of the sermon by Rev. Neil Herman in the Central Chris- tian Church on Sunday evening. Mr. Herman says there are sincere temperance people, sincere Govern- ment Controllers; but there are certain individuals that should never preach, by tongue or by pen, tem- perance, prohibition or government control, from the standpoint of downright unadulterated hypocrisy.

The worst kind of intemperance is the intemperance of intempe- rance. Miss Barbara MacNeill will sing The Holy City at the evening service. A hearty invitation is extended.

DAUGHTERS OF THE EMPIRE PRIZE COMPETITIONS. — In the one-act play Competition the Blanche Macintosh Prize of one hundred dollars, presented by Preble Macintosh Esq., of Mon- treal, has been awarded to Merton Stafford Threlfall, 167 Brixton Ave. St. Lambert, P. E. I. The play called "Two Tricks in Dia- monds". It is expected that this play will be published in the June number of "Echoes", the official organ of the Daughters of the Empire. In the Short Story Com- petition the judges regretfully re- port that none of the manuscripts submitted reached a standard suf- ficiently high to merit the award of the two hundred dollar prize of- fered by Mrs R. W. Wood, and the Committee has therefore decided not to give this prize this year.
