DISTRESSING ACCIDENT

Perth Amboy papers publish a heart-rending account of an accident sustained by Willard Rankin, aged fourteen, son of F. Rankin of that city. Mrs. Rankin, the boy's mother, was formerly Miss Cora E. Reeves, Freetown, and at the time of the accident was on her way to attend her mother's funeral at Freetown. The little fellow was playing with some other children in a new building and, by accident, fell from the second story, about thirty feet, striking the side of his head on a pile of bricks. He was taken to the City Hospital where it was found that the skull was fractured with a part of the fractured bone pressing into his brain. An operation was performed and he was restored to consciousness. At latest accounts he had a fighting chance for his life. The quantity of brain matter removed by the fracture and in the operation would equal the size of a hen's egg and the bone removed measured one and a half to three-fourths of an inch. The operation is said to have been the most delicate performed in the hospital. The absence of his mother was a most distressing feature, the little fellow constantly calling for her. Her many friends in this province will sincerely trust that the child's life may be saved.

GANGSTERS KILL LABOR LEADER

(Special to The Guardian) JERSEY CITY, N. J., Feb. 1.—Thomas Conroy, prominent in the building trades council, was shot and mortally wounded last night by gangsters, who are believed to have mistaken him for another man. The shooting, at first regarded as a saloon row, is believed to have connection with a labor difficulty. The police made one arrest, that of a young New Yorker, Ernest Wilhaber, who told the police that a gangster known as "Kid Dynamite" had done the shooting. Accompanied by Wilhaber and a gangster named "Big Slim," the former said, "Kid Dynamite" hired him and picked a quarrel with Conroy. After the shooting, two of the men levelled their revolvers at a dozen men in the saloon and made their escape. Their companion was attacked and held until the police arrived. Wilhaber told the police "Kid Dynamite" hired him and picked a quarrel with Conroy for $50 each to accompany him here for "a job."

JEWISH WEDDING AT CHARLOTTETOWN

The first Jewish wedding in the history of Prince Edward Island was solemnized last evening when Miss Ida E. Hoffman, daughter of M. C. Hoffman, Pownall St., Charlottetown, became the bride of Myer Duosse, a merchant of Bridgewater, Nova Scotia. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Bemmoche, Rabbi of the Hazen St. Synagogue, St. John, N. B., who arrived yesterday by the Earl Grey specially to perform the ceremony. The ceremony which is much more elaborate than that in vogue among the Christians took place at the home of the bride's parents and was attended only by the relatives and intimate friends. The bride was beautifully attired and was given away by her father. She wore a white charmeuse satin gown with lace trimmings, bridal veil caught up with lilies of the valley and carried a prayer book with bunches of streamers decorated with lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Bessie, who acted as maid of honor was dressed in a dainty gown of pale pink mesaline silk neone cloth, with lace and crystal trimmings, and wore a Juliet cap to match. The groom was supported by J. Hoffman, brother of the bride. The parlor, in which the ceremony took place, was beautifully decorated with ribbons and cut flowers. After the ceremony which was performed in accordance with the Israelitish ritual, the guests repaired to the dining room which was tastefully decorated in a color scheme of red, with red ribbons and cut flowers. Here a full course dinner was served, which being disposed of was followed by a program of toasts and speeches appropriate to the auspicious occasion. About eighty congratulatory telegrams were received. (Continued on page three)

FIRE CAUSE OF PANIC

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—A boy's cry of "fire" and the smoke from an exploded reel of a motion picture machine in an East Side theatre to-night resulted in a panic among the audience of 400 persons and a rush for the exits in which two women were killed and eleven other persons were so badly injured that they had to be sent to the hospital. The panic occurred in one of the most densely populated sections of the East Side and the thousands who poured into East Houston street in front of the theatre, and rushed to the doors added to the confusion and to the number of injured. The two women who have not been identified were trampled to death in the crush of the crowd to reach the doors. The operator of the machine soon extinguished the burning film and the flames did not spread beyond the fire-proof cage in which he worked. With the exception of one rear exit door, the only means of escape from the theatre were through the main vestibule and it was here in a narrow space that most of the injured were found. The two women who were killed were picked up in the main section of the theatre where they had been trampled under foot. Fire Commissioner Johnson arrived at the theatre soon after it had been cleared. In a statement he declared that there were 800 similar theatres in greater New York where conditions were equally perilous. He said, however, that theatre owners had complied with every ordinance governing such places.
