CHARLOTTETOWN AND QUEIN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

John H. Moran, Principal of Kinkora School, was in the city yesterday.

Frank Fraser, of the Anglo-American Telegraph Co. city, is enjoying a well earned holiday.

People wishing to save money should pay their electric light bill today and receive the discount.

Mrs. Tizie Buxton, city, crossed by the Northumberland recently en route to Boston.

Misses Josie Huote and Ella M. Gallant left yesterday on return to Sydney after spending three weeks visiting friends in Charlottetown, Summerside and Rustico.

The many friends of Miss Blanche M. Ferguson of Boston, well known here, will be glad to have her back again after spending a pleasant vacation of three months with her parents Alexander and Mrs. Ferguson at their summer residence Villa Cottage, Baritown Village, Colchester Co., Nova Scotia.—Com.

The travelling public here will be interested in the following from a St. John exchange:—Eastern Liner a St. John exchange, Captain Pike, reached port Thursday evening from Boston via Maine ports, taking the place of the Governor Dingley, which has been hauled off for a general overhauling at East Boston, on the completion of which she will be put on the Boston-Portland run for the winter, taking the place of the Ransom B. Fuller, First Pilot, Newcomb and Chief Officer Daley of the Governor Dingley, came down in the Austin. The former will spend a vacation at Shediac and the latter at Digby.

The Presbyterian pulpit in Canada loses its greatest preacher by the retirement to education of Dr. McKinnon's retirement to education. The "Preaching Professor" of Pine Hill, it is a matter of congratulation, however, that the reverend gentleman is so willing at all times to lend his services to all church work, and in this way the people are enabled to hear him preach quite frequently. In Truro, the announcement of his appearance in any of our churches is the signal for immense congregations. The learned professor is a man of heart, as well as a man of brains.—Dr. McKinnon preached in this city on Sunday last.

Last Monday evening Rev. William Baesler performed the ceremony that united in marriage George Stanley Howlett and Miss Eva Goodwin, two popular young people of Blue Lake. Only a few friends and near relatives of the contracting parties were present at the ceremony, after which a sumptuous repast was partaken of and greatly enjoyed. The groom is engaged as engineer for the Mirror Mill & Lumber Company at Glendale, running the bull donkey at Camp 6, while the bride is the esteemed daughter of Mrs. L. Waggoner of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Howlett will make Blue Lake their future home, having rented a cottage on Knot Hill, where they are now keeping house.—Blue Lake Advocate, Sept. 23rd. (The above mentioned is a son of John Howlett of Annondale, P. E. Island, who left this province three years ago and has since been engaged with the above company. He is one of the many successful Islanders abroad.)

On the 26th of September, a very interesting event took place at the home of W. and Mrs. Francis, Stellarton, being the wedding of Gertrude Mary, youngest daughter of J. E. Johnson, Green Hill, to Robert Henry, youngest son of C. Fraser, Trenton. The bride looked charming in a travelling suit of blue broadcloth, with hat and feathers to match. She was attended by Miss Cassie Fraser, sister of the bridesmaid, who was attired in a very pretty blue crepe-de-chene dress, with hat to match. Raymond Fraser supported the groom. Only the immediate relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony, which was conducted by the Rev. Mr. Ross, of Trenton. After receiving the sincere congratulations of the friends, the happy party adjourned to the dining room, where they partook of a dainty luncheon, before starting on their wedding trip to Prince Edward Island, returning on Monday to Trenton, their future home, where a warm reception awaited them. The many presents useful and ornamental testified to the respect and esteem in which the young couple are held.—New Glasgow Exc.

Our Gaiacol Emulsion is to the front again. This is the season when it gets a chance to do some good work. It has them all beaten when it comes to curing a long-standing Cough or Cold—Pleasant to taste and easily digested—40 cents bottle—E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Eugene McEachern, city, was a passenger to Summerside yesterday morning.

Fred. McKay, medical student, Mt. Stewart, was a passenger to Montreal yesterday morning.

Among the passengers from this city going east yesterday afternoon were W. S. Louison and Jas. B. Heagan.

Rev. J. E. Purdy, St. John, formerly of this city, has retired upon his duties as rector of Christ Church, Campbellton, N. B.

At the police court in this city yesterday Mamie Steele, charged with being drunk, was found guilty and fined ten dollars or twenty days.

Arthur Fraser, of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, city, has returned from Sackville, N. B., where he has been relieving for the past few weeks.

Lee and Mrs. Horne and son Alex, leave on return tomorrow morning to High River, Alberta, after spending the past four months visiting friends on the Island.

Miss Maud Horne, daughter of Alexander Horne, city, leaves this morning on return to Newport, R. I., after spending the past year at her home in the city.

Miss Cora Davinson, bookkeeper with Bruce Stewart & Co., has returned from a very enjoyable visit to Boston, New York and other American cities.

E. H. and Mrs. Beer and family, city, left on the afternoon train yesterday for Summerside, en route to California where they will in future reside. Much regret has been expressed during the last remaining days of their sojourn here on the occasion of their coming departure and this regret was the more emphatically expressed at the train yesterday afternoon when a very large number of their friends and acquaintances accompanied them to the station to bid them adieu. The hope was universal that they might return some day not far distant to renew the innumerable friendships they have won and retained during their residence here.

The home of Geo. W. H. and Mrs. Stevenson, Fredericton, was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday the 4th inst when their daughter Emily May was united in marriage to Andrew Boyd, merchant, Portauquique, N. S. Rev. H. R. Bell performed the marriage ceremony, while Mrs. Wyand, cousin of the bride, played the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, was prettily gowned in white silk voile with net and chiffon trimmings. She wore a bridal veil with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and maiden hair fern. The house was nicely decorated for the occasion with ferns, autumn leaves and cut flowers. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd left on the evening express for their future home in Portauquique, N. S., amid showers of rice and good wishes.

Tobacco: We have the biggest variety and freshest stock of tobaccos in the city. We buy direct from makers and our "humidor" case keeps our stock in perfect condition. Don't pass us for tobacco, step in and try a sample purchase. The MacKinnon Drug Co., corner Gt. Geo. and Kent Sts. dtf.
